THE LATE REV. JOHN PATHICK DUNN This morning the Cathollo Church of St. John the Evangelist, in Thirteenth street, of St. John the Evangelist, in Thirteenth street, above Chestnut, was filled by a large congre-gation, on the occasion of the "Months" Memory" for the repose of the soul of the former respected Pastor, Rev. John Patrick Dunn. The church was decorated with the exable emblems of mourning used upon the day of the funeral of the deceased (and already fully decelbed in these columns) and the fully described in these columns), and the ceremonies throughout were most solemn and impressive. In the middle aisle of the church, immedi-ately in front of the main altar, there was erected by Mr. Simon Gartlan, a neat cata-falque, and on this rested a commemorative coffin, which was surrounded by burning taalque, and on this rested a commenced version which was surrounded by burning ta-pers and natural flowers. The vault contain-ing the remains of the deceased, adjoining the church, has placed upon it countless bou-quets, floral caskets, and rich and rare exotics. It was 94 o'clock this morning when the clergy entered the sanctuary, and, taking the seats assigned them, the recitation of the holy office for the dead was commenced. Rev. Francis Patrick O'Neill, of the Cathedral, and Rev. Thomas W. Power, of Saint Mary's Uhurch, were 'appointed the Antipho-narians, and the several lessons were read by the pastors of different churches designed by the Master of Ceremonies. The office is in the Gregorian Chant, and at the conclusion of each lesson the entire clergy present joined in the prayers and supplications offered the Eternal Father for the soul of the deceased priest.

Elcock, of the Cathe-dral, officiated as Deacon, Rev. Cornellus McDermott, of St. John's, as Sub Deacon, and Rev. James J. Fitzmaurice, of the same church, as Master of Ceremonies. The sanctuary was filled with clergymen, amongst them being Very Rev. C. J. H. Car-ter, V. G., Administrator of the Diocese; Very Rev. Patrick A. Stanton, O. S. A.; Revs. Messrs. Pierce Maher, Mark Crane, O. S. A., Nicholas Cantwell, P. R. O'Reilly, Hugh Lane, John Kelly, Francis O'Conner, Thomas Fox, P. N. Lynch, Richard Kinahan, George Strobel, John F. Prendergast, Thomas F. Hopkins, and many others. No sermon was preached on the occasion, and at the termination of the Mass the abso-lution of the body was given by Father Car-ter, the Administrator of the Diocese, the clergy facing the coffin and holding lighted candles in their hands. The remains of Father Dunn are to be finally interred in a lot recently purchased in Cathedral Cemetery.

THE HOUSE OF CORRECTION .- A public meeting of the citizens of the Twenty-third Ward was held on Wednesday evening, Feb. 2, at Wright's Institute, Frankford, of those 2, at wrights institute, Frankfold, of those opposed to the ceding of the Oxford and Lower Dublin Poor House to the city of Phila-delphia for a House of Correction. The meet-ing was addressed by C. Kneass, Esq., Solici-tor for Board, and Edward T. Worrell, Esq.

TILL TAPPING .- The money-drawer, in the house of Peter Feeney, northwest corner of Seventeenth and Ellsworth streets, was robbed of $85, about half-past nine o'clock, this morning. James McConnell, a youth of fourteen years, was arrested on the charge of having committed the robbery. He was taken before Alderman Dallas, and was held in $800 bail for a further hearing.

AN UNSUCCESSFUL THIEF.—The lager beer saloon of Frederick Stoltz, No: 1412 Coates street, was entered through a back window a few nights ago. Husband ("with his logic")-"But she's his second wife, recollect, my dear!" [For the life of her, at that moment, she could not see the bearings of this argument, so she dropped the subject.] -The Ohicago Post gives the following as a faithful summary of the arduous labors of the Illnois Constitutional Convention: "One day-Mines; Absurd provision adopted. Thomas Williams, of Providence, and familiarly known as Father Williams, is noted for his ready wit and sharp retort. A devoted ritualist was discussing the subject of liturgy with him, and claimed that the whole Bible. Turnished no instance of any other than writ-ten prayer—"No, sir; not a single one, sir." "Do you really think so?" "Yes, sir. I defy you to point to a Scripture prayer that was not written—you cannot do it." "Well, can I ask you a question?" "Certainly." The attrition of the water is wearing the falls away, and thus destroying the natural dam that holds back the water for eighty miles above so that it is navigable. Unless the falls are protected, this navigation will be destroyed.
