Certainly the Associated Press, if it wants long reports by cable, or can afford to pay for them, would select livelier matter than partisan the Irish people, and he promises, on behalf of the Ministry, continued liberality. He said: "We propose a new conquest of Ireland, make it a second Paradise, and he made a quotation from Pope of which the telegram gave only the first few words, and those not correctly. The passage is from Pope's Messiah, and reads as follows: " All crimes shall cease and ancient fraud shal Returning Justice lift aloft her scale: Peace o'er the earth her olive wand extend

This Mr. Bright declared to be no exaggerated picture of the Ireland that will be, after England has contrived to "suppress conspiracy banish agrarian crime, unbar the prisons and reduce the martial force." For it appears that all these must be preliminary to the establishment of a system of national education that is the coming Messiah for Ireland, under whose reign the enchanting picture drawn by Pope is to become a reality. There is a substantial basis for this idea. The Irish are now to have a free church. If they can only have, in addition, free public schools, to which all the children free public schools, to which all the children and will go, then agrarianism and Fenitaria. anism will cease, and Mr. Bright's dream may be realized; but hardly in Mr. Bright's life-

The Herald says: A new phase has been developed in the case of Edward J. Oakley, the Cashier of the Merchants' Exchange National Bank, who, it will be remembered, was discovered to have appropriated the funds of that bank to the amount of $150,000, and converted them to his own man.

that bank to the amount of $100,000, and converted them to his own use. It now appears that complaint was made to the United States District-Attorney by Mr. William H. Thompson, Vice President of the bank, and Assistant District-Attorney A. H. Purdy, having examined the books of the bank with Mr. Thompson, made an affidavit, upon which a warrant was issued by Commissioner Shields for the arrest of the absconding Cashier. The warrant was placed in the possession of the United States Marshal on the 7th inst. for execution, but up to last night the officer had not succeeded in making the arrest. It is the opinion of the parties engaged in the case that Oakley has not left the city, and that he
