HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
The bill now before the Legislature for the establishment of a House of Representatives in Philadelphia is one deserving the careful attention of our citizens.

THE NEW REPORTS
The general feeling of the public is distinguished by a very remarkable inclination on the part of the members to economy and reform.

THE GENERAL CHARACTER OF THE BILL
The bill is one which will be most warmly sympathized. The board of commissioners manages the affairs of the city with a view to the benefit of the people.
