DARING ATTEMPT AT HOUSEBREAKING.
About moon, yestorday, three well-dressed young men, who had been loltering at the corner of Moyamensing avenue and Dickerson street, attempted to forcibly enter the dwelling of Mr. Thomas Worsley, at the intersection of those thoroughfares. Mrs. Worsley had just gone to a neighboring grocery store, and in a moment afterwards one of the thieves pulled the door bell. No one answering indicated that the house was not guarded. Two of the party scaled the fence, and with a "jimmy" commenced operations on the back door of the kitchen. One bolt was forced off, and the others partly so. Mrs. W. returned while the scoundrels were at work. They were of course surprised, and upon being confronted with the lady asked her if Mrs. Ketler lived there. She thought there was something wrong, and upon discovering that the door was broken open, gave the alarm by crying "Stop thief!" The despoilers fied in different directions, one of them throwing the "jimmy" in a yard during his flight. A citizen caught one of the fellows, but was unable to hold him. There were no police officers in that section of the city at the time. Citizens who observe well-dressed, strange young men er half-grown boys standing about street corners should regard them with more than ordinary suspicion. This "loafing" at street intersections is considered as a preliminary to robbing houses. Sometimes women who go to market leave their residences without protection. This the thieves ascertain, and they seldom fail to avail themselves of the opportunity thus afforded to commit robbery.

PROTESTANTS IN COUNCIL.—President DARING ATTEMPT AT HOUSEBREAKING

commit robbery.

PROTESTANTS IN COUNCIL. - President Wagner, yesterday, presented an exhaustive reply to Councilmen Dillon, Griffiths, Judge, Stahl, Campbell and Stockdale, the gentle-Stalil, Campbell and Stockdale, the gentlemen who protested, last week, against the ruling upon certain points of order at the preceding meeting. After an elaborate defence of his position, General Wagner concludes his protest against the protest by saying;—"By this lengthy discussion I have, perhaps, given the protest an importance altogether lictitious, yet I feel justified in trespassing upon the time and patience of Common Council if I have overthrown the insinuation that the validity of the ordinance mon Council if I have overthrown the insinuation that the validity of the ordinance passed was impaired by my action and decision, and if I have shown that the zeal for the public welfare which, of course, actuated the gentlemen in signing this paper, went beyond their knowledge of parliamentary law."

FRENCH BENNVOLENT SOCIETY.—At the annual meeting, held at 307 Walnut street yesterday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—M. Bouvier.

Vice President—H. A. Pintard.

Treasurer—M. V. Olry.
Secretary—N. Petry.
Directors—P. S. Bernardy, J. Berr, H. Ducommun, P. Lafitte, J. E. Lafore, C. L. Pascal, W. Pelletier, C. Penas, Hy. Perdriaux,

The Society numbers 225 members, including 44 ladies. Amount distributed in money and coal, $1,587 40. 1,012 applications for relief were provided for.

Persons wishing to become members or desiring to contribute to the Society, will please address either of the above-named officers. THE LIBRARY OF WILLIAM B. REED is to be sold under a Sheriff's execution, by M.

be sold under a Sherin's execution, by M. Thomas & Sons, at their auction rooms, on Monday afternoon next. Mr. Reed was a dainty collector, and for the sake of the party for whose benefit the books are to be sold, we trust there will be a large assemblage of liberal buyers. The catalogue contains about four hundred lots, including fine editions of tendend works and an admirable variety of standard works and an admirable variety of belles-lettres works. Several are made more valuable by autograph signatures and autograph letters of their authors. Mr. Reed's furniture has already been sold by the Sheriff. The house cannot be sold under the execution on account of the first mortgage to another STREET CLEANING.—Notwithstanding the strenuous efforts made by the Board of Health to have the streets of the city kept in a clean condition, pedestrians have to wade through mud in almost every section. The contractors seem to almost entirely neglect the work which they have agreed to do and are under bonds for the faithful performance of. The warrants of the non-doing contractors have been withthree or four contractors have been promptly paid, but even this stringent regulation does not seem to have the desired effect. Proposals for cleaning the streets for two years from the 1st of January next have been advertised for, and the Board of Health will hold a meeting to-morrow to receive and open the bids.

THE STORES.—The near approach of Christ-THE STORES.—The near approach of Christmas has greatly livened up retail business of all kinds. The streets upon which retail stores are principally located are crowded daily with ladies and others, engaged in purchasing presents for the little ones. The windows of the stores devoted to the sale of fancy goods, toys and confectionery all present a very showy and and attractive appearance, and things are going off at very cheap rates when compared with the prices which prevailed two or three years ago.

