THE DAILY EVENING BULLETIN-PHILADELPHIA, TUESDAY, MARCH 22 1870.

BUSINESS NOTICES. Steinway & Sons' GRAND SQUARE AND UPRIGHT PIANOS.

trumcht termed the SCHOOL PIANO. SCHOOL PIANO. Precisely the same in size, scale, interior mechanism and workmanelik as their highest priced 7 octave shores in a perfectly plain, yet exceeding near ex-shores in a perfectly plain, yet exceeding near ex-bring case, which are offered to these who desire to messee a first-class. Steinway Plano," yet are limited

Pianos to rent, and also sold on monthly installments.

CHARLES BLASIUS, sole Agent for the sale of einway & Sons', world-renowned Pianofortes. mbl9 115. Warerooms, 1606 Chestnut street. Geo. Steck & Co.'s Grand, Square and to rent. J. E. GOULD, No. 923 Chestnut street.

EVENING BULLETIN. Tuesday, March 22, 1870.

resolution be adopted, it will impose a much ties. larger expense upon the Company than would be involved in erecting and tending a gate on It is reported that the Sewage bill now be-

-----NOW THEN, GENTLEMEN!

Gentlemen of the Board of Health, has not Gentlemen of the Board of Health, has not nies that this word, which the New York ontertainment. It is a subject for regret that the time arrived to take some little notice of Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. the condition of the streets and alleys of Phila- It asks a denial of the Tribune. delphia? With the exception of a week or so, there has really been no time, during the winter, when you might not have had your contractors at work; but you have taken the usual winter holiday, on the theory that, if there original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, winter holiday, on the theory that, if there have been no snow and ice to hinder your work, there ought to have been, in the regular course of events. But even the nominal win-ter is fairly gone now, and Philadelphia lies buried beneath a horrible pall of revolting filth, be pursued. You might go the Legislature and tell it that the Board of Health is unsuited to the work of cleaning the streets, and ask to have your authority repealed. Then you might go the Courts, individually, and ask to be re-lieved of your appointments, and to have more active and energetic men put in your places. And then, lastly, you might make one more desperate effort to do your duty. We did our very best to encourage and uphold you when you sesumed this work. We believed that nothing could possibly be so bad as the old assumed this work. We believed that nothing could possibly be so bad as the old system. We asked for you the pa-tience of the public. We expressed high hopes that you would clean our streets. You have accomplished as nearly nothing as was possible, under the circumstances. Everybody knews the utterly vile condition of Philadel possible, under the circumstances. Everybody knews the utterly vile condition of Philadel-phia at this day. The principal streets are filthy enough; but the by-streets, the back alleys, the courts and lanes are indescribably worse. No contractor is making the slightest show of doing his work, and the Board of Health, so far as any outward sign goes, seems mite content to sit still. Gentlemen of the Board of Health, do not find fault with the public press, if it holds you to account for the public press, if it holds you to account for the energetic character and untiring industry. In intelligent, kind-hearted gentleman at the He was the eldest son of a large family, and same time. "Sam" offends our sensibilities during his earlier years he was occupied almost with his senseless grimating, and our intelli-GRAND SQUARE AND UPRIGHT PIANOS. during his earlier years he was occupied almost gence with his inconsistency. during his earlier years he was occupied almost gence with his inconsistency. It is undeniable, however, that there is some father's farm, and so he had no thing about him which pleases the people; for Freinway & Sons manufacture also an entirely new leisure and but little opportunity they crowd to see the play whenever it is perto acquire an education. But he taught formed. We do not by any means accept this himself the rudiments, and at the age of seven- fact as proof of the existence of some hidden teen he opened a small school, teaching and excellence in the drama; for we know very studying at the same time. Gradually he mas- well, from large experience, that multitudes studying at the same time. Gradually he mas-meane, at very low prices.

studying at the same time. Gradually he mas-tered the various branches of common school well, from large experience, that minimutues or pople apparently derive enjoyment from performances which simply disgust others by their stupidity and absurdity. The popularity severe application, and with the assistance of the clergyman of his parish, he fitted himself for college. In 1833, young Bradley en-bareness is attractive, for their entertainments tered Rutger's College, at New Branswick, are beneath contempt. About half the people New Jersey, and three years later, in 1836, he of this world do not know of what genuine graduated with very high honors. Immedi- humor consists, and they will laugh as readily ately afterwards he began to study law, and in at the stale wit of the circus clown as at the ately afterwards he began to study law, and in 1839 he was admitted to the bar. In this pro-fession, for which he displayed peculiar fitness, he soon rose to eminence, and for the past thirty years he has held foremost rank among an excellent actor and a man of the lawyers of his native State.

BROAD STREET. The action of Councils, last week, in refusing long experience with the practice of the high-self with bread and butter and other suste-The action of Councils, last week, in refusing to order gates to be placed on Broad street, at the crossing of the Germantown and Norris-town Railroad, has excited a good deal of sur-prise among the large body of citizens who are to the best court of the United States illustrious. This is selection for the position does credit to the to be the best of driving and riding on Broad in the habit of driving and riding on Broad street. We do not understand whose interest Grant, and we believe Judge Bradley will all right enough for Mr. Chanfrau, and if he was to be subserved by this action. Not the railroad company's certainly; for the subse-nomination was eminently wise and discreet. nobody else need offer any objection. We quent action of Select Council showed that He is a member of the Republican party, and only express a candid opinion because it hapthere was no disposition to extend any unusual throughout the war he was a devoted advocate pens to be our duty. There is nothing immoral favor in that direction. The resolution to of the policy of that, organization. But he at all the other crossings between that spot and and the people of the country may be assured experiment, or who like their comedy drawn Green street was favorably received and re- that his decisions in the Supreme Court mild, and without intensity, ought to visit the ferred to the proper committee. Should this will not be biassed by his political proclivi- theatre and devote an evening to San.

be involved in erecting and tending a gate on Broad street. Not the citizens, certainly; for fore the Legislature is to be so modified that ings of Ernest Legouvé, with whose Butaille Broad street. Not the cutzens, certainly; for it is only for the preservation the Board of Health will have authority to de Dumes they originally opened the season. of the lives of citizens that this annul the contracts of the company if it fails to The work they chose for last evening's pergate is needed. That Councils consider do its duty. If this amendment is made, one formance, Par Droit de Conquête, is a three-act such gates needful and practicable within the of the most objectionable features of the hill drama with a noble and generous moral, and such gates needed and practicable within the city limits is showed by their establishing one, not very far from the Broad street crossing re-left entirely helpless in the hands of an irreferred to, on the Lamb Tavern road, at the sponsible corporation, without power to comferred to, on the Lamb Tavern road, at the sponsible corporation, without power to com-crossing of the Connecting Railroad, and also pel performance of labor for which we pay our flat one. The play-writer dares not forget erossing of the Connecting Railroad, and also money. But this improvement of the scheme fiat one. The play-writer dares not forget that in his craft, it is false art to treat the vion the remsylvania hanroad, west of the will not make it by any means entirely accept-Wile Bridge. That a bridge is better than a will not make it by any means entirely accept-gate, no one can doubt. But the building of a better the community. The remaining pro-must be acted out under the eye of the spectagate, no one can doubt. But the building of a visions of the bill compel citizens to employ tor, or they lack reality. Mme. Moreau had be a matter of very considerable expense, but the company's agents to remove garbage, ashes far better rôle, and indeed was more fascinating would occupy much time in construction, and and refuse matter of all kinds from private in the simple and motherly fermière than in any impose much temporary inconvenience upon dwellings, and permit the company of the parlor parts she has played. Rousseau, impose much temporary inconvenience upon the whole Germantown travel. As a present safe expedient, a gate should certainly be erected on Broad street; and there certainly is | by individuals for nothing. If the company | her parts before instead of during the perno sane man who ever drives on that street chooses to neglect certain dwellings, the refuse formance, she will avoid, on the stage, an emwho will not prefer to be stopped by a gate to may accumulate until the inhabitants are barrassment almost equally painful to herself the risk of dashing across the tracks of the rail- driven into the street, and yet the sufferers and the auditors. To-night Juignet will deroad in front of an approaching train. The suggestion that the trains shall be of Health. They cannot have a pound of the Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Rocheslowed down to the rate of eight miles per matter removed without the permission and fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork slowed down to the rate of eight miles per hour will be strongly objected to by thousands of citizens who daily ride over the German-town and Norristown road. The necessity for numerous way-stations already makes the strong to be the strong of the company. It will be an out this manner, and to place the health and con-venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo-will operation of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meilfor numerous way-stations already makes the travel very slow, more time being consumed in stopping and starting, than in running the train, and it would be anything but satisfactory to the residents of Germantown, Norristown and DRAMATIC. "Sam" at the Walnut.

There is a class of persons who, having no buried beneath a horrible pall of revolting filth, disgusting to the senses, an outrage upon modern civilization, the cause of bitter taunts and revilings from neighboring cities, a hin-drance to the prosperity of Philadelphia, an in-vitation and provocation to disease and pesti-kence, a very great discredit to you, individ-mally, Gentlemen of the Board of Health. What are you going to do about it? There would seem to be but three rational courses to be pursued. You might go the Legislature and the initiative idiots were miserable with that the Board of Health is unsuited

BOARD OF Health, do not find failt when due Public press, if it holds you to account for the neglect of duty. HON. JOSEPH P. BRADLEY.

 The Hon. Joseph P. Isratley, who was con FORMULA PROVIDE ALLEX AND THE PROVIDE ALLEX AND THE POWDER AND ADD TO ADD THE POWDER AND ADD TO ADD THE POWDER AND ADD TO ADD THE POWDER AND ADD THE POWDER ADD THE POWDER AND ADD THE POWDER ADD T The Hon. Joseph P. Bradley, who was con-firmed, yesterday, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, has a record which is peculially honorable. Like many other Americans who have gained the highest offices in the gift of the people, and fled them with dignity and ability, Judge Bradley began life in the lowest rank, and won his way to position and to fame and fortune by

and it would be anything but satisfactory to the residents of Germantown, Norristown and Manayunk, to have their trips lengthened for no better reason than to avoid the erection of a gate at Broad street. Let us have the gate; and if a bridge is afterwards deemed advisable and practicable, we can have the bridge and dispense with the gate. But there is too much at stake to be trusted wholly to the vigilance of a flagman, who, at the very best, is liable to drowsiness and carelessness. Manayunk, to have the string but satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer, even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EXENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune, and the Philadel-phia papers that gave such needless notoriety beneath contempt, and the performance INVERACITY .- The EVENING BULLETIN de- | below the level of the poorest negro minstre a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rathe to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and th applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers.

