The Tariff Bill--Indignation of the Peun-sylvania Members. (Special Despatch to the Phila, Evening Balletta.) WASHINGTON, April 26 .- The most earnest advocates of the tariff bill now concede that the bill will fail in the House this session, The Pennsylvania members seem quite indignant that the New England delegation hav not given more active support to the measure, and charge them with having been false to and charge them with having been faise to their promises to sustain Pennsylvania in-terests. A good deal of ill-feeling seems to be grow-ing up between the representatives of the two sections of the country, from the course of the New Eugland members in net aiding market. the Pennsylvanians to keep up the duty on scrap iron. On the other hand, it is asserted tween Gen. Jordan and the Junta was only for one year's servi — The General positively re-fused to agree to contracts for a longer term; but the contract was left open for renewal on his part, as he and the Junta shall agree. His term of service expired in February. At the beginning of the year the Junta sent out to beginning of the year the Junta sent out to Cespedes a copy of the contract with General Jordan, which, it is insisted, has been fully mulied with The Junta, in sending th etter to the President, stated they would continue to pay the sums stipulated in the origi-al contract with Jordan so long as he should remain with the army. Leinus, the Cuban envoy, believes the presence of General Jordan here will be of greatservice to the cause, as he esteems him as a man of ability and character, fully informed of the relative strength of the two contending narties in Cuba.
