SENTECE OF A WOMAN REBUREAUED. This morning, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, before Judge Paxson, Sarah Gore was convicted of willful and corrupt perjury. The following is the verdict and sentence: "The motion for a new trial in your case has been withdrawn and you are now before the Court for sentence."

"I have considered the appeal made in your behalf by your counsel, Mr. Briggs. The mercy of the court, which was invoked in your behalf, is a mercy based upon a sound discretion. It is not a weak sympathy with crime, or with criminals. In your case there is nothing to commend it to our favorable consideration. The crime of which you are convicted was one necessarily involving premeditation. You deliberately and falsely charged a respectable citizen with the high crime of a rape upon your person. And having made it, you brought him into this court, on trial, and upon that trial you committed willful, deliberate and corrupt perjury in order to convict him. You did all you could to bring him to the gallows for a long term of years to the Penitentiary, and to blast his reputation for all time. Nor is this all. I have judicial knowledge of the fact that you have made similar charges against several other respectable citizens, for the purpose of extorting money, and that in some of these cases you have been successful; but Mr. Briggs appeals to a jury of his fellow-citizens, and they have vindicated him; and he has also brought you to the bar of justice, for which he deserves the thanks of every good citizen."

Your offense is one which can receive no mercy here. While we give a burglar the extreme penalty of the law, we can do no less in a case like this. A man has better have twenty burglars in his house than one such woman as you. A burglar may steal the property of the citizen. You would rob the good name, to make him infamous in the community, as well as sow the seeds of discord in his domestic relations.

"The sentence of the Court is that you pay a fine of $500 to the County, with the use of the county; that you pay the costs of prosecution, and that you undergo an imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for the Eastern District, by separate solitary confinement, labor, for the period of seven years, and that you stand committed until this sentence is complied with."

RELIEF FOR THE POOR.—The Home Missionary Society for the relief of the poor, have gratefully acknowledged the receipt of the following articles: 300 pounds of corn meal, Bennett & Co.; 100 pounds of flour, Bennett & Co.; 3 barrels of crackers, William W. Atter; 3 barrels of potatoes, A. M. Thacher; 12 cooking pots, I. S. Clark; hats and bonnets, Barry & Taylor; shoes from Samuel C. Romer, Moore, Small & Co.; clothing from William Brown, A. M. Thacher, Hugh Mulligan, Mrs. R. T. Kessell, Mrs. Charles Scott, and others. The Society have also obtained medicine from Dr. Jayne, F. Brown, Bullock & Crenshaw, and others.

There is at present a large number of sick and worthy poor suffering for food and relief, some special cases of which, if our charitable citizens knew of, would be instantly relieved by their means. The managers and trustees can be had on application to the office, No. 633 Arch street, where contributions in money, clothing or provisions may be left. Office open from two to four o'clock every afternoon.

THE ECHO PARK DISTURBANCE.—A few days ago an account of an attack upon the Echo Park, was published in the BULLETIN. This morning, before Alderman Riddle, George Deterlein, Joseph Rottet, Van Vaughan and Charles W. Jones, charged with having participated in the affair. By the evidence it seems that five German members of Montezuma Lodge, I. O. R. M., went to Echo Park for the purpose of making arrangements for securing the grounds for a picnic. On the way out they met Muenick, and one of them made a joking remark to him. Muenick then gathered together about twenty men, and followed the Germans to Echo Park. There the attack was made; things were smashed, five Germans were badly beaten, and also received various cuts. Muenick was held in $3,000 bail, and the others in $1,000 bail, for a further hearing.

STONE ROBBERY.—The store of Aschenbach & Hahn, tailors, No. 351 North Second street, window of the store contains four large panes of glass. A paving-stone was hurled through one of the panes, shattering it to pieces. The thief got in through the opening thus made. He took his pick of the goods, but evidently was not posted in regard to their value, or he could have made a much better haul. The window on Second street extends from Vine to Poplar street, but on this square a private watchman is employed. The robbery is supposed to have been committed about three o'clock this morning.