1	the sheer force of superior natural ability, an	man can be an absolutely hopeless jackass and an intelligent, kind-bearted, gentleman at the	CLOTHING.
	energetic character and untiring industry.	same time. "Sam" offends our sensibilities	THE GOODS PUT DOWN.
	Le was the eldest son of a large family, and during his earlier years he was occupied almost	with his senscless grimaeing, and our intelli-	THE GOODS PUT DOWN.
Ĵ.	entirely with the labor of attending to his	gence with his inconsistency. It is undeniable, however, that there is some-	THE GOODS PUT DOWN.
ľ	father's farm, and so he had no	thing about him which pleases the people; for	THE GOODS PUT DOWN. THE GOODS PUT DOWN.	1.1.1
	leisure and but little opportunity	they crowd to see the play whenever it is per-	SPECIE AT OAK HALL.
ŀ	to acquire an education. But he taught	formed. We do not by any means accept this	SPECIE AT OAK HALL.
	himself the rudiments, and at the age of seven-	fact as proof of the existence of some hidden excellence in the drama; for we know very	SPECIE AT OAK HALL. Specie at oak hall.
	teen he opened a small school, teaching and studying at the same time. Gradually he mas-	well, from large experience, that multitudes	OLD TIME PRICES.	Wis
ł	tered the various branches of common school	of people apparently derive enjoyment from	OLD TIME PRIORS.	5 education; then by dint of hard reading and	performances which simply disgust others by their stupidity and absurdity. The popularity	OLD TIME PRICES.	1 severe application, and with the assistance of	of the bare and brazen blondes, for instance,	OLD TIME PRIOES. MEN AND BOYS' OLOTHES.
	the clergyman of his parish, he fitted himself	is wholly unaccountable, unless their very	MEN AND BOYS' GLOTHES.
	for college. In 1833, young Bradley en- tered Rutger's College, at New Branswick,	bareness is attractive, for their entertainments are beneath contempt. About half the people	MEN AND BOYS' CLOTHES.
	New Jersey, and three years later, in 1836, he	of this world do not know of what genuine	MEN AND BOYS' CLOTHES.	CL graduated with very high honors. Immedi-	humor consists, and they will laugh as readily	OARDLast Monday we returned to specie prymonts, giving out Silver for change, instead of Frac-
ł	ately afterwards he began to study law, and in	at the stale wit of the circus clown as at the roaring fun ef Clarke's "Major De Boots;"	tional Currency. We have more Ready-Made	1
1	1839 he was admitted to the bar. In this pro-	and very often they will laugh exactly in the	Olothing than any House this side of the Atlantic Ocean, and prices sume as if Gold	'
ł	fession, for which he displayed peculiar fitness, he soon rose to eminence, and for the past	wrong place. We have too good an opinion of	was at no premium.	l
l	thirty years he has held foremost rank among	the intelligence of Mr. Chanfran, who is an excellent actor and a man of	WANAMAKEB & BROWN,	ST
I	the lawyers of his native State.	wit and sense, to imagine that he does not re-	OAK HALL,	N I
	To the duties of his new position Judge	gard "Sam" and his play as unadulterated	THE LARGEST CLOTHING HOUSE,
	Bradley brings a naturally powerful intellect,	bosh. But Mr. Chanfrau possibly conceives that the first duty of man is to provide him-	S. E. corner SIXTH and MARKET Streets.	DIN
ł	well stored with legal learning, disciplined by long experience with the practice of the high-	self with bread and butter and other suste-
I	est courts in New Jersey, and equal in many	nance; and as the people who would not con-	At the Head of the Heap.
I	respects to the brightest that have made the	tribute to that object if he appeared in legiti- mate drama, crowd to see him in Sam, he,	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •	1
ł	Supreme Court of the United States illustrious.	properly enough permits the legitimate drama	The quality and style of the clothing kept by
l	Ilis selection for the position does credit to the	to go to the "demnition bow-wows," and	ROCKHILL & WILSON not only entitle	100
I	sound judgment and good sense of Presideut Grant, and we believe Judge Bradley will	plays the game that wins the dollars. This is all right enough for Mr. Chanfrau, and if he	them to the appellation of	DES
1	prove by his record in the future that his	is satisfied and his audiences are contented.	SUPERIOR,	DES nomination was eminently wise and discreet.	nobody else need offer any objection. We	but so much more excellent are they than the	ł -
	He is a member of the Republican party, and	only express a candid opinion because it hap- pens to be our duty. There is nothing immoral	clothes made by any other house for the Phila-	1 - S. 1
	throughout the war he was a devoted advocate of the policy of that, organization. But he	or indecent in the performance. It is only a	delphia market, that all Philadelphians, and all the people who deal in Philadelphia, ac-	ł never was a violent and intemperate partizan,	singularly nnsuccessful attempt at fun. Those of our readers who are curious to witness the	knowledge them to be
1	and the people of the country may be assured	experiment, or who like their comedy drawn	Far Better than Anybody Else's Best.
1	that his decisions in the Supreme Court	mild, and without intensity, ought to visit the		1
	will not be biassed by his political proclivi-	theatre and devote an evening to Sam. French Comedy.	ROCKHILL & WILSON, the Public Clothiers, ties.	The French Company at the Amateurs'	are also the Public Benefactors.	Sou
	It is reported that the Sewage bill now be-	Drawing-Room last night recurred to the writ-	For they contribute to the Good Looks, the Comfort, the Sound Health, and the	ľ
·	fore the Legislature is to be so modified that the Board of Health will have authority to	ings of Ernest Legouve, with whose Butaille de Dames they originally opened the season.	Social Enjoyment of the Public.
	annul the contracts of the company if it fails to	The work they chose for last evening's per-	Rare Attractions for Spring.
	do its duty. If this amendment is made, one	formance, Par Droit de Conquête, is a three-act	Big Inducements for Spring.	· . ·
5	of the most objectionable features of the bill	drama with a noble and generous moral, and Moreau showed himself capable of giving	Low Prices for Spring.	Case
,	will be removed, and we shall at least not be left entirely helpless in the hands of an irre-	force to its most eloquent sentiments in the	Monstrous preparations for Spring.
- '	sponsible corporation, without power to com-	enunciation. Yet his part, although full of vi-	Come and see the variety. Ready-made or made to order.
e bi	pel performance of labor for which we pay our	vacity and kints of change, is a dramatically flat one. The play-writer dares not forget	mare to order.
e i	money. But this improvement of the scheme	that in his craft, it is false art to treat the vi-	Great Brown Hall,	mh2
£.	will not make it by any means entirely accept- able to the community. The remaining pro-	cissitudes of life by allusion or recital; they must be acted out under the eye of the specta-	603 and 605 CHESTNUT Street, a	visions of the bill compel citizens to employ	tor, or they lack reality. Mme. Morean had a		TITE
y t	the company's agents to remove garbage, ashes	far better role, and indeed was more fascinating	ROCKHILL & WILSON.	T
đ	and refuse matter of all kinds from private	in the simple and motherly fermicrethan in any of the parlor parts she has played. Rousseau,	NEW PUBLICATIONS	BAL
n.	dwellings, and permit the company to charge its own price for such	always reliable, made a fine quick-tempered		ne. Ric.
t.	labor, part of which is now performed	Marquis of the old school. Mme. Gueretti will excuse us if we remark that by studying	FIRST EDITION, 10,000.	87 20 PL
C S '	by individuals for nothing. If the company	her parts before instead of during the per-	AN OLD PASULONED CIPL	BLA
et	chooses to neglect certain dwellings, the refuse	formance, she will avoid, on the stage, an em-	AN OLD-FASHIONED GIRL.	LÒN BL
0	may accumulate until the inhabitants are driven into the street, and yet the sufferers	barrassment almost equally painful to herself and the auditors. To-night Juignet will de-	Ready April 1.	BL.
ŀ	will have no remedy but an appeal to the Board	claim the dramatic poem La Gréve des		0051
				1 . *
e	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche-	44,000 COPIES	A L WEA
e r	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork		HE HE
e r ls	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out-	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin-	LITTLE WOMEN.	BL HE SOLI
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out rage to tie the hands of any householder in	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety.	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00.	BL HE SOLJ LA SICC BL 76c.
e r ls 1- y	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo-	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil-	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. Onicago, March 12. 1850.	BL HE SOLJ LA $150 BL 7LC, GO
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. OHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we	BL SOLJ LA SIA BL 74c. GO 76c. DO S1 22
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday.	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. OHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we liked it so much I could not help wanting to write to	BL HE SOLJ LA SIM BL 7Lc. GO 7Lc. DO SI 22 BA COS
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1570. DHAN JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we I ked its omuch I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all a disappedied shout your not marrying	BL HE SOLJ LA SI. GO 76c. JO S1 22 BA COST JO
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre- last night in a new drama entitled Heart's	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1570. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we i ked it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Laurie I circid wer that part; I could not help it. We	HE SOLJ LA SIAG HL 78c. DO SI2 BA COS JO BC BC BC BC BC BC BC BC BC BC BC BC BC
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre- last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money without It? The ploy	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we i ked it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I crived over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Lauris, ever so much, and almost killed our- selvee laughing over the fumpy things you and he said.	BL HE SOLJ LA STAC. GO 75c. JO S1 22 BA COS JO JO BE BK BL FR
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money without 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing,	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1570. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we i ked itso much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I crived over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the funny things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that secund so natural.	BL HE SOLJ LA STAC, BL TAC, CO GO TAC, LO STAC, JO BA COS JO BA BA BL BL BL BL BL PRI
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money without It? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jlg-daucing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. Chicago, March 12. 1870. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we i ked it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I crivd over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so mach, and almost killed our- selvee laughing over the fumpy things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepseially the regs.	BL HE LA SF. GO SF. GO S1 22 JO JO BE BE BE BL BE BL BE BL SF. M JO JO SF. SF. SF. SF. SF. SF. SF. SF. SF. SF.
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer, even	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money willout 11? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we i ked it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Larrie; I crived over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumy things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepecially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), then helly (that's me), May and Milly (our Beth's),	BL HE SOLJ LA BL BL BL GO STAC, DO STAC, DO STAC JO BZ BZ BZ BZ BZ BZ BZ BZ BZ BZ BZ BZ BZ
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money willout 11? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1876. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we be the ditso much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I crived over that part; I could not help it. We will liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumy things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepscially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), then helly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Rosie, Boille, and dear little Oarrie (the by). Eddie goes away to school, and when he come home for the	BL HK SOLJ LA STAC. GO STAC. GO STAC. JO STAC. JO SA SA SA SA SA SA SA SA SA SA SA SA SA
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel-	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money without 11? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1570. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we i ked it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie I cried over that part ; I could not help it. We all liked Lauris, ever so mach, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumy things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the regs. Eddle is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg); then helly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's). Rosie, Rollie, and dear little Oarrie (the biby). Eddle goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holdays we have tots of fun, playing cricket. croquet; base ball, and everythings. Il you ever want to play any	BL HE SOLD LA STAC. GO SI SAC. BA COS JO BA COS JO BA COS JO BA COS SAC. SAC
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel-	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Hear's Ease; or, What's Money without 1t? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the com- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. Chicago, March 12. 1876. DEAR Jo, OR Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we i ked it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I cried over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the funny things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Megi, then Aelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's). Rosie, Rollie, and dear little Oarrie (the bidy). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holdays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. crouct, base ball, and everything. I you were want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find	BL HE SOLJ LA STAC. GO S122 BA COS JO BA COS JO BA BL BA BL BA BA BA BA BA BA AT STA AT STA AT SOLJ SA STAC. GO S122 BA COS JO S0 S122 BA COS S122 COS S12 COS S COS S12 COS S COS S COS S COS S COS S COS S COS S COS S COS CO
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EXENING BUILETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie:	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Hear's Ease; or, What's Money without 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-daucing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is beneath contempt, and the performance is	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1570. DEAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we i ked it so much i could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I cried over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the funny things you and he said. We are eix sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the rsgs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), them Nelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Rosie, Rollie, and dear little Oarrie (the biby). Eddle goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holidays we have tots of fun, playing cricket. crougent, base ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our, house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago, I do wish you would	BL HE SOLJ LA BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL
er 15	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- pine that this word which the New York	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money willout 11? The plot of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-daucing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. The drama is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is a subject for regret that.	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I crived over that part; I could not help with to il liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the funny things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), then Aelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Rosie, Bollie, and dear little Carrie (the buby). Eddie goes away to school, and when he come home for the holidays we have tots of fun, playing cricket. croquet; base ball, and everything. Il you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house aud you will find plenty of children to play with yon. If you ever come to Chicago, I do wish you woul come and are us, we would like it so much. Thave mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will	BL HE SOLJ LA SLA BL BL SCLJ BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL
risiyen, od rfiedheo	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribure need in reference to them, is deserved.	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which ibey will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre- last night in a new drama entitled Hear's Ease; or, What's Money willout It? The plot of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-daucing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is a subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1876. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we be at it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I crived over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumy things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), then Aelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Rosie, Rollie, and dear little Oarrie (the b by). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes house for the holidays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. croquet, has ball, and everything. Il you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. I have mend my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. I do wish you would send me a picture of you. I hope	BL HE SOLJ LA SLA BL BL SCLJ BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL
risiyen, od rfiedheo	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the ELENING BUILETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune .	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heard's Ease; or, What's Money willout 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is a subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DRAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Laurie; I crived over that part; I could not help with to it liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumy things you and he said. We are eix sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), then Aelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Rosie, Bollie, and dear little Carrie (the biby). Eddie goes away to school, and when he come home for the holidays we have tots of fun, playing cricket. croquet; base ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house aud you will find plenty of children to play with yon. If you ever come to Chicago, I do wish you woulf come and see us, we would like it so much. T have mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and desarve it. Id owish you would send mea pleture ot you. I hope your health is better and you ure having a nice time.	BL HKSOLJ LA SIA BL SIA SIA SIA SIA SIA SIA SIA SIA SIA SIA
risiyen, od rfiedheo	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN de- nites that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune .	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Hear's Ease; or, What's Money without 1t? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the com- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is beneath contempt, and the performance is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is a subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. Chicago, March 12. 1876. DEAR Jo, OR Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we it we dit so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I cried over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Lauris, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the funny things you and he eadd. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), them Aelly (that's me), May and Milly (our Beth's), Roeie, Rollie, and dear little Oarrie (the buby). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holdays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. crouet; hase ball, and everything. I you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. I have maned my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. I do wish you would send me a pleture of you. I hope your health is better and you are having a nice time. With ever so much love, from your affection the friend NELT L.	BL HE SOLJ SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA
risiyen, od rfiedheo	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the E\ENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune .	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which ibey will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre- last night in a new drama entitled Hear's Ease; or, What's Money willout It? The plot of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-daucing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is a subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more areditable ever of intelligent persons by more areditable ever of intelligent persons by	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. Chicago, March 12. 1876. DEAR Jo, OR Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we it we dit so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I cried over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Lauris, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the funny things you and he eadd. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), them Aelly (that's me), May and Milly (our Beth's), Roeie, Rollie, and dear little Oarrie (the buby). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holdays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. crouet; hase ball, and everything. I you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. I have maned my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. I do wish you would send me a pleture of you. I hope your health is better and you are having a nice time. With ever so much love, from your affection the friend NELT L.	BL HE SOLJ SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA
risiyen, od rfiedheo	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune .	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money willout 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is below the level of the poscest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers.	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAN JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we is the dits on much 1 could not help wanting to write to' you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Larrie ; I crived over that part ; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumy things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepecially the rege. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Mog), then Nelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's). Rode, Rollie, and dear little Carrie (the buy). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes house for the holdays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. crouwl lase ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. I do wish you would send mea picture of you. I hope your health is better and you are faction.te friend NELLY L. Rold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by tho Publishers,	BL HESOLDI LASCIA BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL BL
risiyen, od rfiedheo	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EXENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune .	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money willout 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is below the level of the poscest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers.	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAN JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we is the dits on much 1 could not help wanting to write to' you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Larrie ; I crived over that part ; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumy things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepecially the rege. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Mog), then Nelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's). Rode, Rollie, and dear little Carrie (the buy). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes house for the holdays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. crouwl lase ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. I do wish you would send mea picture of you. I hope your health is better and you are faction.te friend NELLY L. Rold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by tho Publishers,	BL HE SOLJ SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA SLA
risiyen, od rfiedheo	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie : INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them , is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DHAMATIC.  Sam'* at the Walnut. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money willout 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is below the level of the poscest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers.	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAN JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we is the dits on much 1 could not help wanting to write to' you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Larrie ; I crived over that part ; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumy things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepecially the rege. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Mog), then Nelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's). Rode, Rollie, and dear little Carrie (the buy). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes house for the holdays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. crouwl lase ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. I do wish you would send mea picture of you. I hope your health is better and you are faction.te friend NELLY L. Rold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by tho Publishers,	BL HE SOLD STAC GC GC GC GC GC GC GC GC GC G
