LAFE INSURANCE.—This is a subject the im-portance of which is not considered by mah-kind generally. If it were more complied with, there would be less misory in the world, in the event of the death of heads of families. The large class of citizens who have to labor daily to maintain themselves and families should be the first to save a little of their earn-ier cand supporting the to life invergence. If such should be the first to save a little of their earn-ings and appropriate it to life insurance. If such were the case, there would not be so much wretchedness among the orphan children of workingmen. Within the past two weeks, five deaths of men, in one locality down town, have made twenty-seven children fatherless, and in two instances, there was not a cent to bury the dead. The price of one glass of whisky per day would secure a pretty good amount of insurance upon the life of any healthy person of twenty, thirty, or pretty good amount of insurance upon the life of any healthy person of twenty, thirty, or forty years old. This kind of insurance has been reduced to a system, or rather systems; and while we do not intend to recommend any one of them to particular consideration, yet we feel it to be a journalistic duty, for the sake of humanity improverished widows and sufferwe receive to be a journaissic duty, for the sake of humanity, impoverished widows and suffer-ing children, to call general attention to the subject. A case came under our notice, a few days since, of the uncertainty of life. A well to do business when was taking a second of to-do business man was taking an account of stock about the middle of December. He had made up his mind to effect an insurance on his life on New Year's day. An agent called at this time to effect the purpose, when he was informed that the gentleman had died on Christmas, and was buried on the third day thereafter. Such is the uncertainty of life. to-do business man was taking an account of Hose Company left for Harris-burg this morning to participate in the cere-monies attending the inauguration of Gov-ernor Geary to-morrow. The company was accompanied by the Nathonal Cornet Band of Frankford, and took along its carriage, which has been handsomely repainted for the occa-sion. Thomas Wallace acted as Marshal, and James Todd, Richard Curry and John Dearie as Assistants.

as Assistants. The military representation from the city will be very creditable, and will comprise the Philadelphia Fire Zouaves, Col. A. J. Sellers; a battalion of "Ours" Regiment, commanded by Captain Lewis; the members of the Scott Legion, Col. A. H. Reynolds in command, and the Excelsior (colored) Regiment. The Fire Zouaves will leave the city this afternoon, and the other organizations this evening. Delegations of the Republican Invincibles and of the Grand Army of the Republic are also going to the Capital to take part in the inauguration ceremonies.

BURGLARS CAUGHT IN THE ACT.-William Reed and Henry Harris were arrested on Sat-urday night upon the charge of attempting burglary. Early in the evening these men had been observed by Lieutenant Steinauer lurking about the neighborhood of Tenth and Green streets. He detailed two officers in citizen's dress to watch them. The accused got into the back yard of the house of Joseph Herr, No. 1019 Green street. While engaged in cutting a panel out of a door they were ob-served by a neighbor, who gave the alarm. The fellows fled, and as they ran into the street they rushed into the arms of the disguised po-licemen and were captured. They were locked up at the Central Station to await a hearing. This is the second attempt which has been made to rob the house of Mr. Herr. DETERMINED TO KULL HIMSELF.-A man, of our weit known duration induction from the func-forrespondence of the Sentinel.1 DEAR SENTINEL.—After devoting my atten-tion for a week to the commercial interests of Philadelphia, I find the manufacturers and merchants wiking up to the importance of securing the immense western trade, which is now placed more directly within their reach by the fate consolidation of the Pennsylvania Central with other railroads, now making a direct, unbroken line of transportation to In-dianapolis, your celebrated railroad centre. A spirit of determination is aroused to extend their commerce through your city by a liberal use of the advertising columns of your valu-able paper, learning, as they have, the intrinsic value of printer's ink. Bidding adieu to mine host, Mr. S. M. Heu-lings, proprietor of the American Hotel, lo-cated on Chestnut street, opposite Indepen-dence Hall, which, by the way, is one of the most pleasant homes to be found in the country, I started to make my last call for the week, previous to taking my departure for New York, on Dr. Schenck, at his office. On arriving atmy destination I learned that the Doctor had just returned from a duck hunt with a number of friends who had accom-panied him in his private pleasare steamer named "Seaweed," in honor of the success of "Schenck's Seaweed Tonic." Having a desire to see the beautiful boat, 1 put in my appear-ance at the dock where she was moored, and was kindly invited by her owner to step aboard for a trip up the Delaware, which un-vitation I accepted with many anticipations of the pleasure I was to have. With a numer-ous company on board, we were soon steam-ing up the river, and swiftly gliding by the board for a trip up the Delaware, which un-vitation I accepted with many anticipations of the pleasure I was to have. With a numer-ous company on board, we were soon steam-ing up the river, and swiftly gliding by the of the pleasure 1 was to nave. With a humer-ous company on board, we were soon steam-ing up the river, and swiftly gliding by the beautiful residences dotting its banks on either side. The "Seaweed" was built by one of Philadelphia's best boat-builders—is some-mat semillar then the Ohio river stauran what smaller than the Ohio river steamers, and is fitted up with all the modern improvements and conveniences. To use a nautical expression, she was as taut and trim a little craft as I ever saw affoat, and we passengers had nothing to do but enjoy ourselves.

