AMUSEMENTS.

—On Monday and Tuesday evenings, May 2d and 3d, Miss Carlotta Patti will appear at the Academy of Music in The Magic Flute. She will be supported by Messrs. Hermann's, Baldesmann and Formes, and by Mme. Lotti and Mlle. Dzuiba. There will be full chorus and a large orchestra under the direction of Mr. Theodore Ritter. Seats can be secured at the box office of the Academy on and after Thursday next.

—There was a large and brilliant attendance at the Academy of Music last evening. The opera was Il Barbiere, with Miss Kellogg as "Rosina," Mme. Gazzaniga as "Azucena," Brignoli as "Almaviva," and Coletti as "Fernando." "Count di Luna" was sung by Mr. Perkins. The performance was in many respects one of the same equal to many previous ones of the same opera. Miss McElhinney's Una voce was well done, although it fell somewhat flat, and failed to please. Signor Brignoli was in excellent voice, and sang throughout with much spirit. The most prominent feature of the evening was the debut of Signor Petrilli, as an old former occasion. The most important was a fair "Count di Luna." The most prominent was acting feature of the performance was the assumption of the part of the gypsy "Azucena" for the first time, by Mme. Gazzaniga. Her old friends greeted her with much warmth, at which she was evidently gratified. The music of the part is not all suited to her voice. But fine method, and her splendid acting atoned for all deficiencies. It was a treat to see and hear such an artist, and a company, every other member of which is without that quality. The chorus and the orchestra were tolerably good, and the large audience, which was not as full as the Philadelphia audiences used to be, appeared to be well pleased. This afternoon Martha will be performed, and on Monday evening Lucrezia Borgia, with Miss Kellogg, Mme. Gazzaniga, and Signor Petrilli.

—At the Walnut Street Theatre, to-night, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams will appear in the 10th drama, entitled Connie Soogah. On Monday evening Connie Soogah will be produced.

—At the Arch Street Theatre, this evening, the comedy of The Heroine and the drama, The Willow Copse. On Monday evening next Mr. Gaither will have a benefit.

—The Field of the Cloth of Gold and the burlesque, The Bohemian Gamp, will be given at the Chestnut Street Theatre, this evening, by the Misses Ostos' Burlesque Company.

—At Cook's American Theatre, this evening, a miscellaneous performance will be given by an excellent company.

—At the Eleventh Street Opera House, this evening, Mr. Frank Brower's Dixey's Minstrel Company will give a first-class entertainment.

—At the Seventh Street Opera House Dupree & Benedict will give a first-class entertainment for this evening.

—At the Seventh Street Opera House Dupree & Benedict will give a first-class entertainment for this evening.

—Signor Blitz will give exhibitions of magic and legerdemain, at the Assembly Buildings this evening.

—The Pilgrim paintings will be exhibited at Concert Hall this evening. They are still continuing to be largely visited.

—The landscape paintings to be presented to the Public Schools by Mr. Cyrl Haseltine, are on exhibition at Haseltine's Gallerie, No. 1125 Chestnut street. Visitors are entitled to vote for the particular school to which they desire pictures to be given.
