THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT. Official Promulgation. President Grant yesterday sent the following message to Congress: To the Senate and House of Representatives:

It is unusual to notify the two Houses of Congress by message of the promulgation by procla-mation of the Secretary of State of the ratificaion of a constitutional amendment. In view, however of the vast importance of the Fifteent mendment of the Constitution, this day de lared a part of that revered instrument, leem a departure from the usual custom just fiable. A measure which makes at once fou millions of people voters, who were heretofore eclared by the highest tribunal in the land not citizens of the United States, nor eligible to become so, with the assertion that at the time of the Declaration of Independence the binion was fixed and universal in the ciilized portion of the white race, regarded as an axiom in morals as well as in politics, that black men had no rights which white men were bound to respect-is indeed a measure of grander importance than any other act of the/ will be about $40,000. nd, from the foundation of our free Gov-
