With passable discipline. We are receiving supplies of arms and munitions of war now quite regularly, but of this matter the least I may say as the best, especially as long as we are refused those rights which we claim though de accorded us by our sister republic, the United States. Perhaps it is just that the 'administration of the. Washington Govern-ment should delay recognizing us until the 'Congress shall have met. I have endeavored to convince my cabinet and our National Congress that we must not rely too much upon and from the United States. I have endeavored to impress all around me with the vast respon-sibility resting upon us, and that it is best to abandon all hope of succor from abroad. I have considered that, hemmed in as we are, GIRDLED BY THE WILD WAYES OF THE SEA, we had no means of telling the world of our enemics, who hold the outside belt around us, pervert all information. We have kepta large standing army of Spain and Spanish volun-teers in a state of constant anxiety and alarm. We have compelled our enemy to employ up-renemics of 75 00 men, vet we have gradualt. AN ANGEL'S VISIT.	Ī
An angel came through the frosty air, a Mid carol singing and scepie chime; A blessing of Peace in his hand he bare, Sent down by the King who one winter day:
In a stable-manger a baby lay, To give us the holy Christmas time; And the, angel came on his earthward way.
In his purple robe and his golden band, While his people praised him and called him good,
Till his name went echoing through the land; And the angel thought it a place to stay.
Boon the King passed out to his Abbey quire, With his nobles round him in stately pride, When a beggar cried from the chilly mire,
But the inonarch shuddered and turned; aside; And the angel sorrowed and went his
