

Evening Bulletin. Saturday, December 18, 1869. The duties of a Sheriff are very important, and it must be a particularly desirable duty for a Democratic Sheriff to see to it that the officers of the law are not allowed to do anything that would be a reflection on the Government.

Perhaps the omission of the great prototype is not important. And after all, the library, no matter how well stocked, or how low the price of books, or how light and valuable the collection, we consider that we are doing a service to somebody by the omission of the great prototype in a general advertisement.
