CITY BULLETIN.

THE BURIAL OF THE LATE FATHER KING.—In Europe many very aged priests; in this diocese the longevity of the Roman clergy is not so high. We heard this from Bishop Wood, in his own study, two years ago. Such gentlemen as Father Sheridan, as a case in point, are very rare. The death of Father Charles King, of Pottstown, has already been reported. He was a member of the Society of Jesus, and was born in Washington, D. C. His age was 52 years. To the Catholic Standard we are indebted for the information that he made his theological studies at Georgetown College, entered upon his novitiate in the Society of Jesus Sept. 3, 1834, and was ordained with Rev. Fathers McGinnis, formerly of St. Joseph's, in this city, and Rev. Fathers G. J. Conroy, Patrick and the Meulemeester, of the same Society, by the late Most Rev. Archbishop Eusebius, of Baltimore, on the 23d of July, 1838. After his ordination he was sent to St. John's College, Frederick, Md.; thence to Georgetown, and finally to St. Ignace's Church, Baltimore. His father, after the death of the mother of the deceased, was a member of the Society of Jesus, and labored on the Mission for over a quarter of a century. He died at Loyola College about two years ago. The Standard says: "Father King was clear and effective, as will be testified by the thousands who listened to him at the various missions he has given both in this city and elsewhere. Father King had few superiors, and his loss will be deeply felt, not only by the Society of Jesus, of which he was a valued member, but by the body of the laity, by whom he was known and beloved. Father King spent many years at St. Ignace's Church, Baltimore, where, as its Pastor, he endeared himself to all. He was a man of high intellect, and his last appointment was at the Novitiate of the Society of Jesus, at Frederick, Maryland. About three months ago, Father King was seized with a severe attack of the lungs, which he overcame, and on the invitation of his friends, he returned to his father's residence at Pottstown, where he died on Sunday evening last, at the hour above named, in the full possession of his faculties, and surrounded by Rev. Fathers Taylor, S. J., and Sorrentino, and by the members of the Conference of St. Vincent de Paul, to whom he gave his dying benediction. He gave his blessed part to Heaven, and slept in so many years."

REPAIRS.—The Second District Police Station at South and High streets, has been completely renovated, and now presents quite a neat and clean appearance. The Third District Police Station has been in a bad condition for some time, and the renovation has been bad, and the lives of those confined as prisoners or accommodated with lodgings have been endangered. Within a short time the building will be considerably repaired, and some of the existing evils have been remedied as far as possible. The collar has been papered and painted, and the ceiling has been repaired. The cost of the repairs has been about $1,000. The building however, is still unfit for the purpose for which it is used, and a new station-house should be provided.

THE LAST DANCE.—An unknown woman has been carrying on quite a swindling business with some of our citizens lately. She has been traveling around in company with six small children, and has been in the habit of placing them in the Northern Home for Friendless Children, and that she had not the requisite means to pay the car fare to that institution. Her friends must be a source of information to such an appeal; but upon inquiry it has been ascertained that the children have been borrowed for the occasion, and that the woman had no intention of placing them in the Home.

THE RESULT OF A SPREE.—Augustus Rich, a German, recently fell heir to about $300. Last evening he celebrated the event by getting very full of beer. On the following morning, he drew forth a large, old-fashioned German pistol and blazed away at a man who was on the opposite side of the street. The ball struck the man in the chest, and he fell. A serious wound, Police Officer Shellman came up and arrested Rich. This morning the latter was arraigned before Alderman Toland and held in $1,000 bail for trial.

AN OWNER WANTED.—Yesterday Special Officer Plunkett, of the Twelfth District, observed two boys on a lot at Ninth street and Columbia avenue. They had a bag, which was dropped when the officer appeared. The bag was picked up and was found to contain a gray blanket shawl, which awaits an owner at the Central Station.

A DRAB OVERCOAT, found at Juniper and Race streets, last night, awaits an owner at the Eighth District Police Station.

THE READING RAILROAD ROBBERIES.—Police Officer Lenahan and Special Officer McCann, of the Ninth District, arrested, at Thirty-second street, two men who were charged with being implicated in the robbery of the freight cars on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad in connection with Wood, who was now in prison at Norristown. He was locked up for a hearing at the Central Station this afternoon.

PRESENTATION.—Thomas J. Barger, a salver and collector, has been presented with a handsome set of silver, consisting of a silver and twelve pieces, besides forks, spoons, &c. The gift is from the gentlemen who held positions under him in the Lehigh River Department. The presentation took place at the residence of Mr. Barger, No. 1265 South Fifth street, the donors being represented by Richard Ludlow, Esq. After the ceremonies, the company sat down to a fine collation.

HOPE ROBERTY.—The residence of Henry A. Steel, No. 638 North Eighteenth street, was entered last evening, about half-past 8 o'clock, while the family was in the sitting-room. The thief got in through the front window. He gathered together some silverware belonging to a tenant, and valued at $200, and then departed through the front door, leaving it open, and taking with him also a black snuff overcoat, which was hanging on the hat-rack in the entry.

