FIRE.—This morning, about half-past one o'clock, a one-story frame building on the Delaware river, below Moore street, was burned down.

THE PHILADELPHIA WATER WORKS.—Chief Engineer Graef will make the following interesting statement of the operations of the Philadelphia Water Works during the month of March.

NEGRO VOTING IN MARYLAND.

The First Effect of the Fifteenth Amendment in an Old Slave State.—Pensacola Voting on a Great American Issue.

By virtue of the recent act of the General Assembly of Maryland, incorporated in the Constitution of that State, the county of Baltimore, an election was held yesterday for five commissioners to serve one year.

The colored men were to be allowed to vote in Maryland. From early in the morning until the hour of noon, the streets were opened at noon, and the groups of colored men were gathered about, apparently impressed with the importance of the occasion.

HEAVY EMIGRANT TRAIN.—The emigrant train westward from this city, at 12 M., yesterday, consisted of nineteen cars, and was drawn by a single engine as far as Millin.

ANOTHER MAINTA IN MONTANA.—Helena, Montana, has, during the past few months, experienced a weekly "stampede" of the "gold fever."