Just as the spires and steeples of the city Just as the spires and steeples of the city were receding from sight we were summoned to the elegant state room, where a tempting repast had been served up for our benefit. It is almost needless to say that we promptly re-sponded to the call, and commenced the work of destruction with a will.

sponged to the can, and commented are work of destriction with a will. The dinner over, we returned to the cabin and indulged in a social smoke. Our fragrant Havanas were scarcely finished when the boat touched the landing-place near Dr. Schenck's rural residence. Disembarking, we reached the house after a short walk, and were heartily welcomed. After passing a very pleasant evening we all retired to dream over the pleasures of the day. A morning stroll over his farm, which com-prises five hundred acres, three hundred of which are under good cultivation, convinced ime of the fact that the Doctor follows his agricultural pursuits with the same energy as

me of the fact that the Doctor follows his agricultural pursuits with the same energy as he has applied himself to curing that dread disease, consumption. On one acre, last sea-son, he produced 450 bushels of potatoes, one bushel, weighing sixty-five pounds, numbering sixty-two potatoes. I was shown one carrot, grown on this farm, which was twenty-six inches long, and another twenty-two inches in circumference. His horses, cattle and sheep are proof of his good judgment of time-blooded stock. In fact, Dr. Schenck is one of the first farmers of Pennsylvania. His farm is situated stock. In fact, Dr. Schenck is one of the first farmers of Pennsylvania. His farm is situated only eighteen miles by water and sixteen by rail from the city of Philadelphia. Consider-ing that the Philadelphia and Trenton Rail-road made it a passenger station on their line, and honored the same with his name, some time ago, when it was much smaller, he is justly looking forward with a great deal of hope to see "Schenck's Station" a thriving city at no distant day. He has secured all the land he wants, and has commenced laying out and selling lots of a few acres each which will and selling lots of a few acres each which will make very desirable homes for persons doing business in Philadelphia who wish to avoid high rents. His estate contains a beautiful grove, at which Dr. Schenck generously gave the Philadelphia Washington Grays a picine Fulladelphia Washington Grays a pic-nic, including a free train to and from the grounds, last summer, in honor of his son's, P. H. Schenck, membership, This groups son's, P. H. Schenck, membership. This grove is reached direct by steamers and sail boats or by rail, and is bound to be the favorite pic-nic grounds in that vicinity. On the grounds adjacent to his mansion he has built several fine houses, his mansion he has built several fine houses, which he is renting to persons from the city. These, with his farming tenants, constitute quite a population, and give Schenck's Station a lively appearance even at the pre-sent day. Dr. Schenck will soon announce and create a sensation by announcing to the public the rare medical virtues which he is convinced that the water of a spring which is situated in his lawn possesses. Now that is convinced that the water of a spining which is situated in his lawn possesses. Now that he has secured all the land he wishes for the town project, there is no longer any reason for keeping this second Saratoga a secret. Dr. Schenck, however, owes his fame to the medicines which he has owes his fame to the medicines which he has discovered for the cure of consumption, and a few words about his method of treating this disease may not prove uninteresting. In the first place, he does not claim that all cases of consumption can be cured, but does assert that often when patients have the most alarm-ing symptoms, such as a violent cough, creep-ing chills, night sweats and general debility, even to such a degree that they are obliged ing chills, night sweats and general debility, even to such a degree that they are obliged to lie in bed, and when they have even been given up by their physicians they need not despair. His treatment is unlike that of other physicians. He does not aim to check the disease at once, and leave the causes smothered, to show themselves in a worse form; but by the use of his Mandrake Pills he restores a healthy tone to the organs of diges-tion. The digestive powers in good order, food has its proper effect, the system is invig-orated, and the lungs begin to exercise their function in a normal and healthy manner; the healing power of his Pulmonic Syrup com-pletes the cure. pletes the cure. That thousands who have been cured by the That thousands who have been cured by the use of his celgbrated medicines and the world at large owe Dr. Schenck a debt. of gratitude, no one will pretend to doubt. It gives me much pleasure to announce that his son, J. H. Schenck, Jr., who has recently graduated with the highest honors from one of the best medical colleges in the United States, bids fair to equal his father as a successful phy-sician.

