INDIGENT WIDOWS AND SINGLE WOMEN'S SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of this society was held today, at noon, at the Widows' Asylum, Cherry street, above Chestnut.

The Rev. Wm. W. Newton presided, and opened the meeting with appropriate religious exercises.

The annual reports of the Treasurer and the Committee of Expenditures were read, showing the financial condition of the society to be the usual sound condition. The receipts for the year were $26,715 73, and the cash balance at the close of the year, $746 62.

The annual report of the Board of Managers was read, as follows: The Indigent Managers of the Widows' and Single Women's Society deem it a remarkable feature in the record of the past year, that the number of the family has been visited but twice by the undeniable messenger, giving cause for thankfulness that appliances have had their hoped-for effect in promoting health and comfort.

The household remains, therefore, nearly as usual, with one additional member. Its utmost expansion was supposed to have been previously attained, but a case of uncommon interest occurred through the breaking-up of a home for one almost helpless through total want of sight, a small additional apartment was obtained by a new partition, and she added to the former number.

In addition to this alteration, the Asylum has been subject to various repairs rendered needful by the wear of years, and some instances of defective construction in original construction. These have involved considerable expense, met in part by timely bequests and donations, but even with assistance, the management of the institution year is anticipated for the payment of still outstanding claims.

The managers congratulate the friends of destitute widows upon the opening of two homes, under the charge of the Methodist and Baptist Societies, for members of their own denominations. But there are yet upon their books of the aged and infirm, and the single women's society accept applications in advance of capacity of admission by nearly two years, while many have been set aside from want of touching interest in their cases.

Over these the hearts of the Managers yearn with unsatisfied longing, that another shelter and comfort should be made to welcome to many sisters of poverty, whose lonely lot might be gladdened and life prolonged by the warmth and cheer and sympathy of a Christian household.

Through diverse inquiries, the managers have been enabled to obtain a common bond of Christian love, in warm interest for the Widows' Asylum. The unimpaired constancy of the one, and the impetuous earnestness of the other, imparted to the action of each a characteristic tone, and in conferring benefits on many, gave frequent occasion for thanksgiving to Him who divides His wealth and His wisdom as He wills.

It is believed religious services, conducted several times a week, have ministered comfort and blessing to the aged. To the many who are faithful given, the thanks of the Managers are offered. These are due, also, to Dr. Thos. Wistar, whose medical skill has been shared by many in the institution.

The services of their assiduous Matron are also gratefully recognized. The following ladies were elected Managers for the year 1870: Mrs. John A. Brown, Mrs. Robert Vaux, Miss Monticelli, Mrs. Caleb Johnson, Miss Mary Lippincott, Mrs. John S. Henry, Mrs. Charles Jaynes, Mrs. John M. Smith, Mrs. James H. Jones, Mrs. John Farum, Mrs. Charles Karnall, Mrs. Lloyd P. Smith, Mrs. Stephen Colwell, Mrs. Hannah Balston, Mrs. Wm. D. Stroud, Mrs. Charlotte W. Whetzel, Mrs. E. D. Hopper, Mrs. Hannah S. Bidle, Mrs. Theo. Cuyler, Mrs. A. D. Woodruff, Miss Wheeler, Miss Ellen L. Smith, Mrs. H. Lenox Holge, Mrs. Wm. Ingham.

After the report was read brief addresses were made by the Rev. Mr. Newton and Mr. Francis Wells, and the meeting then adjourned.

This Home for Indigent Widows and Single Women is one of those quiet, unostentatious, but most admirably-managed charities for which Philadelphia is peculiarly famous. It furnishes a comfortable and respectable retreat for a most deserving and most helpless class of women, and we are glad to learn that its Managers appreciate the fact that the city has come for an enlargement of the field of usefulness, to meet the growing demands of our great population. This "Widows' Home," Asylum and Christian Church Hospital, are all very useful and deserving institutions for this relief of the class of worthy aged women, who need the shelter and comfort of a home in their declining years. They are all restricted, both by want of means and of room, from extending relief to the extent of the just demands upon them, and our liberal-minded citizens cannot do better than to devote a generous share of their benefactions to these noble charities.

CITY PASSENGER RAILWAYS.—Most of our city railways held their annual meetings and election of officers on Wednesday. The Spruce and Pine Street Company held theirs on the 18th instant, and we regret to learn that our friend S. Gross, Esq., declines a re-election. Mr. Fry's connection with the road extends over a period of nearly thirty years, and although it is but a short route, not having a large population to patronize it, he has succeeded, through economical and prudent management, in making it pay handsomely. The Company are now comparatively clear of debt, and are the owners in fee of valuable real estate in the western part of the city.

PLACES OF AMUSEMENT LICENSED.—The following licenses for places of amusement for 1870 have been issued by the Mayor: Musical Hall, City Guard's Hall, Ann and Edgmont streets; Jeffrey's Hall, Richmond street; Germanic Central Hall, Seventeenth and Poplar; Ladner's Military Hall, 52 North Third street; Amateur Drawing Room, Seventeenth street; Duprez & Benedict's Opera House.

