

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Walnut, this evening, Mr. Peacher will appear in the Loty of Lyons. At the matinee, to-morrow, he will give his farewell performance in Ruy Blas.

Loty will appear at the Arch this evening, where she will have a benefit in Little Nell and The Marchioness. Matinee to-morrow.

At the Chestnut Street Theatre, to-night, the translation of Sardou's comedy, From Front, will be produced, with Miss Kean and the full company in the cast. From Front matinee to-morrow.

Mr. Charles Walcott, Jr., will have a benefit at the Walnut Street Theatre to-morrow night, in a splendid bill.

At the American, this evening, the Bizacelli Brothers, with an entire new company, will appear, and there will be a first-rate miscellaneous performance. Matinee to-morrow.

Signor Biliz and his son, Theodore, will give exhibitions of magic and legerdemain at the Assembly Buildings, this evening and to-morrow afternoon, when he will show the wonderful Sphinx.

The Buchanan Read's picture of "Sheridan's Ride" is still on exhibition at the Academy of Fine Arts.

At Carross & Dixey's Eleventh Street Opera House, this evening, a first-class matinee will be given, including the farcical, The City Council.

Messrs. Duprez & Benedict offer a first-rate performance this evening, when Mr. Hugh Dougherty will give some of his comic delineations of character.

The Pilgrim is still on exhibition at Concert Hall.

A complimentary benefit will be given to Mr. John W. Wharton, the proprietor of the Champion Circus, at Tenth and Callowhill streets, this evening, upon which occasion the entire troupe and a number of volunteer artists will appear.

The regular Santz-Hassler concert will be given at Musical Fund Hall to-morrow afternoon, when the following programme will be presented:

Overture—"Orpheus".....Offenbach
Duet—"Piano Solo".....Bilimant
Song—"I saw the Forest Falling".....G. Pressel
Waltz—"Covort" (Solo).....Strauss
Final—"Miserere" (Solo).....Walace
Benefit—Benefit symphony.....Mendelssohn
Involuntaria Galop.....Schubert

Mr. Charles Walcott, Jr., will have a benefit at the Walnut Street Theatre to-morrow night, when he will offer King Henry VIII and the sensational drama The Captive of Lyons. Mr. Richard Postan will appear in the former play as "Cardinal Wolsey," and Miss Ella Burns, who is said to possess genius, will make her first appearance on the stage as "Queen Katherine." This will be an unusually fine entertainment, and as Mr. Walcott is a remarkably good actor and a very worthy gentleman, we sincerely hope the house will be crowded.

One of the most interesting programmes offered this winter is that of Mr. Wenzel Kopia, for his concert, on Friday evening, March 26, at Musical Fund Hall. A novel and very attractive feature of this entertainment will be the glee and part-songs of Bishop, Cherubini and others, by Mr. Pearce's choir, who have the valuable assistance of Mr. Wolfson and Mrs. Galton-Kelher, and last, but by no means least, of Mr. Emil Gastele, an admirable artist, and one of the best interpreters of the songs of Schubert, Schumann and Mendelssohn in the country. These are all irresistible attractions, which, with Mr. Kopia's reputation as a violinist, ought to insure him a full house.

A little interlude which transpired last evening in front of Read's picture of "Sheridan's Ride," gave us great pleasure. A young and interesting lady, an instructor in elocution, named M. Josephine Warren, seated Mr. Read's lectern privately, in the presence of a very few friends. A little natural tremor, just enough to improve the performance, restrained the volume of her voice to some extent, but still the musical feminine tones, inspired with the romantic poetry, filled the suite of halls and vibrated eloquently through the picture and statue of the great orator's ambitious fancy was so pleasant and felicitous that we could not but hope for a more public repetition. Read's epic is known as a fine one by audience throughout the city, and the breadth of the land, who have heard it in the voices most accomplished in oratory and declamation; but a new meaning and interest seem to fill the words, which are now the woman's, and when they are heard before the canvas which the poet has laid down the pen to paint. The reading was so sympathetic and inspiring that it was with a heavy heart and memory of the painting, in those who heard it last night. We would recommend this lady to contemplate a more public exhibition of her fine talent.

