Weather cloudy. While Holfmost. WHAT THEY BRING.—The time to make a tour of the markets is the time when the spar-rows are twittering their orations and the dew is upon the rose bushes. The person who best enjoys the inspection is the person whose digestion is the best, and whose pocket-book is indifferent upon the subject of pressure. We especially love to look upon the cool slabs of the fish stalls.— Those in the Fifth street market this morning were admirably provided. The salmon, the shad and the fresh mackerel, lying side by side, look like so many ingots of burnished metal. No table fish, ex-cept the trout, is equally splendid in appear-ance to the salmon. The price of the Kenne-bec and Boston salmon is 60 cents a pound. Of California salmon there was no arrival bec and Boston samon is be cents a point Of California salmon there was no. atrival to-day. The fish are about a third larger than our own. They are also a good deal fatter. They are packed in childed cars in San Fran-cisco. The ice is placed in the boxes with the fish. The cars are re-iced at Chicago. They come to us in almost the exact condition in cisco. The ice is placed in the boxes with the fish. The cars are re-iced at Chicago. They come to us in almost the exact condition in which they left the water. Sheepshead are in moderate supply at 25c., retail, per pound. The hotel purveyors are the principal purchasers. Hundreds of people, de-ceived by the homely appearance of these fish, give them the go-by. Those now in our mar-ket come from Tuckerton- the waters of Egg (Harbor bay. Bass and other sea fish than halbut sell for 15c.; the latter never varies from a quarter-dollar a pound. The poor man's trout, the porgie, retails at 8c.; lobsters [10c., mackerel at 20a25c. apiece. Butter and eggs remain at last week's prices. 50c. a pound and 24c. a dozen. The curse of our pasture fields, the American leek, is be-ginning to indicate its presence in this staple ginning to indicate its presence in this staple ginning to indicate its presence in this stapa-of the table supply. Vegetables are abundant, but we think they are unnecessarily dear. Cauliflowers bring 40 to 50 cents, according to size and density. Peas bring 50 cents a half peck, and Southern-ones 25 cents for the same quantity. Aspara-gus is sold at too high a figure, 25a35 cents per burch gus is sold at too high a lighte, 2010 certs per bunch. Beef is without change from last week's prices. The tigure is 28a30 cents a pound. Veal sells at 30 cents for cutlets, and mutton at 18a20: For lamb S2 is still asked for the hind quarters, and $1.50 for the fore. Spring chickens are getting to be sizable. They hind quarters, and $1.50 for the lore. Spring-chickens are getting to be sizable. They bring any price that is asked for them. Grown fowls bring 30 cents a pound. The few tur-keys in market this morning looked like old residents. At-35 cents a pound nobedy seemed to want them. Strawberries are moving slowly at 40 cents a said: _____Young Ladics : 1t affords me much pleasur to hand you these certificates, which entitle you to take a position in the musical depart-ment of our Public Schools. Apart from the honor-for it is an honor to pass a close ex-amination-it is an evidence that you have studied the science not only as an accomplish-ment, but with a landable desire to impart that knowledge to others. That is your mis-

MUSIC TEACHERS IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS. —The candidates for the positions of music teachers in the public schools, who passed a successful examination recently, assembled at the Normal School this morning for the purpose of receiving their certificates. The Com-mittee on Revision of Studies, and Mr. Jean Louis, Superintendent of Music, were present. Louis, Superintendent of Music, were present. Edward Armstrong, Esq., annonaced the object of the meeting, and stated that the elec-tion of music teachers is now part of the duty of the Sectional Boards. M. Hall Stanton. Esq., President of the Board of Controllers of the Public Schools.

LOCAL CHOWDER.—The Presbyterian pulpite of the city will be principally occupied by iclegates to the Bynod that is now in session. Most of the Baptists have gone home. —Rain drops to-day at intervals. The weather is just that kind described by a school boy as a little too rainy to go to school in, but not too much so to spoil a day's fishing. —The summer sessions of the medical col-leges in the city were never more full than at present. They enable geutlemen to complete their studies without the interregnum of a scason. As many persons come from long dis-

their studies without the interregnum of a season. As many persons come from long dis-tances to procure the diplomas of Philadel-phia schools, these summer sessions are very much to their advantage. —The dog-catchers don't seem to be doing much. In the Fourth and Nineteenth Wards there are dogs enough to stock the city of Siamboul. The way to thin them out is the way they do in New York-pay a sum for the capture of each animal that shall convert every street urchin into a dog-catcher. When the boot blacks of New York find other trade dull they go a dogging in the neighoorhood of Centre street and the Five Points. THE MUNICIPAL HOSFITAL.—From the.