CHARGED WITH HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Charles Evans was arrested last night by Policeman McGarry, of the Eighth District, upon the charge of highway robbery. About a month ago, Mr. Foley, who on his way to answer a professional call at one o'clock in the morning, was knocked down on Sixteenth street, below Vine, and was robbed of a watch and chain, valued at $300. Two gold rings were also taken from his fingers. When Evans was arrested one of the rings was found on him. The prisoner was given into the custody of Sergeant Lynch, of the Sixth District, to await a hearing before Alderman Morrow.

JOTTINGS.—The ice trade has abandoned all hope, let alone expectations, of a Schuylkill ice crop. The Southern buyers are in the city at the present moment in the corresponding week of any year since the middle of the year. The hotel registers partly tell the story. Tomatoes and hot-house cucumbers are for sale in Chestnut street. For the former is asked 80 cents a quart. As they are no better than the canned article that sells for a fourth, they sell but slowly. The cucumbers, however, are very fine.

ASSAULT WITH BEER GLASSES.—Edward Riley and Wm. Blansfield went into Toner's beer saloon, No. 340 North Thirteenth street, last evening, and raised a disturbance. Mr. Toner remonstrated with them, and then it is alleged, they threw glasses at him. Mr. Toner had his head severely cut. His assailants were arrested. They were taken before Ald. Massey, and were held in $500 bail to answer at court.

ASSAULT WITH A KNIFE.—Frederick Schuch entered the house of Catharine Muss, No. 165 Thompson street, this morning, and created a disturbance. Mrs. Muss attempted to eject him from the premises. Schuch, it is alleged, drew a knife and made an attack on Mrs. Muss. She had her fingers and head cut, but was not seriously injured. Schuch was arrested and was taken before Alderman Riddle, and was held in $800 bail for trial.

GENERAL HOWARD.—A letter just received from Washington contains the following: "I am instructed by General Howard to state that it will afford him great pleasure to attend the anniversary of Friendship Division No. 19, Sons of Temperance, which is to be held on the 22d inst. at the Academy of Music. He will surely be filled to its utmost capacity."

COMMEMORATION.—The annual commemoration of the medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania will take place at the Academy of Music at noon to-morrow. The valedictory address will be delivered by Prof. Joseph Liddy, M. D., LL. D. The music will be by Messrs. Orchestra, and, of course, excellent selections will be made.

HANDSOME PRESENTS.—At a soiree given, last evening, by the Professors of the Philadelphia Musical Academy at their rooms, No. 1228 Spruce street, Prof. John F. Himmelsbach was presented by his pupils with a handsome gold watch, and Prof. Rudolph Hogn was presented by his lady pupils with a silver picture and salver.

LARCENY OF BROOMS.—Henry Hirdle was arrested last evening, by Policeman Byrnes, of the Seventh District, upon the charge of the larceny of two dozen brooms from the district of Joseph Liddy, at Chatham and Green streets. He was committed by Ald. Toland.

COAL FOR THE POOR.—The Bedford Street Mission needs about three tons of coal for the distribution among the poor people under its charge. Some of our coal dealers will, no doubt, furnish the required quantity to Rev. J. D. Long, the missionary, at the Mission House, No. 610 Bedford street.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire about eleven o'clock, this morning, was caused by the partial burning of the roof of house No. 618 Poplar street. The house is occupied by Jacob Hing as a confectionery store and dwelling.

ACCIDENT.—Margaret English, aged 50 years, residing at Ninth and Federal streets, while taking clothes from the line in the yard of her house, this morning, fell and broke her leg. She was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A woman named Fiss, about 45 years of age, was run over by a gravel train on the Philadelphia and Trenton Railroad, near Bridgetown station, this morning, and was instantly killed.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A woman named Jane Clavson died suddenly at a house at Second and Fillet streets, at half-past six o'clock this morning. Coroner Taylor was sent for to hold an inquest.

FELONY.—Louis Rosseter, aged 62 years, fell dead at Fourth and Red streets this morning. The Coroner was summoned to Front and Morris streets to hold an inquest in the case.