risiyen, od rfjedheo tfi-,	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune .	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money willout 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is below the level of the poscest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers.	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAN JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we is the dits on much 1 could not help wanting to write to' you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Larrie ; I crived over that part ; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumy things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepecially the rege. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Mog), then Nelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's). Rode, Rollie, and dear little Carrie (the buy). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes house for the holdays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. crouwl lase ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. I do wish you would send mea picture of you. I hope your health is better and you are faction.te friend NELLY L. Rold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by tho Publishers,	BL HE SOLD STAC GC GC GC GC GC GC GC GC GC G
risiyen, od rfjedheo tfi-,	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EXENNO BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DBAMATIC. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If someboily writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money willout 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is below the level of the poscest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers.	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. DECAGO, March 12. 1870. DEAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we i ked it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I cried over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the funny things you and heeadd. We are eix sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), then Aelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Rooile, Rollie, and dear little Oarrie (the bidy). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holdays we have lots of fun, phying cricket, crouct; base ball, and everythings. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If yow ever come to Chicago. I do wish you woulf there and are us, we would like it so much. T have manned my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. Bod everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Pablishers, ROBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 113 CONFECTIONERY.	BL HESOLJ SOLJ
risi-yen, od rfijedheo thi, i-i-derrich,	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DEAMATIC. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, a drama or a song, in which the	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Hear's Ease; or, What's Money willout 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsio interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is below the level of the possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Nale of Real EstateMestra. Thoms A formerce street, 12 and 14 South Socona street; valu- ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Sale of Real EstateMestra. Thoms A formerce street, 12 and 14 South Socona street; valu- abile toel, No. 235 Dock street; Residencer, 620 South tenth, No. 1112 Wallace, 32 South Eighteenth, Main street, Germantown; Country Place, 20 South tenth, No. 1112 Wallace, 32 South Eighteenth, Main street, Germantown; Country Place, 20 South And and the Sound aff South Fourth street.	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAN JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we is the dits on much 1 could not help wanting to write to' you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Larrie ; I crived over that part ; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumy things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepecially the rege. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Mog), then Nelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's). Rode, Rollie, and dear little Carrie (the buy). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes house for the holdays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. crouwl lase ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. I do wish you would send mea picture of you. I hope your health is better and you are faction.te friend NELLY L. Rold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by tho Publishers,	BL HE SOLJ
ristryen, od rfjedheo thit, i-i-derar-sh, nts	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EXENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DRAMATIC. Sam at the Walnut. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Hear's Ease; or, What's Money without 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the com- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is beneath contempt, and the performance is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is a subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Sale of Real EstateMestra. Thomas & be hotel, No. 223 Dock street; Rosidences, e22 South iteret, Germantown; Country Place, 22 acres, Atco, Cander county, N. J., & c., & C. Full particulars atthe Auction Res He and H South Fourth street.	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. Chicago, March 12. 1876. DRAM Jo, on Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we the dits on much I could not help wanting to write to' you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Laurie; I crived over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- serves laughing over the fumy things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepecially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), them Aelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Rosie, Bollie, and dear little Carrie (the buby). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holidays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. croquet; base ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house aud you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago, I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. ROBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 19 CONFECTIONERY. EVERY DAY	BL HE SOLJ SLAM
rish yen hod r fijedh eo thir, i-i-i a errir-shimtsi-	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DRAMATIC. Sam at the Walnut. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or 2 drama or 2 song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Hear's Ease; or, What's Money without 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the com- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is beneath contempt, and the performance is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is a subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Sale of Real EstateMessrs. Thoms & bele Hotel, No. 223 Dock street; Residences, 220 South is treet, Germantown; Court, including Stores, 503 Conder of the Orphans' Court. Including Stores, 503 Conder of the Orphans' Court. Including Stores, 504 Conder ocunty, N. J., & C., & C. Full particinality at the store is below the store of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. TREGO'S TEABERRY TOO'TH WASH_ It is the most pleasant. chapter and best dentifric extart. Warranted free from injurious ingredients. It preserves and Whittonatho	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. DECAGO, March 12. 1870. DEAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we i ked it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I cried over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the funny things you and heeadd. We are eix sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), then Aelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Rooile, Rollie, and dear little Oarrie (the bidy). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holdays we have lots of fun, phying cricket, crouct; base ball, and everythings. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If yow ever come to Chicago. I do wish you woulf there and are us, we would like it so much. T have manned my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. Bod everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Pablishers, ROBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 113 CONFECTIONERY.	BL HE SOLJ SLAM
rish yen hod rif jedh eo thir, i-i-derransh, mtsh.	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DHAMATIC. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever idcas of other people. If somebody writes a absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as-	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Hear's Ease; or, What's Money without 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the com- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is beneath contempt, and the performance is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Sale of Real EstateMessrs. Thomas & sond the oft, No. 220 Dock street; Residences, 200 Storts, abile Hotel, No. 230 Dock street; Residences, 200 Storts of the orphase? Court. infining Store, 613 entert. More 112 Wallace, 22 South Eighteenth, Mali street, Germantown; Country Place, 22 acrest, Atco, Canden county, N. J., & & C. & Court Eighteenth, Mali ettreet, Beasant, chaspest and best dentified "ware the most pleasant, chaspest and best dentified auction Roms. Eight and 14 South Fourth street. TREEGO'S TEABERRY TOO'TH WASH	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CRICAGO, March 12. 1870. DRAN JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Liftle Women," and we thed it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I crivd over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so mach, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the funny things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the reg. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), them Aelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Rosie, Boille, and everything. II you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago, I do wish you would is seen and see us, we would like it so much. I have samed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. Bod everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Pablishers, ROBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 10 EVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE	BL HE SOLJ SLAM
rish yen hod r fijed heo this,	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DRAMATIC. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a bundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sondt the mergender with willainous or	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money willout 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is beneath contempt, and the performance is below the-level of the possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Nale of Real EstateMestrs. Thoms 4 Son's Sale, on Tuesday next, will include several estates by order of the Ophans' fourt. Initing Stores, 513 Cramerce street, 12 and 14 South Scone street; valu- able toel, No. 235 Dock street; Read-accet, 205 South Eighteenth, Main street, Germantown; Country Place, 20 acres. TREGO'S TEABERRY TOO'TH WASH	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. Chicago, March 12. 1876. DRAM Jo, on Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we the dits on much I could not help wanting to write to' you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Laurie; I crived over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- serves laughing over the fumy things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepecially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), them Aelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Rosie, Bollie, and dear little Carrie (the buby). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holidays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. croquet; base ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house aud you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago, I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. ROBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 19 CONFECTIONERY. EVERY DAY	BL HE SOLJ SLAM
rishyen, od rif jedheo tifi-, i-i-derum-sh, mtsi-utid	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DEAMATIC. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sault the newspapers with villainous or- thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money willout 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama is beneath contempt, and the performance is below the-level of the possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Nale of Real EstateMestrs. Thoms 4 Son's Sale, on Tuesday next, will include several estates by order of the Ophans' fourt. Initing Stores, 513 Cramerce street, 12 and 14 South Scone street; valu- able toel, No. 235 Dock street; Read-accet, 205 South Eighteenth, Main street, Germantown; Country Place, 20 acres. TREGO'S TEABERRY TOO'TH WASH	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. DECAGO, March 12. 1870. DEAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Liftle Women," and we ided it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Larrie; I cried over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Lauris, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the funny things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), there Aelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Roeie, Rollie, and dear little Oarrie (the buby). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holds we have lots of fun, playing cricket. crouuct, base bull, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you woulf come and see us, we would like it so much. Mith ever so much love, from your affection the friend NELLY L. Bold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Pablishers, ROBERTS BROTHERS, Boston. 13 EVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE CONFECTIONERY.	BL HE SOLJ SLAM
rishyen, od rf; edheo tfi-,	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer, even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune, and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune. DRAMATIC. "Sam" at the Walnut. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as abcolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sault the mewspapers with villainous or- thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the i angling pianos in the country with " Dear	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meit- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money without 10? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. The drama is beneath contempt, and the performance is helow the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is as ubject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Fale of Real EstateMessrs. Thorms & good kind, in 12 Wallace, 32 Soath Eighteenth, Mail tenth, No. 112 Wallace, 32 Soath Eighteenth, Mail tenth, No. 112 Wallace, 32 Soath Eighteenth, Mail tenth, No. 112 Wallace, 32 Soath Eighteenth, Mail tenth, No. 113 Wallace, 32 Soath Eighteenth, Mail tenth actors pleasant. changest and best dentific extant. Warranted free from injurious ingredients. It preserves and Whitens the Treth 1 Invigorates and Boothes the Guma! Purifies and Perfumes the Breath 1 Prevents Accumulation of Tartifie al Teeth 1 is a Superior Article for Children 1 Sold by all Druggets. mhily rp§ Ninth and Filbert streets, Philadolphia.	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CRICAGO, March 12. 1870. DRAN JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Liftle Women," and we thed it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Lanrie; I crivd over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so mach, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the funny things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the reg. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), them Aelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Rosie, Boille, and everything. II you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago, I do wish you would is seen and see us, we would like it so much. Thave mend my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. Bod everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Pablishers, ROBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 10 EVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE	BL HE SOLJ SLAM
rishyen, od rifijedheo tifi-, i-i-lerransh, muti-tid rito	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to the the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,-grammar and all,-we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer, even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the ENENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune, and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune. DHAMATIC. BRAMATIC. DHAMATIC. DHAMATIC. DHAMATIC. DHAMATIC. DHAMATIC. DHAMATIC. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sult the mewspapers with villainous or- thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the engenging pianos in the country with "Dear Father Come Home," "Mother is the Battle Ouer?" and "Willie We Have Missed You,"	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Sease ; or, What's Money without It? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. The drama is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is a subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Sale of Real Estate. -Mestrs. Thomas & Sone Sale, on Tuesday next, will include soveral estate a by order of the Ophane' Court. Incluing Store. 613 Or marcro store, 12 and 14 South Socona street; val- able Hotel, No. 223 Dock treet : Regioners, e20 South Tenth, No. 112 Wallice, 32 South Eighteenth, Main street, Germantown; County Plate, 29 acres. Atco, Camden county, N. J., & C. & Full particulars at the Auction Ro ms. 198 and 141 South Fourth street. It is the most pleasant. chappet and bed dentified extant. Warranted free from injurious ingredients. It Preserves and Whitoms the Treth 1 Invigorates and Boothes the Gums.] Purifies and Perfumes the Breath 1 Purifies and Perfumes the Breath 1 Purifies and Perfum	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. Oncode, March 12.157. Data Jo, on Miss Alcorr: We have all been reading " Little Women," and we ited it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly apleadd. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Larrie; I crived over the funny things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there weres so many hings in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepcially the regs. Eddle is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Mog). Robids, Bollie, and dear little Oarrie (the buby). Eddle goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holdars we have fot of fun, playing cricket. croquet, these ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house aud you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you woull come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. Bold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Pablishers, BOBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 10 FRESH CHOCOLATE COCOA, Ground. At the Manufactory.	BL HE SOLJ
rishyen, od riffedheo tift, ji i ar ranshintsin utid retored	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to the the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,-grammar and all,-we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer, even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the ELENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune, and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune. DEAMATIC. BEAMATIC. BEAMATIC. BEAMATIC. DEAMATIC. Inter is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a bundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came fannous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sault the newspapers with villainous or thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the jangling pianos in the country with "Dear Father Come Home," "Mother is the Battle Ouer?" and "Willie We Have Missed You," the imitative idiots were miserable until they" do	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Sease ; or, What's Money without It? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. The drama is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is a subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Sale of Real Estate. -Mestrs. Thomas & Sone Sale, on Tuesday next, will include soveral estate a by order of the Ophane' Court. Incluing Store. 613 Or marcro store, 12 and 14 South Socona street; val- able Hotel, No. 223 Dock treet : Regioners, e20 South Tenth, No. 112 Wallice, 32 South Eighteenth, Main street, Germantown; County Plate, 29 acres. Atco, Camden county, N. J., & C. & Full particulars at the Auction Ro ms. 198 and 141 South Fourth street. It is the most pleasant. chappet and bed dentified extant. Warranted free from injurious ingredients. It Preserves and Whitoms the Treth 1 Invigorates and Boothes the Gums.] Purifies and Perfumes the Breath 1 Purifies and Perfumes the Breath 1 Purifies and Perfum	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. Oncode, March 12.157. Data Jo, on Miss Alcorr: We have all been reading " Little Women," and we ited it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly apleadd. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Larrie; I crived over the funny things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there weres so many hings in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepcially the regs. Eddle is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Mog). Robids, Bollie, and dear little Oarrie (the buby). Eddle goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holdars we have fot of fun, playing cricket. croquet, these ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house aud you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you woull come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. Bold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Pablishers, BOBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 10 FRESH CHOCOLATE COCOA, Ground. At the Manufactory.	BL HE SOLJ
rishyen, od riffedheo thread the star shouth the start	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to the the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it: Such as it is,-grammar and all,-we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer, even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune, and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- nics that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune. DEAMATIC. Sam at the Walmut. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a bundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sult the mewspapers with villainous or- thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the iangling planos in the country with "Dear Father Come Home," "Mother is the Battle Ouer?" and "Willie We Have Missed You," the imitative idiots were miserable until thoy had written answers, in which "Father" de- claved that he hed d' "Come Home" and in	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Sease ; or, What's Money without It? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. The drama is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is a subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Sale of Real Estate. -Mestrs. Thomas & Sone Sale, on Tuesday next, will include soveral estate a by order of the Ophane' Court. Incluing Store. 613 Or marcro store, 12 and 14 South Socona street; val- able Hotel, No. 223 Dock treet : Regioners, e20 South Tenth, No. 112 Wallice, 32 South Eighteenth, Main street, Germantown; County Plate, 29 acres. Atco, Camden county, N. J., & C. & Full particulars at the Auction Ro ms. 198 and 141 South Fourth street. It is the most pleasant. chappet and bed dentified extant. Warranted free from injurious ingredients. It Preserves and Whitoms the Treth 1 Invigorates and Boothes the Gums.] Purifies and Perfumes the Breath 1 Purifies and Perfumes the Breath 1 Purifies and Perfum	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. Oncode, March 12.157. Data Jo, on Miss Alcorr: We have all been reading " Little Women," and we ited it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly apleadd. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Larrie; I crived over the funny things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there weres so many hings in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepcially the regs. Eddle is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Mog). Robids, Bollie, and dear little Oarrie (the buby). Eddle goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holdars we have fot of fun, playing cricket. croquet, these ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house aud you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you woull come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. Bold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Pablishers, BOBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 10 FRESH CHOCOLATE COCOA, Ground. At the Manufactory.	BL HE SOLJ