Health Officer. TELEGRAPH BUILDING STOPPED.-The City

TELEGRAPH BUILDING STOPPED.—The City Councils at their meeting rejected a resolution autherizing the National Telegraph Com-pany to build their line through the city. Mayor Fox learned this morning that notwithstanding this adverse ac-tion, the wires were being run into Frankford. He at once issued orders to stop the building of the line until it is authorized by law. There is probably no objection to having this telegraph line pass through the city, but the resolution referred to dd not designate any particular streets, and the members of Councils did not wish to grant the company the power to use indiscriminately the highways of the city. SAENGERFEST.—Whit Monday (June 6) will be celebrated by a Sangerfest at Engel & Wolf's Farm. The festival will be given by the Männerehor Sängerbund, Junger Män-nerchor and Harmonie. Two bands-have-been-engaged for concert music, and an orches-

-nerchor and Harmonie. Two bands have been-engaged for concert music, and an orches-tra for dancing purposes. During the day there will also be singing by the different so-cieties. The arrangements are in charge of an excellent committee, officered as follows: Chairman, H. Nuss; Secretary, H. Dieck; Treosurer, C. Lindhorst. The musical director -on-the-occasion will be. Mr. Wm. Hartmann, leader of the Junger Männerchor.

DECORATION DAY IN FRANKFORD.-Exten-DRCORATION DAY IN FRANKFORD. — Exten-sive preparations are being made by the citi-zens of Frankford to decorate the soldiers' and sailors' graves on next Monday after-noon, at Cedar Hill Cemetery, which promises to be a complete success. The Sabbath Schools will furn out en masse, led by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Union and other civic and will societies, march in procession to the cemetery, accompanied by the Frankford Cor-net Band. Hon. E. G. Lee will del ver the ora-tion. Otherspeakers will be present, assisted by several elergymen of the place. Music from UnitedStates Arsenal will also be present, ROMPERY.—The barber shop of Julius Rommers.—The barber shop of Julius Loewenstein No. 1031 Christian street, was robbed of a pair of boots, three razors, some cash, and other articles, yesterday afternoon, cash, and other articles, yesterday atternoon, during the temporary absence of the proprie-tor. The robbery is supposed to have been committed by a journeyman who had been left in charge and disappeared. The same in-dividual is supposed to have robbed the shop of the father of Mr. Leewenstein, No. 1807 Passivult road Passyunk road.

THE RICHMOND RELIEF FUND.—Mayor Fox received to-day from John C. Scott & Sons $25 for the relief of the sufferers by the late disaster at Richmond.

IN THE U.S. DISTRICT COURT.-The business this morning was a sort of inishing of odds and ends. Grover was convicted last night. He is now in perison away convicted hist high He is now in perison away and the sentence. An earnest effort was made by counsel, this morn-ing, to secure a new trial for Col. Sherman Judge Cadwalader listened to the arguments of counsel and then agreed to hold the matter under consideration. That he will comply with the moment is recretely expected. with the request is scarcely expected. What the counsel profess to think hard is that upon testimony like that of the convicts Groven and Wightman their client should have been convicted.

An application for the discharge of Weight An application for the discharge of Weight-man was also made to Judge Cadwallader. This was because Wightman is already under indictment for the Boodle business in a State Court. As he is also wanted in New York to explain matters and things concerning his connection-in the flash note business, his de-tention by Judge Codwalader mer be a subconnection-in the nam note business, his de-tention by Judge Cadwalader may be a sub-ject for reconsideration. CITY NOTICES.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.-We have no desire to be invidious, but there is one mercantile house in Phil adelphia which has so thoroughly engrafted itself in the confidence and good wishes of our people as to be worthy of public commendation. We refer to the popular Mil linery establishment of Messre. Kennedy & Brothers No. 729 Chestnut street. They have gratified our wives and daughters by phi-ing before them the most exquisite and tasteful genes that Paris affords, or that American ideality ever conceived, and we feel like thanking them for having been mainly instrumental in gracing our ladies with a more artistic and becoming head toilet than we have witweeked in many years.

We speak thus pointedly of this firm from the fact that they have this season more than ever stamped this de partment of trade with their genius. So true is this that whenever something surprisingly novel and beau-tiful is observed in the streets or in the Park, there is an involuntary compliment paid to Konnedy's by every in telligent observer. Their new things, brought out with each additiona lay as the season advances, are really so attractive that the ladies of our city seem to be making regular-weekly visits at their wavecome in order to keep themselves "booked." The first of July will probably show that the latter applies in a double sense. Should this be oven so, the most economical husbands will have no rease to complain, as the prices of the Messrs. Kennedy an as low as their standard of style is high.
