Continued from the First Page. have been brought out prominently, and the have been brought out prominently, and the picture now presents a new, fresh and neat appearance. In removing the painting for repairs, a mystery which has puzzled many clerks, and others connected with the office, has been cleared up. In winter time there was always a chilly air about the main desk, and this could not be accounted for. When the painting was taken away a few days ago, it was discovered that the upper part of the sash in the window behind it was down. It is supposed that in 1835, when this window was repaired, the workmen forgot to close it, and the sash has remained down from then until the sash has remained down from then until

A wooden eagle overhangs the coat of arms. This has also been nicely regilded. When the dust was removed from it a few days ago, two small composition plates were found. These plates bore the following inscriptions:

"This statue was prepared for and used on top of the funeral car in the great civic and military procession, directed by the special committee of Select and Common Councils, in committee of Select and Common Councils, in commemoration of the death of Zachary Taylor, late President of the United States, July 30, 1850. Francis Fox, sculptor. "Special Committee on Arrangements: John Price Wetherill, Chairman; John Cruoks, A. T. Waterman, Isaac Elliott, Charles A. Poul-son, Benjamin Orne, Wm. G. Montz, Frederson, Benjamin Orne, Wm. G. Mentz, Frederick Lennig and Thomas Snowden."

The carpets on the floor are of entirely new patterns, elegantly designed, and of the importations of E. H. Godshalk & Co. That in the main hall is a crimson and drab mosaic; the base is of the new Giraffe hue, and the foreground strictly mosaic network, picked out with crimson and gold, the whole forming one of the prettiest designs ever made. The carpet intended for the Mayor's private office was made from a design furnished by E. H. Godshalk & Co., and manufactured by Lapworth & Co., the celebrated carpet-makers of London. It has a green ground with gold fret work, shaded with light emerald, gold and drab.

The work on the private office and ante-room is still in progress, and will probably be finished this week.

LARCENY FROM AN EXPRESS WAGON.— Thomas Coulan was before Alderman Kerr, this afternoon, upon the charge of the larceny of a bundle of scarfs, valued at $128.40, which had been shipped by Bunting, Durborow & Co., by Adams Express. The bundle was taken from an express wagon on Third street, near Market, last evening, while the driver was temporarily absent. John Simons, the driver, testified that he observed the defenddriver, testined that he observed the defend-ant crossing Market street, with the bundle, and asked him where he got it. Conlan re-plied that it belonged to him and he got it in an alley on Third street. He took witness to show him, then dragged him in, and in a tus-sle, which ensued, bit his linger severely. Conlan was committed to answer the charge of mayhem and larceny.

POLICEMAN IN TROUBLE.—Thomas Lowry, a policeman of the Fifth District, was before Alderman Beitler this afternoon, upon the of assault and battery on Robert T. Lowry and another officer had arrested a woman on Moravian street for drunk-enness. Smith didn't like the way they were treating the woman, followed them, and noted down their numbers. Smith afterwards told Lowry that he had his number, whereupon, it is alleged, Lowry swore at Smith, took hold of him, dragged him to the Station-house, and charged him with assault and battery and in-terfering with an officer. After the hearing, Lowry was held in $600 bail to answer at court.

ANOTHER COAL OIL EXPLOSION.—This morning, a young woman, named Fanny McGuigan, employed as a nurse in the house of Thomas Riley, No. 1508 America street, was burned in a terrible manner. She was engaged in making a fire, and, with a view of hastening her work, she began to pour coal oil from a can on the kindling wood. The can exploded. The contents scattered over her clothing, took fire, and she sustained injuries from which, it is thought, it is not possible for her to recover. She was conveyed to St. Mary's Hospital.

RECOVERY OF A LOST DIAMOND PIN.—A Mrs. Lee, a resident of this city, lost a diamond breastpin, valued at $500, in Chicago, about two years ago. Yesterday Mrs. L. observed two years ago. Yesterday Mrs. L. observed her pin in the shirt bosom of a young gentle-man who happened to be in the same hotel where she resides. She sent for Lieut. Gereke, and the young man was arrested. The prisand was held in $2,000 bail for a further hear-

THE HAYTIEN RAM.—The ram Triumph, formerly Atlanta, is now in custody of a Deputy U.S. Marshal, at Chester, by virtue of a writ issued by U.S. Commissioner Charles P. Clarke. The writ was issued upon a claim for wages on the part of some of the officers, previous to the transfer of the vessel to the Haytien authorities. A hearing of the case was to have been had to-day, but was postponed un-

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.-Francis S. Elmon. while passing along Eighth street, near Fitz-water, last night, was attacked by two men and knocked down. His pockets were then rified of their contents. The thieves got about 318 and some papers. They escaped across "Sweeney's lot."

TEMPERANCE MEETING .- A large meeting on behalf of the temperance cause was held last evening at the Twentieth Street M. E. Church. After a prayer by Rev. W. H. Burrell, Mrs. Sheppard, of Illinois, made an eloquent address. At the close of her remarks, 186 persons signed the pledge.

RUNAWAY AND ACCIDENT. - A pair of horses attached to an empty hay-wagon ran away on Tioga street, near the Germantown Rail-road, yesterday. The driver, a man named Henry Upham, was thrown out and was severely bruised.