JUNGER MANNEROHOE — The greatest pro-parations are being made for the annual bal masque of the Junger Mannerchor, which will come off on Thursday, the 27th inst., at the Academy of Music. The Committee of Arrangements are sparing the efforts to make the affair a grand and attractive one. Many new and novel features will be introduced. The character of the former balls of the Junger Mannerchor is well known to most of our citizens, and the approaching one will fully equal if not surpass, any heretofore given by the society.

him, made a great noise, and then he released himself and got down. He was not to be baffled in his attempt on his life, however, and jumped off of the whart into the river. He was fished out by a couple of men and was taken to the Seventh District Police Station, where he was allowed to dry his clothing, and was then sentto his home on Fourth street, near Collowbill Callowhill.

ALMOST A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Satur-day afternoon a man named Schafter, proprie-tor of a clothing store on Main street, above Church, in Frankford, discharged a load from his gun in the yard in the rear of his store, prehis gun in the yard in the rear of his store, pre-paratory to cleaning the weapon. He, says that he fired into the ground, but the ball passed through a frame kitchen attached to the house of Samuel Furness, adjoining. A woman who was in the kitchen at the time made a narrow escape, as the ball struck within a few inches of her head.

GAS-METER INSPECTORS.—The occupants of houses would feel greater security if the gas-meter inspectors were uniformed. These now enter people's dwellings, go into the celnow enter people's dwellings, go into the cel-lars, and in some instances remove the cover-ing from the meters and do not again wrap them up to prevent freezing. Anybody, under pretence of being an inspector, can demand admittance, and perhaps exhibit their author-ity if put to the test. A uniform, however, would be far more preferable, as then imposi-tion could be the more readily detected.

JUVENILE FIRE-RUNNERS.-Boysstill keep us JUVENILE FIRE-KUNNERS.-BOYSEIN Reep us their old habit of running with fire companiep during alarms of fires, notwithstanding the orders of Mayor Fox to his policemen. The injured man is named Arthur McLeary. He was se-riously hurt and was conveyed to St. Mary's Hospital. It is not known who inflicted the stabs, and no arrests were made.

ALLEGED DISORDERLY-HOUSE. — Armed with a warrant issued from the Mayor's office, the Reserve Corps, last evening, made a descent upon the house of Peter Leisner No.727 North Front street. Leisner and his wife were arrested on the charge of keeping a disorderly-house, and were held to ball for trial True founds is work were a continued and were Two female inmates were captured and were held to keep the peace. Several men, who were in the house at the time, escaped.

PROMOTED.-Mr. Drayton S. Lewis, who as been connected with the Press, as a reporter, for several years, has been promoted to the city editorship of that paper, in place of Louis M. Chasteau, who has entered upon his duties as Captain of the Park Guard. Mr. Lewis is well qualified for the position, and his many friends will be glad to hear of his INTERFERING WITH AN OFFICER.-Neal Walters was arrested in Frankford, yesterday, upon the charge of interfering with Policeman McFadden while he was making an ar-rest for drunkenness. He was taken before Alderman Stearne, and was held in $500 bail to answer at court.

ROBBING & COUNTRYMAN .- John Keil, it is alleged, stole an overcoat and a blanket from a countryman in Spring Garden market, near Seventh street, on Saturday. He was arrested, and after a hearing before Alderman Plankinton, was committed.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS .- To-morrow the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals will hold its Annual, Elec-Meeting at 1120 Chestnut street, and its Annual Meeting at 1126 Chestnut street.

A STRAY HORSE .- Delaware Harbor Policeman English found a stray horse and wagon, at Delaware avenue and Noble streets, on Saturday. The owner should apply at the Sta-tion-house, Front and Noble streets.

IMPORTANT SALE OF REAL ESTATE.-To-morrow, at M. Thomas & Sons' sale, will be offered the lot of ground situated at the northwest corner of Broad street and Girard ayenue. It will be sold either as an entire lot, or in lots of twenty-five feet front. The site is unequalled by any in the city, and it is doubtful, indeed, if any such site exists in any other city. Being at the junction of the two most imposing and rapidly improving avenues, having a magnificent front of two hundred and eighty feet on Broad street, and a depth of one hundred and sixty feet on Girard avenue, with Carlisle and Stiles streets as their parallel streets, making four fronts, and the ground being the driest and most elevated in the city, it is difficult to conceive of a more covetable piece of property. As, in a few years, Broad street and Girard avenue will be the centre of the city, having for its surroundings mansions of the Most superb character, to say nothing of the Lincoln monument to be placed there in a few months, it is to be hoped that the property in question will be secured by some judicious capitalist or capitalists, capable of holding and converting it into either a grand public building or such may require and the site demands. Bey John HALL, D D, of New York will ayenue. It will be sold either as an entire lot, or in lots of twenty-five feet front. The site