rish yen hod rif hedde eo thish historia bar bar bar bar bar bar bar bar bar ba	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to the the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,-grammar and all,-we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer, even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the ELENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune, and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- mites that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune. DERMATIC. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a bundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, a drama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sault the newspapers with villainous or thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the jangling pianos in the country with " Dear Father Come Home," " Mother is the Battle Ouer?" and " Willie We Have Missed You," the imitative idiots were miserable until they had written answers, in which " Father" de- clared that he had " Come Home," and in- tended to stay there; in which	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre hast night in a new drama entitled Hear's Ease; or, What's Money without It? The plot of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. The drama is below the level of the poorest negron mistrel entertainment. It is essubject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Fale of Real Estate. Meestra. Thormas 4 : the Mot. 112 Wallnee, 25 South Estate at the Auction Ro ms. Board Heating Store, 50 State is the on meeday next, will include several estates by order of the Orphans Court, in lading Store, 50 State a the thole, No. 22 Wook street field-enter, 62 State is a superior Article for OrthW ASH. The is the most pleasant. choopest and best dentific extant. Warranted free from injurious ingredients. It preserves and Whitens the Treth 1 is a Superior Article for Children 1 Sold by all Druggets. Mills ref. Remain Performs the Breath 1 Freewise Accumulation of Tarkin' Interest is and the state in Board Hilbert streets. Philadelphia. HEADQUARTERSF SOR EXTRACTING HEADQUARTERSF SOR EXTRACTING HEADQUARTERSF SOR EXTRACTING	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAN JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women." and we head it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed shout your not marrying Larie I crived over that part : I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughling over the funny things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepecially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Mog), them hely (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Rosie, Boille, and dear little Oarrie (the b.by). Eddie fores away to school, and when he comes home for the holidays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. croquer, these ball, and everything. Il you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will fund plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Otherson, 1 do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave awared ny doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. Bold everywhere. Muiled post-paid by the Pablishers, ROBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 113 CONFECTIONERY. EVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE Coccoa, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S. W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mh19 3tš	BL HE SOLJ
risi-yen hod rif jedheo tifi-,	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,-grammar and all,-we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer, even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the ENNING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune, and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune. DBAMATIC. BRAMATIC. BRAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. IDBAMATIC. ID	 Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Rochefort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violincello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Melithac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Hear's. Ease ; or, What's Money willout It? The plot of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play ; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the consideration of a capable actor. Whe drama i, beneath contempt, and the performance is below the level of the porest negro minstrelenter to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Fale of Real EstateMestra. Thormas & Sone' Sale, on Tuesday next, will include several estate by order of the Original Haouth Theore, 20 acres, Alaco, Camden county, N. J., & C., & C. Hill particulars at the Arch. It is the most please and best dentified extends and Perfuses the Bround Erest. TREGO'S TEABERRY TOO'TH WASH	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. DRICAGO, March 12. 157. Draw Jo, or Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we liked it so much I could not help wanting to write to' you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed shout your not marrying Larnie I, crived over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- sepseially the rege. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meg), then Nelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Bethy). Foots, Bollie, and dear little Ourrie (the b.by). Eddle cores away to school, and when he comes bone for the holidays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. croquet, these ball, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our bouse and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave samed my doil after you, and I hope she will try and deserse it. Ho wish you would send mea picture of you. I hopp your health is better and you are baving a nice time. Nith ever so much love, from your affectionnite friend NELLY L. Fold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Publishers, ROBERTS BROTHERS, Boston. 18 CONFECTIONERY. EVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE Cocoa, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S. W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mhi0 315 H. P. & C. B. TAYLOR,	BL HE SOLJ
risi-yen, od r fijedheo tiji-, i-i-lerri-sh, misi- ritedrike res	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,grammar and all,we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: TNVERACITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- nics that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DHAMATIC . *Sam  At the Walmut . There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sault the newspapers with villainous or thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the iangling pianos in the country with "Dear Father Come Home," " Mother is the Battle Ouer?" and "Willie We Have Missed You," had written answers, in which " Father" de- clared that he had "Come Home," and in- tended to stay there; in which " Mother" vouchasfed the information th	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money without It? The ploy of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jlg-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrins- interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama i, beneath contempt, and the performance is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intolligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Fale of Real Estate. Meesure, Thommas 4. Some Sale, on Tuesday next, will include several estates by order of the Ophene 1. Worth Homming Shores, ful entit, No. 112. Weiltone, 32 South Eighteenth, Main commences and Shouth Fourth street. The to meesure and Partices Arteones and Partices Arteones Auction Ro ms. 159 and 141 South Fourth street. The Sole and Partices Arteones and Boothers the Grants! The Terrents Accumulation of Tartar! Divergents and Partices the Grants! Prevents Accumulation of Tartar! Divergents and Partices the Grants! Prevents Accumulation of Tartar! Diverse and Boothers the Grants! Prevents Accumulation of Tartar! Divented the ansethed case of antices of the orability. 	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. DRICAGO, March 12. 157. Drag Jo, or Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we liked it so much I could not help wanting to write to' you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all so disappointed about your not marrying Larnie I, crived over that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughing or or the fumpy things your and hesaid. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepscially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Megl) then, follie, and dear little Oarrie (the b.dy). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes bone for the holidays we have lots of fun, playing cricket. croquet; these bull, and everything. If you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our bouse and you will find plenty of childer no play with you. If you ever come to Chicago, I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. Thave samed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserse it. I do wish you would send mea picture of you. I hopp your health is better and you are baving a nice time. Mith ever so much love, from your affectionnite friend NELLY L. Fold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Publishers. ROBERTS BROTHERS, Boston. 18 FRESH CHOCOLATE Cocoa, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S. W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mbi93ts H. P. & C. R. TAYLOR, PERFUMERY AND TOILET BOAPS,	BLE SOLAL SO rising year i, od r filled h e o the trianship trianship to the trianship trianship to the	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie : INVERACIPY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nices that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DRAMATIC. ''Sam'' at the Walmut . There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a bundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sault the rewspapers with villainous or- thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the iangling pianos in the country with "Dear Father Come Home," " Mother is the Battle Ouer?" and " Willie We Have Missed You," the imitative idiots were miscrable until they had written answers, in which " Father" de- clared that he had " Come Home," and in- tended to stay there;	Forgerone, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money without It? The ploy of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jlg-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrins- ointerest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama i- beneath contempt, and the performance is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intolligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Sale of Real Estate. Messrs. Thomas 4. Some Sale, on Tuesdaynet, will include second estat. Actor, Camein county, N. J., &c., &c. Full particulars at the Artific Ro ms. 125 and 14 South Fourth street. The the the streate. Artificial Toeth 1 Invigorates and Boothers the Grant I. Martific Ro ms. 125 and Hilborth Fourth street. The send Performs and Performation and the wall Druggets. Matter More and Perform and the street. The the more pleasant. charget and best dentific extraction Ro ms. 155 and Performs the Gams! Martific Ro ms. 155 and Performs the Gams! Prevents Accumulation of Tatar 1 Driver No. Than PHDerrot Street Accumulation of tatar Prevents Accumulation of Tatar 1 Driver No. The REGO I the Street Str	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. DRICAGO, March 12. 1570. Draw Jo, or Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we i ked it so much I could not help wanting to write to' you. We think you are perfectly spleadid. I like you better every time I read it. We are all so disappointed about your not marrying Laurie; I criwd ever that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our selves haughing over the fumpy thing your and hesaid. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepscially the regs. Labely (that such May and Milly (our Beth's) Rosie, Boille, and dear little Oarrie (the byly). Eddle goes away to school, and when he comes home for the hold days we have olds of fun, playing cricket. croquer, thas helly (that such May and Milly (our Beth's) Rosie, Boille, and everything. II you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. I you see come to Chicago. I do wish, you would come and see us, we would like it so much. I have samed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. ROBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 18 CONFECTIONERY. EVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE Cocoa, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S. W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mino 315 H. P. & C. B. TAYLOR, PERFUMERY AND TOILET BOAPS, 61 and 618 North Ninh street.	BL HE SOLJ
rishyen, od rif jedheo tif 1-7,1-1-1 lerranesh, ontsin-utidere soru	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,-grammar and all,-we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the E\ENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- nices that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to lem. , is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DRAMATIC. BERMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMATIC. DRAMAT	Forgerone, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money without It? The ploy of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jlg-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrins- ointerest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama i- beneath contempt, and the performance is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intolligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Sale of Real Estate. Messrs. Thomas 4. Some Sale, on Tuesdaynet, will include second estat. Actor, Camein county, N. J., &c., &c. Full particulars at the Artific Ro ms. 125 and 14 South Fourth street. The the the streate. Artificial Toeth 1 Invigorates and Boothers the Grant I. Martific Ro ms. 125 and Hilborth Fourth street. The send Performs and Performation and the wall Druggets. Matter More and Perform and the street. The the more pleasant. charget and best dentific extraction Ro ms. 155 and Performs the Gams! Martific Ro ms. 155 and Performs the Gams! Prevents Accumulation of Tatar 1 Driver No. Than PHDerrot Street Accumulation of tatar Prevents Accumulation of Tatar 1 Driver No. The REGO I the Street Str	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. DRICAGO, March 12. 1570. Draw Jo, or Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we i ked it so much I could not help wanting to write to' you. We think you are perfectly spleadid. I like you better every time I read it. We are all so disappointed about your not marrying Laurie; I criwd ever that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our selves haughing over the fumpy thing your and hesaid. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepscially the regs. Labely (that such May and Milly (our Beth's) Rosie, Boille, and dear little Oarrie (the byly). Eddle goes away to school, and when he comes home for the hold days we have olds of fun, playing cricket. croquer, thas helly (that such May and Milly (our Beth's) Rosie, Boille, and everything. II you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. I you see come to Chicago. I do wish, you would come and see us, we would like it so much. I have samed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. ROBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 18 CONFECTIONERY. EVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE Cocoa, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S. W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mino 315 H. P. & C. B. TAYLOR, PERFUMERY AND TOILET BOAPS, 61 and 618 North Ninh street.
risi-yen, od rifijedh eo tifi-, i-i-iaerran-sh, mtsh-	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,-grammar and all,-we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer, even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the ENNING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune, and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie : INVERCITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune. DRAMATIC. ''Sam'' at the Walmut. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a bundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sault the rewspapers with villainous or thegraphy. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the igngling pianos in the country with "Dear Father Come Home," " Mother is the Battle Ouer?" and " Willie We Have Missed You," the initative idiots were miserable until thy and written answers, in which " Father" de- clared that he had "Come Home," and in- tended to stay there; in which " Mot	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last might in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money without It? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business, is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Whe drama i, beneath contempt, and the performance is helow the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a 'young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intolligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Fale of Heal Esinte. —Mestre, Thomme & Son East and respect of intolligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. TREGO'S TEABERRY TOO'TH WASH_ It is the most pleasant. chapset and best dentifie extant. No. 1112 Wallace, 32 South Eighteenth, Malu erret, Germantown; Court, Place, 22 acres, Atco., Canden county, N. J. & c., & Fuil Include several enter set. Auction Ro ms. 159 and 141 South Fourth street. TREGO'S TEABERRY TOO'TH WASH_ It is the most pleasant. chapset and best dentifie extantion of usets. Office, 911 Wallace, 10 Courts, The pleas and dovide their Mole time and predices to the painles- eret without pain. Office, Esketh and Si	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we it wit is o much Loold not help wanting to write to you. We thick you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We are all so disappointed about your not marrying Larnie; I cried over that part; I could not help it. We will like duurie, ever so mach, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumny things you and heesaid. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meq!, them Nelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's) Rosie, Rolle, and dear little Ourrie (the byby). Eddie goes away to school, and when he comes house for the holidays we have lots of fun, playing cricket, croquer, laws buil, and everything. II you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of children to play with you. If you ever come to Chicago. I do wish you woul come and see us, we would like it so much. That mamed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. I do wish you would send mea picture of you. I hopy your health is better and you are having a nice time. With ever so much love, from your affectionnite friend NELLY L. EVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE COODER, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S. W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. min 313 H. P. & C. R. TAYLOR, PERFUMERY AND TOILET BOAPS, 641 and 613 North Ninth street. Nother thereines, Flutting machines and reduce prices of the traditions. Flutting machines will not twist of the traditions. Flutting machines will not twist of the additions. Flutting machines will not twist of the addity of the street rolls that will not twist risi-yen hod rif jedh eo tifi-ji-laerransh, misi-nitid retored the resource include	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present, shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,-grammar and all,-we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: TXVERAGITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DRAMATIC 'Sam'' at the Walmut . There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sault the rewspapers with villainous or thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the jangling pianos in the country with "Dear Father Come Home," " Mother is the Battle Ouer?" and " Willie We Have Missed You," the imitative idiots were miserable until they had written answers, in which " Father" de- clared that he had "Come Home," and in- tended to stay there; in whie	 Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Rochefort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violincello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil; hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place, as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta stilled Jeard's Ease; or, What's Money willout 1t? The ploy of the play is shallow and old, and the business, is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost incoherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the consideration of a capable actor. The drama is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intolligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Snale of Real EstateMessrs. Thormas & Snale of Real Particles Proves. The FreeOries and Villace, 32 Sorth Eighteach, Alae, Camede acuty, N. J. & C. & Full particulars at the Auch. The the howed pleasant choses and bott dentified estat. Here, No. 112 Vallace, 32 Sorth Eighteach, Mai at the parties and boother the free first at the parties of the orbits proves. The for Real Estate Messrs. Thormas & Snale of Real	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we it wit is o much L could not help wanting to write to you. We thick you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We are all so disappointed shout your not marrying Larnie; I cried over that part; I could not help it. We will like d Laurie, ever so mach, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumny things you and heesaid. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, specially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Mog!, then Nelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's) Rosie, Bolle, and dear little Oarrie (the buby). Eddie yoes away to school, and when he comes home for the holidays we have fote of fun, playing cricket, croquer, laws buil, and everything. II you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of childre n to play with you. The aver come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. The aver come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. The aver come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. The aver so much love, from your affectionet friend NELLY L. Bold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Pablishers. ROBERTS BROTHERS, LEVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE COCOCA, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S. W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mbi9315 H. P. & C. R. TAYLOR, PERFUMERY AND TOILET BOAPS, 641 and 613 North Ninth street. Noth conshore. Fluiting machines at refuced prices (Tothes wringors, with patient rolls that will not twist of. Boid by GRIFFITH & PAGE . BOH by GRIFFITH & PAGE .	BLE SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ
risi-yen hod rif jedh eo tif-,i-i errar-sh, misi- tid retored the session on blog	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to the the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,-grammar and all,-we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer, even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the ENENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune, and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- nices that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune. DRAMATIC. 'Sam'' at the Walnut. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever id cas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded a- absolutely certain that a bundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- soult the mewspapers with villainous or- thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the jangling pianos in the country with "Dear Father Come Home," and in- tended to stay there; in which "Mother" vouchsafed the information that the sanguinary conflict had terminated, and in which "William" expressed a good deal of satisfaction at having been missed. Ween Tom Taylor wrote	 Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Rochefort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violincello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil; hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place, as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta stilled Jeard's Ease; or, What's Money willout 1t? The ploy of the play is shallow and old, and the business, is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost incoherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the consideration of a capable actor. The drama is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intolligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Snale of Real EstateMessrs. Thormas & Snale of Real Particles Proves. The FreeOries and Villace, 32 Sorth Eighteach, Alae, Camede acuty, N. J. & C. & Full particulars at the Auch. The the howed pleasant choses and bott dentified estat. Here, No. 112 Vallace, 32 Sorth Eighteach, Mai at the parties and boother the free first at the parties of the orbits proves. The for Real Estate Messrs. Thormas & Snale of Real	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we it wit is o much L could not help wanting to write to you. We thick you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We are all so disappointed shout your not marrying Larnie; I cried over that part; I could not help it. We will like d Laurie, ever so mach, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumny things you and heesaid. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, specially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Mog!, then Nelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's) Rosie, Bolle, and dear little Oarrie (the buby). Eddie yoes away to school, and when he comes home for the holidays we have fote of fun, playing cricket, croquer, laws buil, and everything. II you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of childre n to play with you. The aver come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. The aver come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. The aver come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. The aver so much love, from your affectionet friend NELLY L. Bold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Pablishers. ROBERTS BROTHERS, LEVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE COCOCA, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S. W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mbi9315 H. P. & C. R. TAYLOR, PERFUMERY AND TOILET BOAPS, 641 and 613 North Ninth street. Noth conshore. Fluiting machines at refuced prices (Tothes wringors, with patient rolls that will not twist of. Boid by GRIFFITH & PAGE . BOH by GRIFFITH & PAGE .	BLE SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ
risi-yen, od rif Sedheo tift, o	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the ENNING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DRAMATIC. *Sam? at the Walnut. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the cony are introduced with variations. When Artenus Ward be- came fanous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sult the mewspapers with villainous or thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the popular elements of the country with "Dear Father Come Home," " Mother is the Battle Ouer?" and "Willie We Have Missed You," the imitative idiots were miscrable until they had written answers, in which " Father" de- clared that he had "Come Home," and in- tended to stay there; in which " Mother" vouchsafed the information that the sangulnary conflict had terminated, and in which " William" expressed a good deal of satisfac	 Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Rochefort, giving the French idea of hurnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violincello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meilhac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatrelast night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money without It? The plot of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost incoherent episodes, which possess no intrinsit interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the consideration of a capable actor. The drama i, beneath contempt, and the performance is helow the level of the poorest negro minstrel oplease the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intolligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Snie of Real EstateMessrs. Thomas & Snie Hott, No. 112 Wallnes, 32 Sonth Eighteat, Mai, arret, Germantown; Country Pasc, 23 acres, Alco, Camder Oct, 23 and Hotth Scone at dentificient. The reserves and Wilding Store, 34 acres, Match Scone at dentificient in the gravity for Article for Milding Store, 34 acres, Alco, Camder Oct, 35 acres, Millow, 52 acres, Match Scone at dentificient. The sense and Wulgarity, than the fuertion store it and the south scone at end for the original store at the fore the sense and Wulgarity. The reserve and Wilding Store, 20 acres, Millia Store,	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CHICAGO, March 12. 1870. DHAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we it wit is o much L could not help wanting to write to you. We thick you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We are all so disappointed shout your not marrying Larnie; I cried over that part; I could not help it. We will like d Laurie, ever so mach, and almost killed our- selves laughing over the fumny things you and heesaid. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, specially the regs. Eddie is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Mog!, then Nelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's) Rosie, Bolle, and dear little Oarrie (the buby). Eddie yoes away to school, and when he comes home for the holidays we have fote of fun, playing cricket, croquer, laws buil, and everything. II you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of childre n to play with you. The aver come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. The aver come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. The aver come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. The aver so much love, from your affectionet friend NELLY L. Bold everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Pablishers. ROBERTS BROTHERS, LEVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE COCOCA, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S. W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mbi9315 H. P. & C. R. TAYLOR, PERFUMERY AND TOILET BOAPS, 641 and 613 North Ninth street. Noth conshore. Fluiting machines at refuced prices (Tothes wringors, with patient rolls that will not twist of. Boid by GRIFFITH & PAGE . BOH by GRIFFITH & PAGE .	BLE SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ SULJ
risi-yen, od rif Sedheo tift, od riftedheo tift, od riftedheo tift, od riftedheo tift, od riftedheo tiftedheo tifted	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,-grammar and all,-we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer, even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the E-ENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune, and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune. DRAMATIC. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the elever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- pertate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sault the rewspapers with villainous or- thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholy unaccountable manner, started all the angling pianos in the country with "Dear Father Come Home," "Mother is the Battle Ouer?" and "Willie We Have Missed You," the imitative idiots were misseable muli they had written answers, in which " Father" de- clared that he had "Come Home," and in- tended to stay there; in which "Lord Dundreary." This nobleman i	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch. State right in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money vident 11? The ploy of the play is shallow and old, and the business, is made up of jlg-daucing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsi- interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Bhe drama i, beneath contempt, and the performance is helow the level of the 'poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is 4-subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Sale of Real EstateMeswrs. Thorms & Scale of Real EstateMeswrs. Thorms & Scale of Real Feature	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CRICAGO, March 12. 1870. DTAR JO, OR MISS ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we iked it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly sploudd. I like you better every time I read it. We were all no dasppointed shout your not marrying Larnie I, crived over that part I: I could not help it. We are set is sisters and two Drothers, and there were and many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, especially the regs. Eddis is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Meet), them a city (that's mee). May and Milly (our Bethy), Roske, Boille, and dear little Oarrie (the buby). Eddite goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holiday we have lote of fun, plying cricket. croquer, have base is come to our to our bouse and you will far of these games, just come to our bouse and you will far of these games, just come to our bouse and you will far prover come to Chicago. I do wish you would come and see us, we would like I to much. Thave samed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserve it. Mile everywhere. Mailed post-paid by the Pablishers, ROBERTS BROTHERS, IB CONFECTIONERY. EVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE Cocca, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S.W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mhib 315 II. P. & C.R. TAYLOR, FERFUMENT AND TOILET BOAPS, Gi and 613 North Ninth street. NOISELISS CARPET SWEEP DERS, Meet or wingers, with patient rolls that will not with custory, and s griffith and Market Sts. mib 315 II. P. & C.R. TAYLOR, FERFUMENT AND TOILET BOAPS, Gi and 613 North Ninth street. MOISELISS CARPET SWEEP DERS, MID 315 II. P. A.C.R. TAYLOR, FERFUMENT, AND TOILET BOAPS, GI and 613 North Ninth street. MOISELISS CARPET SWEEP DERS, MID ACT street, with out will not twist off. Boild by GRIFFITH & PAGE, MOI Arch street. FOR INVALIDSA FIRE & BROTHERS.	BLE SOLJ SOLJ SOLJ SOLJ SOLJ SOLJ SOLJ SOLJ
risi-yen, od rif jedh e o tifi-,	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,-grammar and all,-we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- nices that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them , is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune . DRAMATIC. ''Sam'' as the Walmut . There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular flancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sault the newspapers with villainous or- thography. When certain song-writers, in a wolly unaccountable manner, started all the add of satisfaction at having been missed. Ween Tom Taylor wrote Our American Cousin he created an amusing personage entitled "Lord Dundreary." This nobleman in the course of the play alluded to his "brother Sam." No sooner had "Dundreary" become popular than Mr. De Waldon	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta sat the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease; or, What's Money willout H? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jlg-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; hor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. Bhe drama i, below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefor rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Snie of Heest EstateMessrs. Thorms & Son' faile on Tuesday next, will include several estates by order of the Orphane' Gourt in Italing Stores, 513 Commerce street. 12 and 14 South Scona street; valu- after, German Purilies Artherial Test, Mail after, German Purilies Artherial Test. The proving Actives and full Bouth Fourth street. The proving Active and full Bouth Fourth street. The reserves and full bouth Fourth street. The reserves and full street in the as a pre- gord the Orphane' Gourt in Italiang Strees, 513 Commerce street. 12 and 14 South Scona street; valu- after, German Purilies Artherial Toeth 1 In growt and Purilies Artherial Test. The subject of the Grown in the subject. The street is a street of Colliders 1 Sold by all Druggets. W	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CRICAGO, March 12, 1870. Drax JO, OR Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we iked it so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I likeryou better every time I read it. We were all to disappointed about your not marrying Larnie; I cried over that part; I could not help it. We we are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, sepecially the regs. Eddis is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Med), then helly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth by), Eddis is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Med), then helly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth by), Eddis is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Med), then helly (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth by), Eddis we have lots of fun, playing cricket. cround; hase ball, and everything. Il you were want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will fand perform and see us, we would like it so much. If you were come to Chicago, I do wish you would come and see us, we would like it so much. Mether were to chicago, I do wish you would perform health is better and you are baving a nice three. With ever so much fove, from your affection the friend NELLY L. Boid everywhere. Mulled post-paid by the Publishers, ROBERTS BROTHERS, Boston. Boston. Mether of the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S.W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mh938 I.D. CONFECTIONERY. S.W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mh938 I.D. Conference of the store. Mith even so into for heats the will action to the set from. Mether inho city, and a great variety of airs to re- stort from. Imported path of the steck chamburg. Mether is a done strest framewer, the fine- motify as a companion for the sick chamburg. Mether is a domannion for the	BLE SOLJ SOLJ SOLJ SOLJ SOLJ SOLJ SOLJ SOLJ
ris - yen , od r f ; ed h e o t f - , i a errar - se, on sri - ti deres reactifieres run on so ago ad de	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the merey of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,-grammar and all,-we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the EVENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune , and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITYThe EVENING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in Tribune . DRAMATIC . There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever id cas of other people. If someboidy writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- pertate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the country with "Dear Father Come Home," "Mother is the Battle Outer?" and "Willie We Have Missed You," the imitative idiots were miserable mult thy had written answers, in which " Father" de- chared that he had "Come Home," and in- tended to stay there; in which " Mother" vouchsafed the information that the sangulnary conflict had terminated, and in which " William" expressed a good deal of satisfaction at having been missed is covely after the pattern of " Dundreary" become popular than Mr. De Walden seized this fra- ternal suggestion, and, having modeled "Sam" cosely after the pattern of " Dundreary" pro- ceeded to write a co	Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Roche- fort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin- cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil- hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta sat the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Heart's Ease ; or, What's Money willout h? The ploy of the play is shallow and old, and the business is made up of jlg-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in- coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; hor is there a single character that is worthy of the con- sideration of a capable actor. The drama i, below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is subject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefor rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Snie of Heest Estate. —Messrs, Thorms & Sone' faile on Tuesday next, will include several estates by order of the Orphane' Court. In Italing Stores, 513 Commerce street, 12 and 14 South Scona street; valu- after, German Purilies, Arthediar estimater in the most pleasant. choopest and best deniifrife "tat. Warranted free from juurious ingret. The soperior Arthele for Children 1 Sold by all Druggets. Millow of Millows the Gatter 1 for the Orphane' Court. Initaling Street, 513 Commerce street, 12 and 14 South Fourth street. The soperior Arthele for Children 1 Sold by all Druggets. Millows of the Group street in the street. The soperior Arthele for Children 1 Sold by all Druggets. Millows of the Group street in the sourch erathed the anessthetic us	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CRICAGO, March 12. 1870. Dia Jo, or Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we heat is so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all no disappointed shout your not marrying Laurie; I cried over that part; I could not help lit. We if liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughling over the funny things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women." that seemed so natural, then Acily (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Bosie, Bollie, and dura little Ourrie (the bury). Eddle goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holdays we have tots of fun, playing cricket. eroquir, thas bell, and every thins. It you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of childer no play with you. I have mixed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserveit. To which you would after you, and I hope she will try and deserveit. ROBERTS BROTHERS, Boston. Boston. Boston. Boston. Bevery DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE Cocca, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S.W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mbi9315 H. P. & C. R. TAYLOR, PERFUMERY AND TOILET BOAPS, 611 and 613 North Ninth stroet. Mineven minon for thesic chard will not twice of . Bod Bis Thing manting matching and could ready with ever some of the street of the store. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S.W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mbi9315 H. P. & C. R. TAYLOR, PERFUMERY AND TOILET BOAPS, 611 and 613 North Ninth stroet. Minever manton for the steck chamboor; the fun- tor. Imported for the street will not twick of . Bod by Carling matching and will mot twick of . Bod by Carling matching the street will not twick of . Bod by Carling Bernst and street of and Market NG WITH IN DENDING WILLING WILLING WILLOW F. 1000
risi-yen, od rif jedh e o tifi-,	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present, shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it. Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer , even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the ENENING BULLETIN by the New York Tribune, and the Philadel- phia papers that gave such needless notoriety to its lie: INVERACITY.—The EVENING BULLETIN de- nices that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune. DEAMACTIC. Sam at the Walmut. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to bit the popular fancy, it may be regarded as absolutely certain that a hundred or two other men will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artenus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sault the mewpapers with villainous or thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholly unaccountable manner, started all the pangling pianos in the country with "Dear Father Come Home," "Mother is the Battle Ouer?" and "Willie We Have Missed You," the imitative idiots were missrable until they had written answers, in which "Father" de- clared that he had "Come Home," and in- tended to stay there; in which "	 Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Rocheror, giving the French idea of burnt-cork minstrelsy and the breakdown, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin-cello performance will add to the variety. The henefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil-hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta appeared at the Arch. Lotta appeared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Hear's, Ease; or, What's Money willout It? The plou of the play is shallow and old, and the business, is made up of jig-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost incoherent episodes, which possess no intrinsic interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is wortky of the consideration of a capable actor. The drama is below the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is setubject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intelligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Stale of Real EstateMessrs. Thormas & Song of the original Houde, 22 and H South Estenst. And the further with the set of Add South Fourth street. TREGO'S TEABERRY TOO'TH WASH-Tit is the most jie and failed at the Gall and the further at the discust. And the missing found and the further street. The the most jiesant. chospest and bed dentifier "that a Burging Add M South Fourth Street. And the further street. Add M South Fourth Street. The for the orphone' Gourt. Including street. The for the orphone' fourth street. The for the orphone' fourth street. The for the orphone' fourther street. The the most jies	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CRICAGO, March 12. 1870. Dia Jo, or Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we heat is so much I could not help wanting to write to you. We think you are perfectly splendid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all no disappointed shout your not marrying Laurie; I cried over that part; I could not help lit. We if liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- selves laughling over the funny things you and he said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women." that seemed so natural, then Acily (that's me). May and Milly (our Beth's), Bosie, Bollie, and dura little Ourrie (the bury). Eddle goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holdays we have tots of fun, playing cricket. eroquir, thas bell, and every thins. It you ever want to play any of these games, just come to our house and you will find plenty of childer no play with you. I have mixed my doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserveit. To which you would after you, and I hope she will try and deserveit. ROBERTS BROTHERS, Boston. Boston. Boston. Boston. Bevery DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE Cocca, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S.W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mbi9315 H. P. & C. R. TAYLOR, PERFUMERY AND TOILET BOAPS, 611 and 613 North Ninth stroet. Mineven minon for thesic chard will not twice of . Bod Bis Thing manting matching and could ready with ever some of the street of the store. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S.W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mbi9315 H. P. & C. R. TAYLOR, PERFUMERY AND TOILET BOAPS, 611 and 613 North Ninth stroet. Minever manton for the steck chamboor; the fun- tor. Imported for the street will not twick of . Bod by Carling matching and will mot twick of . Bod by Carling matching the street will not twick of . Bod by Carling Bernst and street of and Market NG WITH IN DENDING WILLING WILLING WILLOW F. 1000
ris - yen, od r f; ed h e o t f - ,	of Health. They cannot have a pound of the matter removed without the permission and assistance of the company. It will be an out- rage to tie the hands of any householder in this manner, and to place the health and con- venience of his family at the mercy of a corpo- ration. A brief experience of the operation of such an arrangement will suffice to disgust everybody in the community. The Sewage bill will give satisfaction only when this and one or two other of the objectionable features are removed. If it is passed in its present shape, it will ruin every man who votes for it: Such as it is,—grammar and all,—we are glad to see, in this morning's Inquirer, even this partial and evasive acknowledgment of the outrage perpetrated on the ENNING BULLETIN de- nies that this word, which the New York Tribune used in reference to them, is deserved. It asks a denial of the Tribune. DRAMATIC. "Sam" at the Walnut. There is a class of persons who, having no original talent of their own, achieve notoriety, and sometimes success, by adopting the clever ideas of other people. If somebody writes a book or a drama or a song which happens to hit the popular fancy, it may be regarded a absolutely certain that a bundred or two other me will immediately sit down and per- petrate a book, adrama or a song, in which the popular elements of the copy are introduced with variations. When Artemus Ward be- came famous, every fellow who considered himself a humorist immediately began to as- sout the rewspares with villainous or thography. When certain song-writers, in a wholy unaccountable manner, started all the popular than Mr. De Walden seized this fra- terned to stay there; in which "Mother" vouchsafed the information that the sanguinary conflict had terminated, and in which "William" expressed a good deal of satisfaction at having been missed. When Tom Taylor wrote Our American Cousin the created an amusing personage entitled book or its a commed y to fit him, on the formed the play alluded to his "brother Sam." No sooner had "Dundre	 Forgerons, and L'Homme du Sud, by Rochefort, giving the French idea of burnt-cork ministrelsy and the break-down, will be brought out again. An operetta and a violin-cello performance will add to the variety. The benefit of the company, for which they will present entire the original play, by Meil-hac and Halivy, of Frou-frou, will take place as we learn on Saturday. Lotta and the Arch. Lotta and the Arch. Lotta any peared at the Arch Street Theatre last night in a new drama entitled Hear's Ease; or, What's Morey willowd It? The ploy of the play is shallow and old, and the business, is made up of jlg-dancing, banjo-playing, and comic singing, crammed into almost in-coherent episodes, which possess no intrinsit interest whatever. There is not a particle of original humor, or indeed of any humor of a good kind, in the entire play; nor is there a single character that is worthy of the consideration of a capable actor. Whe drama i, benewith contempt, and the performance is helow the level of the poorest negro minstrel entertainment. It is sesubject for regret that a young actress, possessing such fine natural ability as Miss Lotta has, should prefer rather to please the groundlings with coarseness and vulgarity, than to win reputation and the applause and respect of intolligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. Sale of Real Estate. Missers. Thormas & Sons' Easer's 10 merger artset? Louid Hooth Sources for 20 South tenth. Mais street, No. 112 Wallace, 32 Mosten Eightenet, Mais street, More and Wallase and respect of intolligent persons by more creditable exercise of her powers. The EGO'S TEABERBY TOO'TH WASH. The Missers. Thormas A street is the mean of the format persons by more original Hooth Sources and South Eightenet. Mais street, No. 112 Wallace, 32 Mosten Eightenet. Mais street, Warranted free from Injurious ingredients. Mais street, No. 112 Wallace, 32 Mosten Eightenet, Mais street, Market, Warranted Free from Humo	LITTLE WOMEN. First and Second Parts. Price $3 00. CRICAGO, March 12. 1870. Draw Jo, on Miss ALCOTT: We have all been reading "Little Women," and we it do it as bacotts: We were all been reading "Little Women," and we it we dithin you are perfectly sploudid. I like you better every time I read it. We were all no disappointed about your not marrying Laurie 1 crived ver that part; I could not help it. We all liked Laurie, ever so much, and almost killed our- serives laughing your and the said. We are six sisters and two brothers, and there were so many things in "Little Women" that seemed so natural, specially the regs. Little Women" that seemed so natural, social is the oldest, then there is Annie (our Medy, them Aelly (that's me). May and Milly (our Bethy). Rosic, Rollie, and dear little Carrie (the b.by). Eddle goes away to school, and when he comes home for the holidays we have lots of thus, phyling cricket. croquint, have have lots of the you, and I hope she will they and deserved it. To write your doll after you, and I hope she will try and deserved. To write your and they will find plenty of children to play with your and for there with ever so much love, from your affection to friend NELLY L. Rold everywhere. Mulled post-paid by the Publishers. ROBERTS BROTHERS, Beston. 113 CONFECTIONERY. EVERY DAY FRESH CHOCOLATE COCO2A, Ground. At the Manufactory. STEPHEN F. WHITMAN & SON, S.W. Corner Twelfth and Market Sts. mh9315 I.P. & C.E. TAYLOR, PERFUMERY AND TOILET BOAPS, GII and 613 North Ninth street. Noise LICSS CARPET SW E E P E R.N. COM Arch atreet. Meditive write gene, furthing machines at reduced prices for Boy we are companien for the sick chamber; the fine- tior from Jung of the sick chamber. Melter BLOGEN WITH INDELIBLE INK. Melter BLOGEN WITH INDELIBLE INK. Melter BLOGEN WITH STORE A DOUGHTER Molter BLOGEN WITH INDELIBLE INK. Melter BLOGEN WITH INDELIBLE INK. Melter Miller WITH AND TOILET ACTINE Meding from the street weak and dail formak write g

