a sight which makes cultivated people in general sick, if only with its utter irrationality; vhy should a man stick his head between his ighs? It is not to the purpose to ask, What does it prove? but still everything of the kind ought to have some sort of sense in it; and it is e to affirm that the man who can with relish watch another man tie himself up in a knot, or ride a velocipede along a tight rope, is not likely to be, for example, a great thinker or a great poet. Nothing but the evidence of my own eyes would convince me that Browning or Mr. Mill is in the habit of frequenting such spectacles. I should strongly doubt if either Mr. Gladstone or Mr. Carlyle has been to see Ethardo on the bounding ball. Mr. Carlyle, we know, went the opera once; but it only ended in his comparing a ballet-girl to a pair scissors on the stretch. Yet, though there usually some kind of relation between a man and his choice of amusements, the rule must not he strained too far. "Tell me you pleasures," says the proverb, "and I will tel all very well, but from the fact that Spinoza was fond of seeing spiders fight, it would no be easy to conclude that he was a pantheist, any more than it would be easy to draw any

In about six days the limit is reached, and then a rest of a month is given to the trees before recommencing. A man can thus collect 10 to 12 lbs. a day, and some have reached 20 lbs. Rubber is divided into fine, middling and sernamby qualities. The first is that carefully dried after dipping; the second is that less carefully done, and the third is chiefly made up of residues. About 1,000,000 lbs. of rubber is exported from the Madeira, selling in Para at 35,000 to 36,600 the arroba of 32 lbs.

A railroad is in course of construction for the purpose of transporting the sulphur rapidly and in large quantities to the furnaces in which it is refined, and thence to the coast to be shipped. The Viceroy of Egypt buys from the Freuch company all the sulphur at eighteen dollars per ton. The other locality is Ranga, five hundred miles from Suez, and also near the coast, on the African continent. In this case, also, the sulphur appears in the form of rocks, much purer than the former, of a bright lemon-yellow color, but covered under the earth, so that
