The Contest Over the San Domingo Treaty THE CASE OF PRINTER CLAPP FROM WASHINGTON. Cotton Cases, (Ppecial Despatch to the Phila, Evening Bulletin.]

WASHINGTON, March 26 .- The Court o Claims is now at work upon nothing but cotton cases, of which there are now on the docket a great number, involving a very large amount of money, The Funding Bill.

bek, 40[a41]; In-rant Bonds, 72ja 84]a85, and Cen-banking. It is probable that various other chauges will be made in the bill as it comes from the Senate.

A Substitute for the Fonding Bill. General Garfield holds frequent consultations with the Secretary and Comptroller of high position at Court, will be shortly an Currency, and is actively at work arranging the details of the bill which he will propose as a substitute for part or whole of the Funding bill when it comes from the Ways and Means Committee.

The San Domingo Scheme. The contest over the San Domingo Treaty continues with unabated interest. The President has to-day refused to see visitors, ex cept such as called on business connected with this question. A number of Senators visited the White House during the day.

the Darien Canal expedition, under com-mand of Captain Selfridge, of the Nipsic, left Aspinwall on the 21st of February, with forty natives, to cut their way through the woods from 2 point 180 miles east of Aspinwall. They were three days in cutting their way to the headwaters of the river, which, it was known, led to the Pacific ocean. They returned to the ship over the same path in one day. and were preparing to survey another route in the neighborhood of the same river. The native Indians were not hostile. On the contrary, they evinced extreme timidity. This induced them to retire with their women and children, and they did not reappear until forced to do so by hunger, when they came and asked permission to catch crawfish.