TENRY PHILLIPPI, CABPENTER AND BUILDER, NO. 1024 SANSOM STREET, PHILADELPHIA. jel0-lyrp

1910-1975 PHILATELPHIA. HORSE OOVERS, FUR ROBES, Lap Ruge and Horse Gear. All kinds: Nous biller or cheaper. KNEASS'S Harness Store, 1126 Mar-k-i street. Big Horse in the do WARBURTON'S IMPROVED, VEN-tilated and easy-fitting Dress Hats (patonted) in all tilated and easy-fitting Dress Hats (patential) in a the approved fashions of the season. (Downut street next door to the Post-Office. oof-tirr

next door to the Post-Office MONEY TO ANY AMOUNS LOANED UPON DIAMONDS, WATCHRES JRWEIRY, PLATE, OLOTHING, &c., at JONES & CO.'S OLD-ESTABLISHED LOAN OFFICE, Corner of Third and Gaskill streets; Bolow Lombard. N. B.-DIAMONDS, WATCHES, JRWRLBY, GUNF

HEMABLABLY LOW PRICES.

liver, will offer unusual inducements during the next 30 days.

ARK & BIDDLE 124 OHESTNUT STREET. Invite attention to their stock of

'ERLING SILVERWARE. COMPRISING NER AND DESSERT SERVICES, BRIDAL TEA SETS. ETE A TETE SERVICES,

URNS AND SWING KETTLES, SERT SUGARS AND CREAMS, Double Dishes, Chafing " . . 66 Salad Vegetable " 46 Batter Terrapin 6.6 Olive ip and Oyster Tureens, Centre Pieces, Pitchers, Goblets and Salvers. Also, an immense variety of smaller pieces.

Goods for Bridal Presentation. CLARK & BIDDLE, 1124 CHESTNUT STREET.

DRY GOODS. BE "PROCTOR STORE." NO. 020 CHESTNUT STREET. * PROCTOR" STOCK NEARLY ALL SOLD. ANCE OF "PROCTOR" STOCK MUST BE PCS. ALL WOOL CASSIMERES, COST 91 23, CH STRIPED AND PLAID ABABS, $2 50, COST AID. AND STRIPED SQUARE AND LONG NKETSHAWLS. PEN ANI FILLED CENTRE, SQUARE AND G EBOCHE SHAWLS. JUE, SCARLET AND WHITE CLOTHS. LACK CLOTHS. 53. CONT & 57 TO IMPORT. LACK CLOTHS. 53. CONT & 57 TO IMPORT. LACK AND COLORED VELVETEENS AT HALF ALSO IN "PROCTOR "STOCK. ÜK ASTRACHAN AT $5. COST $11. VY DARK VELVET BEAVERS, $3 50. BEEN LACK AND WHITE WATERPROOF CLOTHE, OLD AND BLACK WATERPROOF CLUTHS, OUBLE FACE ENGLISH WATERPROOFS,

AT "PROCTOR'S" LANCE OF FURS AT ONE-THIRD THNIR

T. DUVIN KID GLOVES, §1 DUVIN KID GLOVES, §1 EAT WHITE KID GLOVES, §1. KST BLACK KID GLOVES, §1. LACK ALP, CA, IMPORTED FOR THIS LACK ALPA, CA, IMPORTED FOR THIS LACK PURE MOHAIRS AT ONE-HALF THEIR LON. AT "PROCTOR'S" B HAVE BLEN ORDERED TO SELL THE COBLACK WILKS AT 53; THE 54 AD QUALITY 5276; THE 54 QUALITY AT 52 (0); THE COQUALITY AT 52; THE 53 QUALITY AT 51 (0) D THE 52 QUALITY AT 51 2; ALSO, RICH IRE ANTIQUES AT 52 60. WERE 56. ALL ADES. DES. THE SILK COUNTER, A FEW REMNANTS 54 FILKS, FOLID COLORS, BLIGHTL ED, WILL DE SOLD FOR $1 50; A FEW $ LITY AT $1 25, AND A FEW $2 :0 QUALIT 51. MALLLOT OF JAPANESE SILKS, CHEAP. CH FIGURED ALL-WOOL POPLINS, 70 conta; KED DOWN-FROM $175. ACK HERNANIS. $125 QUALITY MARKED $100 QUALITY DOWN TO LOC.; 75 conta LITY DOWN TO 37340.; 500. QUALITY DOWN 56. AT "PROCTOR'S," FEW FRENCH PERIOALES, 62%c. QUALITY YN TO 20c., AND 37%c. QUALITY DUWN TO WW N TO AC., AND STAT. COMMINE FRENCH THE BALANCE OF THE GENUINE FRENCH INFEILLES COLORED AND EMBROIDERED GUBE OKDERED TO BE SOLD AT 10C.; WELE BEFORE THE WAR. 1 BMALL LOT OF MOZAMBIQUES, CHEAP, AT "PROCTORS." LAID AND STRIPED NAINSOCK MURLINS. TRIPED AND STRIPED NAINSOCK MURLINS. EMALL LOT OF HEMSTITCHED HANDKEB. FS. MALL LOT OF LINEN NAPKINS. MALL LOT OF TABLE LINENS, IN BLEACH-MALL LOT OF TABLE LINENS, IN BLEACH-ND CREAM. FEW DOUBLE DAMASK BLÉACHED LINEN THS. 25; YARDS LUNG, VERY HEAVY, 32 60, N FROM $500. E BALANCE OF THE REMNANT OF DRBS DB WILL BE CLOSED AT 20. UN THE DOL-DB WILL BE CLOSED AT 20. UN THE DOL-OF TOR'S." NO. 620 OHESTNUT Street.

VLIKEN. LINEN STORE, P 328 Arch Street. AND 28 CHESTNUT STREET. SPRING IMPORTATIONS. IMMENSE STOCK OF VEN GOODS. WHITE GOODS and HOUSE-FURNISHING GOODS. rices Bown to Present Gold Rate.

