Sending a messenger to the captain, I hent my energies to the task, using all known appliances and coining new ones. All was useless.

"It seemed as if the fire fiend had purposely withheld his adjuncts to herald and welcome my approach. The passengers, of whom we had several hundred, became frantic. Hurrying on deck I strove to still them. In vain; despair had vanished power. My messenger returned with no word from the captain—he could not find
