Surely this is "most tolerable and not to be endured." The arrival and departure of a person is duly published in London on the 8th of this month, the scene being in Vienna, and, exactly a forthight later, the Associated Press gives its paymasters, the American news-papers, a despatch, dated Vienna, October 21, misrepresenting the facts by isting vinctom 21," misrepresenting the facts by stating, nineteen doys after he had departed for Venice," the Crown Prince of Prussia has arrived here." Appeals, threats, profiered bribes, and every kind of influence known to honest or dishonest men were brought to bear. It was but we have a pretty good sprinkling of it through the Directory. It appears as follows: of Tweed the convoking of Tammany, we counted upon 187 true and faithful Reform Democrats. Last night one man, and one man King, 284; Queen, 10; Prince, 16; Duke, 6; Countiss, 3; Lord, 41; Earl, 20; Baron 2 and Knights, 100. For all of these we have 2 only, was absent from his post. The Ring saw itself irretrievably ruined, and took refuge in ignominious and cowardly flight. To the call of their chairman they dared not come to-gether. Rather than be beheaded, they chose to skedatdile. And this was the way of it:

to skedaddle. And this was the way of it: The Sachems of Tammany Society (not Committee) are of the Ring. There is A. Oakey Hall, Ring Mayor; Peter B. Sweeny, Ring Chamberlain; John J. Bradley, his brother-in-law; Samnel B. Garvin, Ring Dis-trict-Attorney; Matthew T. Brennan, Ring Police Commissioner; Isaac Bell, Ring Com-missioner of Charities and Correction: James missioner of Charities and Correction ; James B. Nicholson, Ring Commissioner of Charities B. Michobon, Ang Commissioner of Charmes and Correction; Joseph Dowling, Ring Police-Justice; E. B. Hart, Ring Fugleman; N. Jar-vis, Jr., Ring Fugleman. These Sachems hold the keys of Tammany Hall. Foreseeing their fate-the end of their commissions, their solution and their nowar-they resolved plunder, and their power-they resolved to shut the doors of Tanmany Hall against the General Committee, though called by its chairman; and to pretend fears of harm to Tanmany and to pretend fears of harm to Tammany at the hands of her own majority. At the hour appointed in the of-ficial call, Tammany Hall was thus closed. Ring Commissioner Brennan's several hun-dred pohcemen guarded the still virgin doors; ind Ring Charity Commissioner James B Nicholson, Father of the Council of Sachems, denied to 187 out of 339 members of Tanmany General Committee the admission which was their right to the old Democratic Wigwam. These 187 members (a majority of 35) elsewhere peaceably assembled, peaceably but unanimously passed resolutions suitably as-serting the demands of the Young Democracy sering the demands of the xoung Democracy as to the Legislature, suitably asserting their contempt for the cowardly flight of the Ring from a vote, and then they peaceably dispersed to their homes. The resolutions of the Ring terms hock the Resolutions of the Ring achems look to a Ben Butler style of reconstruction of Tammany General Committee Last fall it was elected at the primaries by the people. Now the Sachems threaten its "Re-construction," and "a consolidated General Committee" noon. Committee.'

It is just as cowardly as the flight of the Ring, but it is a great deal more ridiculous. Such a Tennessee Tammany Committee could neither poll nor cheat enough votes into the ballot-boxes to make it worth the while of their own Ring Police Commission inspectors and canvassers to count them. We should and canvassers to count them. We should too much dignify the Ring Sachems' "Recon should struction" plot to say that we defy it. It is, only contemplifie. The Young Democracy have a clear majority of Tammany General Committee. The Young Democracy count thousands in the Young Democracy count thousands among the people to the Ring's ten. These two facts insare the ultimate deliver-ance of New York city and State from Ring corruptions and Ring rule, as they witness the deliverance of the Democracy of the Union from the Ring millsione from the Ring millstone.

A Tax on Chinese Laborers.

The same Committee also agreed to report a bill repealing the acts of the Legislature of Idaho, which discriminates against the Chinamen engaged in the mining interests by taxing them five dollars per month, with a view of crowding such labor out of the limits of the Territory.

Case of Lieutenant-Commandor Bishop. The House Committee on Naval Affairs heard the report of Mr. Stevens, in the case of Lieutenant-Commander John Bishop. The case was referred to the sub-committee, with instructions to offer a joint resolution authorizing the President to reinstate Bishop.

A Relief Bill.

The bill for the relief of the families of the men lost on the steamer Maria was referred to General Ketcham for investigation, with instructions to report it to the committee as early as possible.

with a stream of narmony that touched all hearts. They sang with all their might, and knew well all they had to sing; and the result was entire success. No part of the evening's performance gave more real pleasure and satisfaction than did this trio, and the two choruses at the beginning and close of the concert. Mr: Pearce may well feel proud of his pupils—they do him, as well as themselves, infinite credit. We are glad, to hear that the boy chorus will give, in faster week, a concert at which glees and madrigals will be sung. The occasion will be one of rare interest, and we anticipate a very large audience.

of the delighted listeners.