Sheppard, Van Harlingen & Arrison, 1008 OHESTNUT STREET. Have opened a large stock of ELEGANT MATERIALS SLIP COVERS FOR FURNITURE.

Twilled Furniture Stripes. Bazine Furniture Stripes, Vancy Jacquard Linen Stripes, Plain and Figured Lineus, White Twilled Stripes, Undressed Brown Linon, Phistas Walte Dinnity, Cretonnes. Slip Covers made to order in the best manner. mhiss to th Strp

I. LANDSBERGER & CO. CALIFORNIA WINES, Champagne, Reisling, Zanfadel, White, Red, Angelica, Port and Wine Bitters. FOR SALE BY THE PRINCIPAL GROCERS AND LIQUOR DEALERS. jal3 th a to Smi THE FINE ARTS.

NEW CHROMOS. JAMES S. EARLE & SONS. $16 Chestnut Street, Are constantly in receipt of numbers of NEW EN-GRAVINGS and NEW OHROMOS. A few of the latest are as follows: Artists,J. G. Brown " Little Rva,".....

"Innocence,"J. G. Br Why Don't He Come ! "CompanionJ. G. Br	0.00
Christnias Menories A. J. H. V	Wa
The First Lesson in Masic	ho
Fast Asleep !
Wide Awake!	140
The Queen of the Woods	οŵ
• Little Bo Peep.'	0 🖤
A Family Scene in Pomp il	IAn
" Dotty Dimitle,"	TA
The Monastery in Vinter	160
" A Wet Sheet and a Flowing Sea,"	l na
Suppet on the Coast Do h	នែះ
Lannch of the Life-Boat	rà
Yp Semite ValleyThos.	111
The Birth place of Whittler Thos	H
Bestrice Cenclandian Gi	aid
Always on hand the largest collection in the cont
at the very lowest prices. Chromos and Engravi	ing sent in safety by mail.

C. F. HASELTINE WILL SELL AT HIS GALLERIES, 1125 OHESTNUT STREET.

AT PUBLIC SALE, About 500 Magnificent Col'd Photographs, On the Evenings of Thursday and Friday, March 24 and 25. Now on Exhibition.

To be sold by B. SCOTT, Jr. my15-lyrpi LADIES' DRESS GOODS. INTERESTING TO LADIES !

PERFECT FITTING DRESSES. MODERATE PRICES. The undersigned has returned from Now York with the fashions for the Spring of 1570. WALKING SUITS, RECEPTION and EVENING DRESSES, WEDDING, OUTFITS and TRAVELING RESSES made, if necessary, in 24 hours. MADAME DE SOUCHE.

No. 1003 Walnut Street. mhl5 tu th s 26trp WANTS. WANTED TO PURCHASE FOR WANTER TO FORVERASE FOR each, a convolient redicance, between Pine from $10.000 to $13.000, Alseo, one for not over $14.000. Alseo, one for not over $14.000. E. R. JONES, Heal Estate Broker, E. R. JONES, Heal Estate Broker, Mb22 315

COAL. T YKENS VALLEY COAL, ESPE-LI Citally adapted for open grates. Also, Lehigh, Schuylkill and Shemokin Foal. For sale by GALLLOWAY C. MORGIN, & OO., Office, 208 Walnut street. Yard, Twelfth and Washington avonuo. fe26 s tu th Imry§ Wharf, foot of Tasker street. KID GLUVES, $1 50 A PAIR. - A LOT of 400 doz: n Bright High Colors and Light Spring Colors Kid Gloves. Sizes, 14 to 754. Ronning off at $1,00 upair. Less that gold price, nhl9-6trp* 102 Obestnut stroot.

SECOND EDITION arroused considerable indignation among the

BY TELEGRAPH.

EUROPEAN NEWS

NEWS FROM LONDON AND PARIS

An Intimation of the Release of Fenian | Prisoners.

WASHINGTON

THE ACOUISITION OF NEW TER-RITORY.

pposition to the San Domingo and Thomas Treatles.

FROM EUROPE.

[By the American Press Association.] ENGLAND.

The Fenian Prisoners...An Intimation their Release. LONDON, March 22 .- Mr. Gladstone has in timated that it is the intention of the Government to liberate the Fenian prisoners immedistely after the present disorders in Ireland have been suppressed.

Cotton Shipments LIVERPOOL, March 22 .- The shipment o cotton from Bombay, from the 1st instant to the 19th, was 52,000 bales.

FRANCE.

FRANCE.
The Trial of Prince Bonaparte-Statement is of the Prince.
Panns, March 22.—In the trial of Prince Pierre Napoleon Bonaparte, now progressing in the. High Court of Justice, at Tours, the prisoner was permitted to make his statement.
Ho said that no man of spirit would have acted otherwise than he did under the circumstance in the state. He said that no man of spirit would have acted otherwise than he did under the circumstate the bail test of the State in the statement.
Ho said that no mean of spirit would have acted otherwise than he did under the circumstate that a days be en in the habit of carrying a revolver.
Financial and Commercial.
London, March 22, 11 A. M.—Consoly for money 93, and for account 931. United States Five-twenty bonds of 1862. 901: Ten-forties, 861; Illinois Central, 1151; Erie Kailway, 214; Atlantic and Great Wester 1, 25, 502, 900; Family do.; 35, 502, 900; Family do.; 35, 500, 900; Family do.; 35, quiet. Sales estimated at 10,000 bales. Mid dling Uplauds, 114. California Wheat, 98. 34. Winter do., 8s. 10d ass. 11d. Flour, 19s. 9d Corn, 27s. 6d. Pork, 91s. 6d. Beef, 104s. 6d

-----FROM WASHINGTON.

 The formal break of the Pallada Breinha Balletia, 1
 The house bill compelling the removal of the same had been need to be understop to the same had been need to be said that the same had been need to States had been mide by lace to Prance and England, and successively rejected by the first prevent of the theory and the commission in track, subject to had been reliable in the track reliable in the reliabl on Crosby street, were damaged by water. This second story of the factory building was occu-pied by a manufacturer of tobacco, and was totally destroyed. Much valuable machinery totally destroyed. Much valuable machinery totally destroyed. The total loss will not fall far short of $200,000. The amount of insurance is not known. The flames are now under connot known. The flames are now under con-trol. The New York City Police Bill. ALBANY, March 22.—The House of Assem-bly is in Committee of the Whole on the New York City Police bill. The Senate bill on the same subject has been read and substituted for the House bill. The New York City Supervisors' bill and the nronosed new municipal charter are also

FROM THE WEST.

[By the American Press Association.] OHID. A Mormon Preacher. DAYTON, March 22 .- A Mormon Elder has

CORRECTOR MENTA ME TAXABLE OF A CONTRACT A TOTAL STATES A CONTRACT AND A CONTRACT ON A CONTRACT OF A THE DAILY EVENING BULLETIN-P

Philadelphia Produce Market,

Whisky is very dull. We quote wood-bound at 99c.a91, and iron-bound at Sial Ul.

Markets by Telegraph.

is morning was heav

(Special Dispatch to the Phila. Evening Bulletin.) ibw York, March 22, 12% P. M.-Cotton.-Themarke s morning was heavier than, yesterday, and most of bulkers has been at a concession. Sales of about good people of this region by preaching olygamous sermons in the villages. A lynching awaits him if he is caught.

ILLINOIS. Supervisor's Frauds. in Chicago--The Weather.

CHICAGO, March 22 .- The Committee of Supervisors appointed to investigate the al-Supervisors appointed to investigate the ar leged frauds among their number are still making new discoveries. A contractor for gas fixtures testified that he offered Kearney, Burgham and the Board, $125 for his influ-The Trial of Prince Bonaparte THE PRISONERS'S STATEMENT THE PRISONERS'S STATEMENT Picked out the furs, and they were charged to witness. Another gentleman testified that two, substituted inferior material in filling his contract, which fact was smothered in the Board by greenback plastering. We had a light fall of snow last night. It No. 1024/001/24107/24007/24107/24007/24107/24007/24007/24007/24007/24007/24007/20 is raining this morning.

WISCONSIN.
 WISCONSIN.
 Fatal Scalding Case.
 MilwatkER, March 22.—Yesterday afternoon the two years' old son of Frederick Mathias, residing in the Sixth Ward, was fatally scalded by upsetting a pot of tea upon himself while attempting to drink from the spont of the vessel.
 The Water Supply.
 The Conmittee of Common Council on

The Committee of Common Council on de. do. at $5 123:45 76; ludiana and Ohio do. do. at $5 25; af 25, and fancy lots at higher flures. Byo Flour sells at $4 023:a4 76. No sales of Corn Meal. The offerings of Wheat are small, but auple for the, demend. Bales of 260 bushols prins Penns; lvania Ked at $1 25. If the absence of sales, we quote Rye at $6 cents. Corn comes in slowly, and is held firmty. Sales of 3.60 bushels Yeilow at 91:33 cents. Oats are in rteady request, and 2.400 bushels Pennsylvania and Western sold at C4a 65 cents. Barley and Malt are very duil. terra-cotta pipes, until the city can afford to build an aqueduct of stone.

FROM THE SOUTH. [By the American Press Association.]

KENTUCKY. Sinking of a Barge-Lass of Coal. LOUISVILLE, March 22 .- Messrs. Sharp, McDonald & Co., of this city, lost 12,000 bushels of coal by a barge sinking on the-Falls yesterday.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE. (Special Despatch to the Phila, Evening Bulletin.) HARRISBURG, March 22. SENATE.-The following bills were consid-

The House bill compelling the removal of

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL Philadelphia Stock Exchange Sales,

 100 En
 00
 4573
 43 ch
 East Penn c
 40

 50°0 City
 68 new 102
 16 sh C& AmB
 18 11534

 100 City
 68 0ld
 1003
 56 sh C& AmB
 1183

 100 City
 68 0ld
 1003
 56 sh C& AmB
 1183

 5400 Phila&Erio 78
 1183
 510 sh do
 1184

 5400 Phila&Erio 78
 108 sh do
 274

 5400 O
 60
 274

 5400 Phila&Erio 78
 1043, 100 sh do
 274

 5400 Phila&Erio 78
 1042, 200 sh Hesaing R b50wn 433
 274

 1000 Reading 78
 1042, 200 sh Hesaing R b50wn 433
 260
 50:00 do 1000 Reading 78 1000 Penn 68 3 ser

2000 Leh Val R Co Bds 5000 Lehigh Gold Ln 8874 new cp 95% 200 sh Penn R si0 its 56%

THE SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL
 THE SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL Meeting of the contributors to the B-dford street Mission will be held on THURSDAY RVENING next, 24b inst., at 75 of vlock, at the Book Rooms, No.
 1018 Archetreet The annual reports will be read and an election held for Managers for the ensuing year.
 EDMIND S, YARD.
 JAOUR H. BURDSALL,
 A. J. BATTON,
 mh72-315

mh22-3t$ SEWING MACHINES.

> THE WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINES. The Best and sold on the Easiest Terms.

PETERSON & CARPENTER. 914 CHESTNUT STREET.

ja26 a tu th lyrn

Ē	VENING BULLETIN-PHI	LADELPHIA, TUESDAY,	MARCH 22, 1870.
ĥê	Philadelphia Money Market.	MITTIN ANT IMPOST
ng	I AUESDAY, March 99	THIRD EDITION.	FOURTH EI
h-	city mational banks shows very little change, notwith standing the increased demand, for money during the	IIIII past three days. There is an increase to deposite of	Mit Drift O'Charle	and a second sec
•	#167.303 ; in legal tenders of $401.379, and in loans of	117 2:15 O'Olock.	. a sta durata in sara a 3 :0
	past three days. There is an increase in deposits of $162,3-3; in legal tenders of $401,379, and in loans of $169,102. These figures show increased resources in ex- CER of the increase of house intertened resources in ex-
be		BY TELEGRAPH.
	policy, in view of the activity, anticipated at the close of the month. There is a slight fulling off in the amount of		FROM WASI of
al-	outles, but this has no bearing on the general money market.		Lateral Control of the second seco
111	The lean market is moderately active, and the rates	HARRISBURG.
		WELTATINT A TAR	THE CUBAN QU
or	Gold is dull but steady, the entire range of fluctna- tion, being between 11214 and 11214, closing at noon		ITTE OODAN QU
y,
11-	Government bonds are quiet and rather weak, the Fixes of '67 and '68 being the only issues continuing	IMPORTANT TO VOTERS
id	LIMIN.	IMPORTANT TO VOTERS	A Favorable Report on Mr
	The stock market is inactive, but prices are generally stronger. In State Brouriles no sules (Sity Dixes un-		trality Resoluti
it.	changed. Fales of the old bonds at 100%, and, of the 10	new at H2.	Remodeling the Desister To	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
10	Reading Railroad was rather quiet, but in good de-	Remodeling the Registry Law
0	mend and higher. Sales at 42,31a434 b. o. Mine IIII Rajiread sold at 51%, and Lehigh Valley Rajiroad		Our Fina nt
	Canal shares neglected, the only sale being in Lehigh	THE DEFECTS OF THE PRESENT LAW
3-	at 32 b o, The balance of the list was firm but dult. Sales of Mechanics' Bank at 31%.		TRIAL OF A NEW
នេ្យ	D. C. Wharton Smith & Oc., bankers, 121 South Third
e	street, quote at 10.45 o'cleck as follows: Gold, 11234:	LATER FROM WASHINGTON
1	U. S. Sixes, 1881, 114a1145; do. do. 5-209, 1862, 10974a 10974 ; do. do. 1864, 10854, 10855 ; do. do. 1865, 10374 (01)	HAILIG FROM WASHINGIUM	FROM WASHINGT
r+ 1	10974; do. do. 1844. 102/2+10834; do. do. 1865. 10374 (10); do. dc. July, 1865. 107/241/754; do. do. July, 1967. 10-24.
	10814; do. do. July, 1314, 1027 a10916; 10 404, 105a10514; Ouriency sixes, 11214 a11216;	The Absconding New York Collector	The Neutrality Reso
1	Mersre, De Haven & Brother, No. 40 South Thirdstreet.	The Absconding New York Collector	[Special Despatch to the Phila. Ex
- [make the following quotations of the rates of exchange		WASHINGTON, March 22 to-day at noon : United States bixes of 1881, 114%, al14%, do. do. 1862, 1095; al0054; do. do. 1864, 1085; al0054; do. do.
	. uu. uu.	SAFETY OF THE CITY OF DRUGGELO	mittee on Foreign Affairs to

-----FROM HARRISBURG.

