be given for incipient consumption, and the dam-gerous affections of the thront and maigs. As a pro-vision against sudden attacks of Cronp, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them. Although settled. Consumption is thought in-curable, still great numbers of cases where the dis-case seemed settled, have been completely cared, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When noth-ing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pec-toral they subside and disappear. Singers and Public Speakers find great pro-tection from it.