CITY BULLETIN.

LOCAL CHOWDER.—Some of the restaurants have taken up the example of the EVENING BULLETIN. They are serving chowder for lunch. If they ever did before, the fact never came within our knowledge. For any other "local chowder" than our own we can't give any very strong recommendation. Its good derives its excellence from newly-caught lobsters, clams and salt-water fish. It is the gastronomic heritage of New England.

REV. DR. MORTLEY'S LECTURE.—The Academy, last night, was among the most brilliant seasons. The eloquent lecturer probably never spoke more fluently or more acceptably. The Doctor is a specimen of that kind of Irish gentleman that novelists love to describe. After his lecture, he accepted the hospitality of P. C. McKenna, Esq., No. 1016 Green street, where a party of gentlemen after his own heart participated in the good things of the world adapted to the religious season.

ST. PATRICK'S NIGHT PASSED OFF IN A SLIGHT snow-fall. From the number of people we met, the conclusion we reach is that the latest sidewalk walks were very slippery or Irish whiskey had been imprudently indulged in. The drunkest man we encountered was a policeman. For refusing to drink with him he was arrested and taken to a police station. The act of arresting a true-blue. As the paint upon it was not yet dry, the municipal uniform of the functionary in question must be badly befouled. The most intelligent and interesting was a Latin pronoun in the masculine gender and nominative case. He was certainly all lime.

THE JAPANESE TAUGHT THE YANKEE HOW to make a top. As in almost everything else, in top-making Mr. Yankee is now teaching his teacher. In the construction of philosophical cars our progress was never greater. The Japanese top owes its attractiveness not to itself, but to the marvelous dexterity of the people who spin it. Our new-fangled tops to their own spinning. The latest wrinkle in that direction, shown to us to-day at McAllister's, is the most entertaining toy we ever saw. Its lessons are not only the nature of centrifugal force, but the science of optics and the philosophy of the colors. We look upon the invention as one of the juvenile wonders of the day.

A SWINDLER.—A woman, apparently about 25 years of age, called on Mrs. Laycock Lutz, residing on Cherry street, above Seventh, who is in great distress. She had a dead child and now had to pay for its burial. Mrs. Laycock gave the woman a dollar, which was all the money she had in her pocket. Subsequently she sent her servant with a $5 bill to find Mrs. Lutz, and was unable to find any Mrs. Lutz or any dead child. This swindle has probably been attempted on other persons, and it would be well for citizens to be on the lookout for the swindler. She is a thin woman, with fair complexion and light hair. She wears a white felt hat with narrow trimmings and feather, a velvet sack and maroon dress, with three buttons.

THE WISSAHICON DRIVE.—The Commissioners of Fairmount Park, through Mr. John C. Cresson, Chief Engineer, have issued the following notice in reference to travel on the Wissahicon turnpike:

On and after the first day of May, 1870, no vehicle of burden or traffic will be permitted to pass over the Wissahicon turnpike, within the Park limits, unless the tires upon its wheels are at least six inches broad.

ANOTHER HOMICIDE.—A MAN DIES FROM THE EFFECTS OF A BEATING.—A young man, named Hugh McKelvey, died at the residence of his mother, No. 1815 Shippen street, last evening, from the effects of a beating. The deceased resided with his mother, No. 2325 Shippen street. He was a single man, 27 years of age. On Wednesday evening last, he went with another man to the house of Jos. Brady, at S.E. corner of Eighteenth and South streets, to get a drink. At the time there were several other parties in the bar-room. After McKelvey and his friend had their drink, they left, and were followed by the others. On the pavement there was a disturbance, but how it occurred he has not yet been ascertained. Neither is it known at present who participated in the affair. In a few minutes a woman ran into the bar-room and told Mr. Brady that a man had been killed in front of his house. He immediately went out, but by that time all who had been concerned in the fight had run away. McKelvey was found to be badly cut about the head and body. He was conveyed to the house of his brother, and, as before stated, died last night.