Anniversary.—The Union Passenger Railway is five years old to-day, and in honor of the event the drivers all have their horses decorated with flags. ROBINSON'S ART-SALE.—An assembly of art-loving people, on Christmas presents bent but of a frugal mind, gathered this morning at the old emporium of A. S. Robinson, No. 910 the old emporium of A. S. Robinson, No. 910 Chestnut street, and started the bidding with a good deal of spirit. Although the competition was considerable, however, a number of bargains were secured, which seemed to whet the public appetite for "more." The stock is truly rich in tasteful goods adapted for this generous season. Among the four hundred lots, including paintings, engravings, chromos, photographs and enamels, all framed in the best taste, it would be strange indeed if there were not material to please everybody. there were not material to please everybody. The sale will be continued to-morrow and Friday. We have not space to go into particulars in reference to the stock, a better idea of which will be obtained by referring to the advertisement in another column, or, best of all, by attending at the store and studying the catalogue. Martin Brothers, the auctioneers, are conducting the auction with decided ability, and will earn the trust of the public as advisers and guides in fine-art matters. Effect of the President's Message. The Havana correspondent of the N.Y. Times says:

The effect of the Message was electric, and Cuban stock went down; but it must be understood that the act of non-recognition will not be productive of as much evil to them as recognition would have been of benefit. I recognition would have been of benefit. I have no hesitation in saying that hundreds of lukewarm Cubans, who, until now, were more interested in piling up the dollars than in the future of their native home, awaiting and expecting that America and the Americans would do the fighting for them, will now openly oppose the insurgent cause, not so much out of a belief as from the reason that hereafter the fighting Cubans will not spare the plantation, house or life of Cuban or Spaniard, and destroy also the property of those who have hitherto been only sympathizers. General Grant has changed the character of the Cuban war; it will henceforth be no longer a series of insignificant forth be no longer a series of insignificant skirmishes and make-believe battles, but, as it has long threatened to be, a war of fire and sword, a war of incendiarism and extermina-

An Exciting Scene --- Swearing in Volun-teers. The Times's Havana correspondent has the following:

Among the different battalions lately arrived from Spain, none have attracted more atten-tion than the so-called Covadonga Volunteers, from the province in Asturias, in Old Spain They arrived by the steamer Comillas, on Sunday, and were escorted in procession through the streets, which were gaily deco-rated with the Spanish colors. These soldiers are like the others lately arrived from Spain, and it seems almost inhuman that the passions or politics of men should require the sacrifice of so many hundreds of young lives. On being received at the Machina by the Committee on Festivities, where several speeches were made, the Colonel commanding them became excited, and turning with his drawn sword to-ward his command, he shouted:

"Volunteers of Covadonga, do you swear to shed the last drop of your blood in defence of the national integrity, and not to lay down your arms while an enemy of the fatherland

And from a thousand voices the answer came: "We swear." The scene was really grand, and the faces of all the spectators seemed to lighten up with intelligence and determination. At that moment I could realize how the Spaniards of old must have looked when going to battle.

CITY NOTICES.

AN ARRIVAL EXTRAORDINARY.-Great excitement! The Stranger's Baygage Opened! Superb Display! King Santa Claus arrived about midnight in Philadelphia, and straightway proceeded to his head-quarters, No. 1037 Spring Gardon street, where his baggage was speedily opened and the contents arrayed upon the shelves and counters of that sumptious establish-ment. George W. Jerkins, Esq., the host, did the honors in a style belitting the glorious occasion, and the King testified his full appreciation of the ceremonies by a neat speech, in which he cordially invited the public especially the juveniles, to call and see him. As his so journ with us is but short, every one should avail them selves of the invitation

OUR FIRM BELIEF .- There is always com-OUR I'IRM BELIEF.—There is always compered as well as pleasure in wearing a neatly-made, nice-fitting pair of French calf boots; but there are comparatively few among the followers of St. Crispin who thoroughly understand the art of making them. To such of our readers who are not already cognizant of the fact, we would state that William H. Helweg, the accomplished artisan, No. 535 Arch street, next to the corner of Sixth-has attained such proficiency, that he invariably pleases all who favor him with their patronage. To undertake to pass through the Christmas Holidays without encasing your pedal extremities in a pair of Helwog's boots, is to curtail your enjoyment at least 60 percon: You had better go see Helweg about this before it is too late.

A MEDICAL PHENOMENON!—A simple lozenge has thrown all purgative pills into the shade. It is palatable as candy. It is the vegetable equivalent of Mercury. It is harmless as water. It cures dyspepsia. It regulates the secretions. It fully relieves the bowels. The people believe in it, and its name, Dr. Winsow's Liver and Stomach Lozense, is already a "household word." Sold by all druggists.

PUHITY VERSUS POISON.—There is as much difference between Phadon's Vitalia or Salvation for the Hale and the filth charged hair-darkeners, as between the Pool of Bethesda, that an angel stirred, and a fever-breeding mud-pond. The Vitalia is a crystalline fluid, without a single impurity or noxious property, and the naturalness of the shades it imparts to gray hair is unequalled.

Low Prices Are Doing It!

The people are now convinced that we actually are UNDERSELLING EVERYBODY, and that, too, by so large a margin as to defy COMPARISON, to say nothing about competition ! THIS GRAND CLOTHING SALE is in every respect a duplicate of the GREAT EXECUTORS' SALE held one year ago, at which the people well remember they secured the best BARGAINS in Clothing that they have ever made in their lives.

THIS IS THE STATEMENT OF OUR CASE:

Anticipating, as did all Merchants, an unusually brisk trade, we invested EIGHT HUNDRED THOUSAND DOL-LARS ($800,000) in the purchase and manufacture of Clothing. Our Sales have exceeded last year's, but have fallen short of our calculations, amounting to the present time for Fall Trade to about $500,000, leaving us THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS' WORTH OF GARMENTS of every description, suitable to all classes, made up with the utmost care, of the very finest materials, not one dellar's worth of which are we willing to carry over into next year; hence we are determined, AT ALL HAZARDS, to make

A CLEAN SWEEP.

We, then, offer our Entire Stock at prices as low as those prevailing at the Great Sale of last Fall, bringing some of our prices far below the cost of manufacturing.