SEIZURE.—The members of the Junger Maimenor last evening serenaded Mr. F. Tholey at his residence on Crown street, above Vine. Mr. Tholey is one of the most active members of the Society. He has just recovered from a severe illness. After the serenade the party was invited into the house and enjoyed the hospitalities of Mr. Tholey.

IRVING.—George Buchanan, aged four years, residing No. 1223 Lancaster street, Richmond, was run over by a huckster wagon in Summer street this morning, and had a leg broken. He was taken to Pennsylvania Hospital.

LOW TIDE.—The water in the Delaware was decreased to such an extent last night by the strong northwest wind that nearly all of the vessels moored at the docks between Walnut street and Port Richmond were lying in the mud.

LOCAL CHRONICLE.—To-day is a continuation of the series, overhead, of days bound in blue and gold.

Secretary of the Navy Robeson is in the city. He comes to participate in the festivities incident to a friend's wedding.

Chief James Page—his many friends will be glad to hear—is convalescent from the malady that afflicted him. From his present appearance, he has realized a stock of increasing vitality that is renewing his youth like the eagle.

The grand tour and reception given at the Academy of Music last night by the Financiers of the Knights Templar, was a "thing of beauty." According to Keats, therefore, to every participant it must remain a joy forever.

On the occasion of the late parade of the Knights of this city, the New Jersey Knights were the guests of their Philadelphia hosts a magnificent gothic frame, including resolutions passed by the Jersey Knights, expressive of esteem and affection for their warm-hearted hosts.

The stage was set with a scene representing a tent over which depended the insignia of the fraternity. The music was given by two distinct bands. The guests entertained the spectators with a Masonic drill. They marched and crossed the stage, and then, but very beautiful, calling up memories of what we saw done upon the same stage, by the late "Emancipation" began, by Col. Ellsworth's Zouaves.

The latest advertising dodge is the sending of fac similes of telegraphic despatches to gentlemen who have the names of the despatchers in the envelope marked, "message prepaid, no charge for delivery." The despatch is printed in the precise type of the telegraph. It tells the recipient where to go to buy his copy.

The Alumni of Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., residing in this and adjoining States, are to dine with the Philadelphia Association of Alumni at the Union League House this evening. A large attendance is expected. The President of the College, Rev. Chas. A. Alkin, D. D., has arrived in the city by the morning train, and promises to be extremely agreeable and interesting.

For the benefit of the "Old Man's Home," in West Philadelphia, a full-dress concert of the Academy of Music, is to be given on Wednesday evening, April 1st, at 8 o'clock. The institution is entirely unsectarian. It is designed for the benefit of the poor and indigent, by relieving them of their miseries and helplessness.

Mannul Souza was this morning before Commissioner Clark. He was charged with surreptitiously taking cigars in the third story of No. 409 Lombard street, and was accompanied by Deputy Marshals Beale and Murray, made a descent upon the premises. The culprit raised a back window and undertook to escape by means of a ladder. He was arrested because of the close fit of the left boot, by which he was grabbed. Had it been loose, it would have been left empty in the officer's hand. As a consequence, the Commissioner held him in $800 bail.

Many a heart will be saddened to learn of the death of the late Mr. Edwin Coolidge. He was long in the wholesale boot and shoe trade in Market street. The war brought to him reverses. His trade was with the South, and he was considerably ruined. His death he was in the insurance business at Fourth and Walnut streets. He was an active worker in the church of Rev. Charles Wadsworth, Fourth and Chestnut streets. His extended list of friends than Mr. Edwin Coolidge. The tidings of his death will be received with a pang by all who knew him.

On his person were found a jimmy, some skeleton keys, and other things generally used by burglars. The prisoner will have a hearing at the Central Station this afternoon.

TELEGRAPHIC ENTERPRISE.

More Lively Action from the Associated.

The N. Y. Tribune this morning says: "The telegraphic news has not yet some features in common with the information which used to be furnished by the reliable gentleman who gave a hearing to the telegraph in the early days of the war. We can imagine the interest with which the readers of the 'Official Journal of the United States,' of the 'Morning Star,' of the 'Daily News,' of the 'Telegraph,' must have read the report it published as received by telegraph, that 'Napoleon III. and the Prince Imperial are both dead.' How they would have rejoiced to see the telegraphable a mystery as to ascertain 'who struck Billy Patterson.'"

"We can tell the Tribune 'how such a thing happened,' and they will see the result of the dependence of the benighted Southern papers upon the New York Associated Press, of which the Tribune is a mendacious member."

JENKINS IN TEXAS.

The Refinements of Southern Journalism. Jenkins has penetrated to Texas. In a State where it is considered a mark of close and touching intimacy to permit the inquiry, "What was your rank in the army?" more than one or two personal encounters and shooting affrays are necessary to distinction. The journalist in that quarter introduces the parties of rank and fortune into his reports on occasions in a graceful way. Thus the Greenville Herald appends to a marriage notice the observation, "It has recently been ascertained that the bride and groom were the husband of the above named lady was a desperado and killed by United States soldiers shortly after Ben Bickerton's death." Such a notice is not only a source of information to the newly-married couple.
