Mr. Henszey read a long manuscript speec arguing the constitutional points involved. The Democratic Legislature of New Jersey had passed a police bill for Newark. He read from the Mercury, as Democratic authority that Mayor Fox's administration was corrupt

He declared that lawlessness and violence were never more prevalent in Philadelphia, citing the escape of Haggerty, the fire company fights, the mode of making Democratic nomiations. &c. Mr. Randall asked from whom Haggerty escaped, the court or Mayor Fox's police? Mr. Henszey answered that it was Mayor Fox's police who had aided in his escape. If they had been attentive to their duties aroun that court when the van arrived Haggert van arrived Haggert would not have got off. He alluded to a nu ber of riots, and cited the Transcript as Demo-cratic authority for the alleged bad manage-ment of the police. He continued the reading of his manuscript speech at great length. Mr. Nagle said the speech of Mr. Hensze was a slander upon the Mayor and the Police force of Philadelphia, whom he felt called upon to defend. He opposed the bill as extravagant, and an outrage upon the people. It was asked for by the politicians, and not by the people. Mr. Lowry looked upon this bill as dis-
