The following is an extract from the Burd veto message of Governor Geary : By codicil to her testament, Mrs. Burd de vised a large amount of property in trust for the foundation of an orphan asylum for the reception of white female orphans of not less than four years, and of not more than eight years of age. The act in question strike out the word eight and makes the lim tation read twelve years of age. If the Le gislature can thus modify the standard of a ninistration, established by will, it could b extended to embrace adults of fifty years of age. We can well understand that the testatrix has sufficient reasons for establishing the limitation found in her will. She probably did not design that the asylum should be a mere nursery, and hence she fixed our years as the minimum. She might also desire that children should be admitted of such tender years as to guard the establishment from all contamination of evil thoughts or bad habits. She, therefore, assigned eight years as the maximum age. This would seem to be en-tirely reasonable. But whether it was a dis-credit, or otherwise, no one can doubt that she who established this noble charity had the right to prescribe terms upon which its bounty should be administered, and conceding this grease CH Grant & Coi 24 och and show Graf Watto prescribe terms upon which its bounty should be administered, and conceding this power to her, it necessarily follows that the will is beyond the power of legislative alteration.

Among the "nat," Schurz and Trumbull, Republicans. Messrs. Stockton, Thurman, Ham- ilton and Johnson, who were opposed to the