House Roberty.—The dwelling of Mrs. Foster, No. 2129 Mt. Vernon street, was entered through the front parlor-window last evening, while the tamily was at supper. The thief passed out into the entry, where he secured two overcoats belonging to Mr. F. F. Shattuck, and then took his departure, leaving the front deer over ing the front door open. FATAL RESULT.—Mrs. Mary McNalley, who was badly burned by her clothes taking fire from a coal oil lamp at her residence, No. 1440 America street, as stated in the BULLETIN of yesterday, died from the effects of her injuries a few hours after the occurrence.

SLIGHT FIRE .- Last evening, about eight o'clock, a fire occurred in the cotton factory of Richard Garsed, at Frankford. The flames originated from the picker machine, and were extinguished before any serious damage had AN OWNER WANTED .- A key for a com bination lock of a fire-proof safe was found in front of the Academy of Music last even-ing, and is now in possession of Special Officer James M. Roberts, of the Fifth Police District.

ANYBODY who wants to procure first class confectionery for the holidays—and everybody does, for Christmas without sugar-plums would be like summer without sunshine—should visit the magnificent establishment of Mr. Stephen F. Whitman, at the southwest corner of Twelfth and Market streets. Mr. Whitman has one of the largest and most elegant stocks of confectionery to be found in the civilized world. It comprises every imaginable variety in fruits, nuts, chocolates, bon-bons, fine preserves, and delicately flavored preparations. Mr. Whitman's chocolate has world-wide four and does not need any approach. fame and does not need any special recom-mendation at this time. The stock of fancy boxes in this store is very large, and com-prises every possible design, all of them of great beauty. Some of the specimens have musical boxes secreted in them. Mr. Whit-man can suit any taste or any pocket-book.

OARDALE SKATING PARK .- For the skating season, now due, but not yet arrived. Oakdale season, now due, but not yet arrived, Oakdale Skating Park has been put in thorough order, and as soon as the weather becomes cold enough to make ice, skaters will have a full opportunity to enjoy their favorite sport, at a very popular place. This Park is well supplied with reception-rooms, dressing-rooms, &c., and all have been renovated and refitted for the better accommodation of the patrons of the establishment.

ROBINSON'S ART-SALE .- The fine collection ROBINSON'S ART-SALE.—The fine collection of objects of art arranged for this sale will be dispersed at last to-night. The character of the works of art in this, the third day's sale, exceeds the quality of those previously disposed of. Some of the finest oil-paintings, plain and colored engravings, painted photographs, &c., are included. The opportunity for selecting holiday gifts of an elevated and refining character, at an inconsiderable price, is a rare one.

Holday Gifts.—Among the many useful articles for gifts during the coming holiday season, nothing could be more desirable or acceptable to mother, wife, sister or friend, than one of Wheeler & Wilson's improved Family Sewing Machines. Call at the new and elegant salesroom of Peterson & Carpenter, No. 914 Chestnut street, and examine these unrivalled instruments. They are sold on very reasonable terms.

GROVER & BAKER'S ELASTIC STITCH SEW-ING MACHINES, also their SHUTTLE OR "Lock" STITCH SEWING MACHINES, may be obtained during the Holidays on very easy terms. Salesrooms, 120 Chestnut street.

THE COURTS.

Nist Prive—Justice Williams.—Richardson vs. The Sewing Machine Company. Before reported. This morning, before the jury came into Gourt with a verdict, the counsel for plaintiff suffered a non-suit.

Benjamin C. Evans vs. Anspach & Stanton. An action to recover damages for an alleged breach of contract made in 1863, for the delivery of 22,000 pairs of military pants. The defence set up that the plaintiff was to blame. On trial.

On trial.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Parson.—The whole morning was occupied with an assault and battery case in which there were cross bills, the dispute being between a policeman and citizen. The case was not finished.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Peirce.—Desertion cases were taken up in this court.

THE NATIONAL HOTEL belonging to George W. Griggs, on Main street, Great Bend, Susquehanna county, Pa., was destroyed by fire on the 13th instant. It is insued by the Franklin, Fire Insurance Company of this CITY NOTICES.

OUR FIRM BELIEF.—There is always comfort as well as pleasure in wearing a neatly-made, nicefitting pair of French calf boots; but there are comparatively few among the followers of St. Crispin when thoroughly understand the art of making them. To such of our readers who are not already cognizant of the fact, we would state that William H. Helweg, the accomplished artisan, No. 335 Arch street, next to the corner of Sixth. has attained such proficiency, that he invariably pleases all who favor him with their patronago. To undertake to pass through the Christmas Holldays without encasing your pedal extremities in a pair of Helweg's boots, is to curtail your enjoyment at least 50 per cent. You had better go see Helweg about this before it is too late.

YOU CAN REGULATE THE COLOR.-Every natural shade from light brown to deepest black is imparted by Phalon's Vitalia or Salvation For the Harr. The number of applications determine the tinge. It would be like comparing shining water to the drainings from a marsh, to compare it with the ordinary hair dyes.