STABBING, &c.—Firmos Ludlow, a colored man, twenty years of age, was arrested and taken before Ald. Boushall upon the charge of assault and battery on John Scully, a white youth of 19 years. Scully alleges that Ludlow stabbed him three times in the side. Ludlow avers that he was attacked, at Seventh and Baker streets, by a party of young men, that he had no knife, and that the stabbing was done by another person. He was held for trial. Subsequently Scully was arrested on the charge of assault and battery on Ludlow. He was taken before the same magistrate and was held to answer at court.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Wm. Gailley, driver for Maul & Bros., lumber merchants, was thrown from his wagon this morning, at Fifteenth and Chestnut streets, while a passing over his neck, killing him instantly. The wagon was heavily loaded with lumber. The sad accident was caused by the stumbling of one of the mules of the team. Policeman Clayton, on duty at the scene, attempted to rescue the unfortunate man without success. The deceased was 30 years of age and married.

PENSIONERS OF THE WAR OF 1812.—Our new City Treasurer, assisted by Messrs. Snyder and Haines, is now ready to pay the annuity to all the soldiers of the war of 1812 or their widows who are on the rolls of the State of Pennsylvania, residing in Philadelphia. The hours for payment are between 9 o'clock in the morning and 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and the old folks will please take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

BANK ELECTION.—The National Bank of Commerce held its election for Directors today. The following was the result: George K. Ziegler, John A. Brown, Jr., A. E. Borie, S. W. Cannel, Thomas H. Kirtley, George Trott, George W. Clegg, John Thompson, John L. Johnson, Paul M. D., &c. The Germantown Bank has elected the following Directors:—William Wynne Wister, William Green, William N. Johnson, Nathan Jones, J. W. H. Haines, J. H. Lullow, Nicholas Rittenhouse, Norton Johnson, Chas. J. Wister, Jr., James R. Gates, Charles Weiss, Edwin H. Hamilton, Benjamin Allen.

DEBATE.—At Harmonia Hall, Eleventh and Wood streets, a debate, led by Rev. John C. Koch, Mr. J. G. Fisher has been in progress for some time past. The subject is "The Divine Authority of the Bible." Six meetings have already been held, and large audiences have been much interested in the discussion. The debate will be continued this evening and on Saturday evening.

ROVING MARKET STALLS.—Geo. Weaver was arrested last night by Policeman Chalmers, in Spring Garden Market, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, while in the act of breaking open some of the stalls. He had in his possession two bags containing ham, chickens and other provender. He will have a hearing at the Central Station this afternoon.

ROBBERY AT A COAL OFFICE.—A pocket-book containing $4 was stolen from Mitchell's coal office, at the S. E. cor. of Sixth and Girard avenues. Two men entered the office under pretense of a desire to purchase coal, and while one went into the coal yard, the other took possession of the pocket-book.

DEATH OF AN OLD FRONT STREET MERCHANT.—Charles Tuller, Esq., for a number of years an old and much respected Front street merchant, died suddenly at his residence on Tuesday morning last, in the 68th year of his age. He leaves a number of warm friends and a large family to mourn his loss.

POOR PAY.—A dwelling-house, No. 723 Jefferson street, was cat-taken Tuesday afternoon, between three and four o'clock. The back door was pried open with a jimmy. The thieves secured a few small articles, and then, becoming frightened, left in haste.

THEFT OF FIRE.—The alarm of fire about three o'clock this morning, was caused by the burning of the roof of a kiln at the brick yard of Smith Mercer, at Seventeenth and Jefferson streets. The damage done was not great.

ANOTHER—A pawnbroker's license for the year has been taken up by the Mayor to Charles Emshier. Nearly all of the pawnbrokers in the city have now taken out their licenses.

OWNERS WANTED.—Three wheelbarrows are now at the Central Station, in charge of the Reserve Corps, awaiting claimants.

HEBREW CHARITY BALL.—The Hebrew Charity Ball will be given at the Academy of Music, on Wednesday, January 20, for several years past these balls have excited great interest in the community, as they have been generally considered the finest given. The management is always in charge of gentlemen who labor to get up a magnificent affair, and as the entire proceeds are devoted to charitable purposes, the attendance is always large. The ball next week, at the Academy of Music, will surpass any yet given. Aaron E. Greenwald will be master of ceremonies, and Mark Hassler will conduct the music.

SALE OF American and Foreign paintings and chromos will be continued this evening, at 7 o'clock, at 1117 Chestnut street. B. Scott, Jr., Auctioneer.

W. H. CARYL (formerly of 719 Chestnut street) has resumed the business of a Currier and Stationer, at 723 Chestnut street, two doors above our old stand. W. H. Caryl & Sons, 723 Chestnut street.
