Mr. Farnsworth appenaled from the decision of the Chair, which was almost unanimously sustained, and the House, therefore, de-cided Whittemore was not a member. Mr. Dawes' thought it a bad rule that members could escape deserved pun-ishment by resigning. In that way the House loses all control over its members. The origi-nal resolution for expulsion was then laid on the table without division. Mr. Logan offered a resolution of censure, declaring that Whittemore, late member from South Carlina, had been guilty of conduct making him unworthy to occupy a seat on this floor. Mr. Buller asked unanimous consent for his client to be heard upon this, but an objection was made, and the previous question was seed onded, and the ayes and nays were called upon Mr. Logan's resolution, and it was passed by 185 ayes, no votes being recorded in the negative: Butler, Poland and a number of others not voting.
