TRADES UNION TYRANNY. The proprietors of the Cincinnati Commercial are engaged in a contest with the Typographical Union, for the purpose of determinng whether the business of that paper is to be nanaged by its owners or by its employes and the officers of the organization of which they are members. The owners are willing to pay, and have paid the largest wages for their work; but because they would not submit to the dictation of their hands and the Union in some other matters, their compositors suddenly quitted their cases, and entered into a connswer to the Commercial's advertisements to | succeeded in getting out a good paper, prices; they prohibit the employment of any apprentices in a newspaper will be able to secure its adoption. office; they enact arbitrary rules for the rights of a free laborer. ____ A GOOD AMENDMENT. It is announced that Senator Nye intends to offer an amendment to the Cullom anti-Mormon bill, which will prohibit polygamy in future, but will suffer those who now have more wives than one to continue their relations with them without interference. This amendment supplies the single need of the Cullom bill. In its original shape that act required the poly gamous Mormons to give up all their wives but spiracy to break up the business of the paper.
Not only did they refuse to work themselves,