LORDS.—During last night, 110 persons were accommodated with lodgings at the Third District Police Station House, in Union street.

THE GOOD OLD TIME RETURNING.—Always among the foremost in enterprise, Messrs. Strawbridge & Clothier have promptly adapted the prices of their entire stock to the relative decline in gold. Their stock at Eighth and Market streets is worthy of the metropolitan office of which it constitutes so important a feature. The display of new goods in every texture, from muslins to the rarest silks, is so large that the most fastidious will find something to their taste. The present chance at Strawbridge & Clothier's is one that eight years previous have not once witnessed. The firm settled their balances at gold rates. That their stock and taste in making selections are equalled by their vigilance and enterprise in the ability to offer bargains, it would be superfluous to say. The ladies will do well to make an early visit to Eighth and Market streets. The lines of dress goods now being opened include many novelties that every lady will want, sitting guise. The advertisement in another column is forcibly suggestive of the wisdom of immediate purchase.

AMUSEMENTS.—At the Chestnut Street Theatre this evening, The Happy Pair and Oliver Twist will be produced, in which Miss Mary Howard will have a benefit.

At the Walnut Street Theatre Mr. Chas. Fechter will appear in Hamlet. Mr. S. J. P. Fechter and Theodore Blitz will give exhibitions of magic and legerdemain at Assembly Buildings this evening.

At the Arch, this evening, Lotta in the Protean drama, The Little Detective. On Friday she will have a benefit.

The American Theatre offers for this evening a first-rate variety entertainment, in which the Riazarelli brothers will appear in their extraordinary feats.

A first-rate performance is offered at the Circuit, at Tom's and Callowhill streets, to-night.

At the Eleventh Street Opera House, an excellent number of novelties are offered in an excellent bill.

This evening, at the Academy of Music, Charles W. Brooks, Esq., will lecture upon Triumph. He will be assisted by Madame Josephine Schimpf.

At Concert Hall to-night the very handsome panorama of "The Pilgrim's Progress" will be exhibited.

On each of the remaining evenings of the week Mr. F. Duane will deliver a comic lecture at Assembly Buildings. Mr. Duane has very remarkable humorous talent.

At Horticultural Hall, this evening, a concert will be given by Augustus Hazzard, a young colored musician, who, besides having very remarkable natural ability, has enjoyed the advantage of instruction in the art. He offers a first-rate programme, in which are the names of musicians, vocal and instrumental, who are well known in this city. Those who are invited to attend may be well assured of enjoying a delightful entertainment.

At the Amateurs' Drawing Room, this evening, the French Dramatic Company will play a capital comedy, called Le Fougere. There will also be performances to-morrow and Saturday evenings, but no matinee on Saturday.

On Friday evening, at the Academy of Music, Prof. J. W. Shooker will deliver a humorous lecture entitled "How to Say Things."

The author of the following left for New York in the eleven o'clock train this morning. His parents have cause for believing that his reason is tottering on its throne. Colored gallery last night, called Le Fougere. Why is this opera like the Academy this evening? "Cause its Ober-run."

THE COURTS.—Supreme Court.—Chief Justice Thompson and Justice Read, Agnew, and Sharwood.—Judgments were rendered in the following cases: W. W. Gordon et al. vs. Graham et al. This was a motion to quash the return in the case of W. W. Gordon et al. vs. Graham et al. The right of the defendants to exercise the office of Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania was the subject of the motion to quash. The merits of the dispute between the parties was the subject of discussion. This morning the motion was granted. The case upon the merits and determining the case upon the merits of the motion was granted. This leaves the motion to quash overruled. This leaves the motion to quash overruled. This leaves the motion to quash overruled.

ASSAULT WITH A KNIFE.—Frederick Schuch entered the house of Catharine Muss, No. 165 Thompson street, this morning, and created a disturbance. Mrs. Muss attempted to eject him from the premises. Schuch, it is alleged, drew a knife and made an attack on Mrs. Muss. She had her fingers and head cut, but was not seriously injured. Schuch was arrested and was taken before Alderman Riddle, and was held in $800 bail for trial.