[Bpecial Despatch to the Phila, Evening Bulletin.] The Registry Law Supplement. HARRIBBURG, March 22,-On Saturday last a meeting was held of the Philadelphia members of the State Central Committee, to take the same freedom as the Spaniards can have, into consideration the supplement to the Reg- in every respect; so that if one can buy arms istry law, now before the Senate. A com- or fit out ships in this country, the other can mittee of five, consisting of James W. M. do the same. Newlin, Chairman, and H. H. Bingham, A. C. Harmer, Daniel P. Ray, W. R. Leeds and R. C. Tittermary, was appointed, and instructed to proceed to Harrisburg to impress upon the Republican members the importance. of this bill. Owing to the defects in the pres. ent law, it is claimed that, if the supplement is not passed, several thousand colored votes will be lost to the Republican party in the October election. The committee is now here at work in the matter.

_____ FROM WASHINGTON.

[By the American Press Association.] Distillery Seizure. WASHINGTON, March 22,-The Deputy Col lector of the First Iowa District reports the seizure of Lizey & Brothers' brewery, at Keokuk, for a violation of the revenue laws. The assessed value of the property is $10,000.

The Fugitive Collector-His Accounts not Settled. It is stated at the Internal Revenue office that it will probably take several weeks to get morning, to look after the deficiency, in the at the bottom of Collector Bailey's transactions. It is alleged that he used a large amount of Government funds to prosecute the seizures he had made. These going against him, he was unable to replace the amounts expended, and had to balance accounts in his own favor by taking flight.

FROM CANADA.

bushels New Western at 95:095c. alloat. Old at 8101 at 12. Oats are dull and and nuchanced. Beceipts. 29:670 bushels. Bales, 15:600 bushels at 50:05c. Provisions.—The receipts of Pork are 647 barrels. The market is decided) better at 52:0 for new Western Mess. Lard—Breceipts. 500 pkgs. The market is a shade and unchanged. We quote primesteamer at 14:14:0. Whiky—Heceipts. 670 barrels. The market is a shade frmer, but not very active. We quote Western free at 5:00 bid and 8:102 marked. Tallow is dull at 9:032 cents. of Pitty=BURGH, March 22.—Petroleum market quiet yes-of Pitty=BURGH, March 22.—Petroleum market quiet yes-

By the American Press Association. NEW YORK, March 22.-Money is easy at 4 to 6 per cent. on call. Foreign exchange is quiet on the basis of 108; to 108; for prime bankers' sixty-day sterling bills. The gold market is stronger, and ranged Southern State securities are decidedly higher in the Louisianas, and firm in the other bonds.

Pacific Railway mortgages are dull at 851 for the Unions and 931 for the Centrals. The Stock market is active and decidedly higher in all the leading railroad shares. The advance was equal to two per cent., and was very marked in Northwest, Lake Shore, St. Paul and Rock Island shares.

PRINTING A. C. BRYSON & CO., 607 Chestnut St. & 604 Jayne St.

607 Chestnut St. & 604 Jayne St. 607 Chestnut St. & 604 Jayne St. 607 Chestnut St. & 604 Jayne St. 607 Chestnut St. & 604 Jayne St. (Bulletin Bullding Philadelphia,) Book and Job Printers, Book and Job Printers, Book and Job Printers, Book and Job Printers. Book and Job Printers, Book and Job Printers. Book and Job Printers. Workmen Skillful. Prices Low. Workmen Skillful. Prices Low. Workmen Skillful. Prices Low Workmen Skillful. Prices Low.

Workmen Skillful. Prices Low. Workmen Skillful. Prices Low. Workmen Skillful. F Workmen Skillful. F GIVE US A TRIAL. GIVE US A TRIAL GIVE US A TRIAL

NAVAL STORES,-365 BARRELS N. Rosin, 50 barrels Pitch, H, 51 barrels Spirits Tur-cutine, 60 barrels Tar, now handing from stramer flower, from Winnington, N. U. and for sale by 200 HBAN RUSSELL & CO. No. 111 Chestnut street. COCHBAN RUSSELL & CO., No. 11 Clearnant street. These contracts. No kensible man can belleve FISH OIL 50 BARRELS. LIGHT-COL that Copress ever meant to confer on Mr. I ored sweet Fish Oll, fow-priced, for sale by EDW 13, ROWLEY, 16 South Front street.

WASHINGTO ECUBAN QUESTION

3:00 O'Olook.

trality Resolution. _____

r Finances L OF A NEW STEAMER

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Neutrality Resolution. Despatch to the Phila, Evening Bulletin.) INGTON, March 22 .- The House Com-SAFETY OF THE CITY OF BRUSSELS | mittee on Foreign Affairs, to-day, agreed to report Banks's Neutrality resolution with some amendments. The effect of the resolu-Cuba on precisely the same footing under the act of 1818, which it is explanatory. It secures substantial neutrality between the contending parties, and gives the insurgents

By the American Press Association.] Bank Reserves and Specie Payments. WASHINGTON, March 22.-At one o'clock Mr. Sherman, from the Finance Committee of the Senate, reported to indefinitely postpone Mr. Sumner's bill to strengthen bank reserves and promote specie payments, and the report was concurred in.

The Interest on the New Bonds. The House Committee of Ways and Means is divided on the subject of issning the new bonds bearing different rates of interest. The majority of the Committee are in favor of issuing all the bonds in one kind or class, bearing the uniform rate of 41 per cent. interest. Trial Trip of a New Steamer.

The U.S. steamer Congress, recently fitted out at Philadelphia as the flag-ship of the day, on the way to Boston, on her trial trip. The Recruiting Appropriation.

Secretary Belknap was at the Capitol, this Appropriation for Recruiting. He explained the requirements of the service and the necessity for that appropriation to the Senate Committee on Appropriations. Reorganization of the Marine Hospita

The House Committee on Commerce agreed this motning, to report favorably the Senate bill reorganizing the Marine Hospital Service, and placing those establishments under the supervision of a medical inspector, to be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Tennessee Affairs. The House Reconstruction Committee this morning heard Mr. Perkins, the Speaker of he Tennessee House of Representatives in reference to the condition of affairs in that

SENATE — Mr. Summer reported a bill for the relief of the Hon. J. Ross Browne, late U. S. Minister to China. Mr. Summer reported back the resolution providing for the consideration of treaties for the annexation of entire foreign dominions in open session, and asking that it be indefihtely postponed. Agreed to. Mr. Fenton offered a resolution providing for the relief of veteran volunteers of the late war. Agreed to. Mr. Hamlin introduced a bill to incorporate The gold market is stronger, and the first the American Observation of the Sciences. from 1121 to 1121. The rates paid for carrying Sciences. Mr. Wilson introduced a bill in behalf of inventors. Mr. Johnson introduced a bill to incorporate the Spears Air-holding National Company. The House joint resolution in relation to the construction of the Rock Island Bridge was construction of the Rock Island Bridge was taken up and passed. On motion of Mr. Conkling, the resolution of the Judiciary Committee, adverse to the claims of Adelbert Ames, Senator elect from Musissippi, was taken up, when Mr. Conkling gave way to Mr. Anthony, for the consideration of a resolution to print 15,000 extra copies of the report of the sub-Committee of the House on the Decline of American Commerce, and Mr. Chandles main automatican Commerce, and Mr. Chandler made a speech characterzing the attempt of the report to give drawbacks to domestic builders, which was a gigantic mo-nopoly, as a fraud and a cheat. After debate, the resolution was agreed to. The Senate then resumed the consideration of the claim of Adelbert Ames to a seat as

Mr. Conkling addressed the Senate, giving the reasons why the Judiciary Committee made an adverse report. He referred to Gen. Ames's character as a soldier and a gentlema and stated that the Committee would hav een glad to have given a favorable report but the evidence was conclusive that at the time of his election he was not an inhabitant of the State of Mississippi in the sense required by the constitution to qualify him to a seat. HOUSE.-Mr. Brooks (Mass.), from the Comnittee on Elections, reported in the contested case from the Fourth District of Virginia, that Mr. Booker, the sitting member, is enti-

that Mr. Booker, ing storing incaper, is child the to his seat. Mr. Poland submitted a resolution reciting sundry reasons why Mr. Booker is disqualitied, especially because of his participation in the rebellion, and that he is therefore not legally intitled to a seat in this body. Objection was made to the present consideration of the report or resolution, and they were made the special order for Thursday, March 31. The regular order being the act explanatory The regular order being the act explanatory of the act relating to the Sutro Tunnel, re-ported on adversely by the Committee on Mines and Mining, was taken up. Mr. Fitch addressed the House in opposi-tion to 'Mr. Sutro's claim for a perpetual royalty of two dollars per ton on all ore taken from the Comstock and other lodes. He was not one of these who considered the projector not one of those who considered the projector of the tunnel as great a bore as the bore pro-jected by him, but he believed the Congress of 1860 never intended to grant such tuminai-ties and royalties as Mr. Sutro claimed. The a thunel through their property, agreeing to pay him two dollars per ton roy-ally for all the ore taken out. The contract stipulates that Sutro should begin work by the let of July, 1866, and should, also, by the

URTH EDITION FIFTH EDITION 4:30 O'Clock. BY TELEGRAPH. NATIONAL CAPITAL.

and the providence of the second s

able Report on Mr. Banks's Neu- | THE CASE OF GENERAL AMES

COLLECTOR BAILEY'S SEIZURES

AFFAIRS IN NEW YORK

Defeat of the Police and Supervisors' Bills

-----FROM WASHINGTON.

The Case of General Ames. Special Despatch to the Phila, Evening Bulletin.] WASHINGTON, March 22.-General Ames's tion, as agreed upon, is to place Spain and bas made a long and remarkably powerful case is up before the Senate. Mr. Conkling argument against the eligibility of General Ames to a seat. He has been listened to with the most marked attention throughout. Gen Ames was upon the floor during its delivery.

[By the American Press Association.] The Neiznres by Collector Bailey. WASHINGTON, March 22.-The Revenue Br eau to-day is considering applications from ersons in New York whose property was ized by Collector Bailey, and has been held or months without charges being preferred, vith a view to their immediate release. A. clusion will be arrived at very shortly, Nominations.

The following nominations were sent to the Senate to-day: Edward A. Bragden, to be Collector of Customs of the District of York. Maine ; John F. Trout, to be First Lieutenant of Infantry; Henry G. Ellsworth, to be Second ieutenant in the Marine Corps. ------

FROM NEW YORK.

[By the American Press Association.] feat of the Police and Supervisors ALBANY, March 22 .- The Police and Super Southern Squadron of the North Atlantic fleet. | visors' hills were both defeated in the Assempassed out by the Capes of Delaware, yester- | bly, this morning, by a dozen Democrats and all the Republicans. They refused, also, to consider the bill for a new charter for New York city.

The Charter and Police Bills. ALBANY, March 22 .- A motion to reconsider the Charter and Police bills was overruled. after which the Assembly adjourned. Twenty Democrats voted with the Republicans.

Counterfeiter Arrested. BROOKLYN, March 22.-J. R. Laurent was arrested, to-day, by a secret service detective, counterfeiting twenty-five-cent stamps. The plates and apparatus were captured.

Marine Intelligence. NEW YORK, March 22.-Below, stea Merrimàc, from Rio de Janeiro, St. Thomas _____

FROM THE EAST.

By the American Press Association. NEW JERSEY. Fatal Accident.

JERSEY CITY, March 22 .- Aaron Burrill, while attempting to get on a train from New York to Newark, at Bergen, was instantly killed by falling under the cars, this morning. The deceased resided at Bergen.

FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS Second Session. [SENATE-Continued from Fourth Edition.]

[SEMATE-Continued from Fourth Edition.] Mr. Conkling went on to explain at length the law of the case, and gave the legal inter-pretation of the meaning of the word "in-habitant," as given by numerous authorities, and cited cases in Europe and America hav-ing reference to the question of domicile. He was listened to, with profound attention by the ntire Senate. Mr. Conkling concluded by saying that

Gen. Ames had determined to make his resi-dence in Mississippi hereafter, and announced hat since his election he had acquired a res dence there, and would be at once re-elected by the Legislature upon notice being for-warded to them of his rejection. Mr. Howe sustained the claim of General

Ames for immediate admission to a seat. BoysE-[Continued from the Fourth Edition.] Bemarks were made by Messrs. Voorhees, Woodward and others. Pending the discussion the morning hour expired, and the bill went over. The Utah bill, reported from the Committee on Territories some weeks since, was taken

CURTAIN MATERIALS.

WINDOW DECORATIONS

LACE CURTAINS.

HEAVY AND LACE DRAPERIES

Satin Damask, Silk, and Silk and Woo Fabrics, of all shades of colors, the latest imported.

WINDOW SHADES

For Railroad Supplies.

I. E. WALRAVEN

MASONIC HALL.

owners of the Comstock lode made a contract with Sutro, giving him the right to construct DHILADELPHIA SURGEONS' BAND DHILADELL'HIA SURGEONS' BAND-AGE INSTITUTE 14 N. Ninth st., above Market. B. O. EVERETT'S Trues positively cures Buptures. Chesp. Trurses, Elastic Belts, Stockings, Suppristers, Shunder Braces, Crutches, Suspensories, Pile Band-g., Ladies attended to by Mrs. E. j:/wrs some date, secure subscriptions of $3.000, 660 to the capital stock, to aid the enterprise, at least $£00.000 of which was to be actually paid in by July, 1866. These conditions have by the con VV Wool, arsorted grades. in store and for sile by OOOHBAN. RUSSELL & OO,. No. 111 Chestuat stree that Congress ever meant to confer on Mr. Sutro the monstrous franchise of building such a tunnel at his leisure. BEGRIA SONS, 113 Walnut street,

LAMBREQUINS

In all the Newest Tints.

PALUSHES, HAIR, &c