Coroner Taylor notified this morning, and Dr. B. Shapleigh will make a post mortem examination of the body this afternoon. The inquest will be held to-morrow.

ARRESTED ON THE CHARGE OF MURDER.—A woman named Margaret Tobin, was arrested and killed at Woodville, near Pittsburgh, on Monday last. The murder is alleged to have been committed by an Irishman named Reardon, who fled after perpetrating the crime. A copy of the tragedy was published in some of the papers of this city yesterday. Last night an Irishman entered a tavern at Broad and South streets. He acted in a singular manner, and in consequence of some remarks made by him, two citizens who had read the account of the murder of Mrs. Tobin, suspected him of being the murderer, and at night, among the papers, were a warrant and distillery. Mr. Dolan expressed himself well pleased with the operations, and complimented the proprietors on the accurate manner in which they kept their books, and the facility with which they complied with all the provisions of the laws upon the subject of distillation.

A THIEVING CLOCK REPAIRER.—A man stopped at Klein's barber-shop, Twenty-second and Spruce streets, a few days ago, and asked for a job at repairing clocks. Mr. Klein told him that he had two clocks at home, which needed attention, and he might call again. He inquired where Mr. Klein resided, went to the house, and upon his statement that Mr. Klein had sent him, Mrs. Klein allowed him to go up into a bedroom. After his departure, Mrs. Klein discovered that the apartment had been completely ransacked and $40 had been stolen from a box.

DISHONEST DOMESTIC.—Emma Roberts, a colored girl, 20 years of age, was arrested last night at Twelfth and South streets by Detective Levy upon the charge of larceny. About ten days ago she was employed as a servant by Mrs. McDonald, residing at No. 1311 North Eleventh street. She remained until the following Friday, when she left sometime after midnight, and carried off a half-dozen dresses and a lot of underclothing. The stolen articles were recovered this morning by Detective Levy at several neighborhood establishments where they had been pledged. Emma will have a hearing this afternoon at the Central Station.

TAVERN LICENSES.—The law requires that all keepers of hotels, taverns, restaurants and other selling liquor by less measure than one quart, shall make application at the office of the City Commissioners for license in the month of March only. The City Commissioners are now engaged in issuing the licenses. Those for the First, Second, Third, Fourth and Twenty-sixth Wards have been granted. Yesterday, to-day and to-morrow, the Board will apply for the Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth Wards. During all of next week the Commissioners will be engaged in this business.

ANOTHER DRIFT.—The bad condition of the Third District Police Station has been frequently commented upon by the newspapers. The building is not fit for the purpose for which it is used. Notwithstanding this fact, more persons are accommodated with lodgings, nightly, than in any other Station-house in the city. Within a few months past, several persons have died in the cells. Last night, among the lodgers, were a woman and her child, about 15 months old. This morning, the infant was found dead.

FELL ON THE ICE.—Ellen Murphy, aged 61 years, fell on an icy pavement on Callowhill street, near the White Bridge, last evening, and had her ankle badly injured. She was removed to her home at Twenty-fourth and Bridge, by Officer Barry, of the Schuylkill Harbor Police.

ASSAULTING A POLICEMAN.—William Evans has been held to bail by Alderman Callahan for assault and battery on Sergeant Duffy, of the Seventeenth District Police. Duffy was attacked and severely beaten by Evans and others, at Eleventh and South streets, a few nights ago.

FIRE.—Last evening, about eight o'clock, a fire occurred at the house of Joseph Gaster, on Ninth street, above Columbia avenue. A coal oil lamp overturned, and the fire spread to window curtains. The damage done was not serious.

WIFE BEATEN.—William J. Bruce, residing at Thirteenth and Vine streets, was arrested last night for beating his wife in a shop on the corner of Thirteenth and Market streets. She is at the hospital, in a dying condition. Her removal took her from a stove.

HORSE ROBBERY.—The dwelling of Mrs. Moser, on Palmer street, below Frankford road, was entered by a force of robbers last evening, while the family was absent, last evening, and was robbed of two silk dresses.

CORONER'S CASE.—The Coroner was summoned to the First District Police Station this morning to hold an inquest on the body of a child found dead at Sixteenth and Carpenter streets last night.

MAD DOG.—A mad dog was killed at Aramingo, yesterday, by Policeman Keightley of the Fifteenth District.

FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF THEIR PATRONS. Messrs. B. C. Worthington & Son have established at No. 433 Chestnut, a branch of the one at 108 South Sixth street. The reason why the branch of these gentlemen was extended to this cause they seek to give every customer the full benefit of his money. That the value of a cigar depends upon a trifling name is known to all who are in the habit of buying. These gentlemen are practically versed in their business. Their stock is so varied as to suit all tastes, and all sizes of pocket-books. We strongly recommend you to those who have not yet made one; to those who have done so, the recommendation is superfluous.

FINE ART SALE.—On the evenings of Friday and Saturday, March 18th and 19th, there will be offered at public sale, by B. Scott, Jr., Auctioneer, without reserve, the entire collection of fine oil paintings belonging to J. E. McClellan, Esq., embracing 180, of landscapes, marines, fruits and figures. In the catalogue are the following great names: J. Hamilton, E. Moran, Sherman Young, Robert B. Bonfield, Herring, W. E. Winner, W. H. Weisman, A. Gerlach, Barry Owen, Reed, Prof. Brigner, Prof. Hillier, and many others. This sale should not be forgotten.

PROF. SHOEMAKER.—This talented young Philadelphian lectures at the Academy of Music to-night on "How to Say Things." We congratulate him upon the popularity and plausibility of his subject, and from what we know of his ability as a speaker, the public can expect an evening of real enjoyment and profit, and we think that our people to-night will endorse the popularity he has won elsewhere.

CITY NOTICES.

FINANCIAL.

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS

AT 95,
FREE OF GOVERNMENT TAX,
ISSUED BY THE
Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railroad Company,

First Mortgage and Convertible, AND PROTECTED BY A LIBERAL SINKING FUND.

Interest Payable in Coin at New York or London. Price Payable in Coin in Fifty Years.

TRUSTEES,
J. EDGAR THOMPSON, President Penn sylvania Railroad Company,
CHAS. L. FROST, President Toledo, Peoria and Warsaw Railroad Company.

These Bonds, at present price of gold, yield over 7 per cent. interest, and as an investment they are fully secured as U. S. 5-20's, which now only pay 6 1/2 per cent in currency.

They are only issued upon each section of the Bond as far as the same is completed and in successful operation. Over two and a half millions of dollars have been expended on the Bond. Eighty-three miles are about completed and equipped, and already show large earnings; and the remainder of the line is rapidly progressing toward completion.

The State of Iowa, through which this road runs, is one of the richest agricultural sections in America. Its large population, extending with surprising rapidity, and its immense yield of grain, wool and other agricultural products, create a pressing demand for the construction of this road, which affords the best possible guarantee for the bondholders, especially as the line runs through the wealthiest and most thickly populated section of the State.

The road also runs through the rich and growing State of Minnesota. Reference to the map of the United States will show that it traverses the most enterprising and growing portion of the West, and forms one of the great trunk lines in direct communication with New York, Chicago and St. Louis, being to the latter city ninety miles nearer from Northern Iowa and all portions of the State of Minnesota than by any other road now built or projected, and also the nearest route from Central and Southern Iowa.

The road is opened for local traffic as rapidly as constructed, and thus RECEIVES EARNINGS ON ITS COMPLETED SECTIONS GREATLY IN EXCESS OF THE AMOUNT NEEDED TO PAY THE INTEREST UPON ITS BONDS BEFORE THE ROAD IS FINISHED. The buyer of these Bonds is therefore empowered, by a great business already in existence on the route of the road, as well as by its own current earnings, and has not to risk any of the contingencies which always attend the opening of roads in a new and unsettled country.

A limited quantity only of these Bonds are now offered at 95.

After a thorough investigation of the above enterprise, we recommend these Bonds as a first-class investment, affording absolute safety, and paying an unusually liberal rate of interest. All marketable securities at their full price, free of commission and express charges, received in payment. Pamphlets and maps furnished on application.
