A BOLD STAND BY THE OPPOSITION Financial and Commercial Quotations FROM EUROPE.

(By the American Press Association.)

The Infallibility Discussion Rome. May 31,-The debate upon the dogma of the Infallibility continues in virulence and energy. The Opposition are maintaining a desperate stand against overwhelming numbers; but their objections will be overruled when the momentous question comes to a vote, which will probably be about the latter part of The arguments pro and con anticipate will all have been made by that time, and all things will be in readiness for the promulga ance. The opposition first obtained the floor. and the Bishops of St. Brience and St. Gall spoke against infallibility. Bishop Cefelie, of Rathenberg, made an energetic appeal. He declared that three suctized Pope Honorous, denouncing him as a heretic.

Archbishop Prince Schwartzenburg referred in language of contempt to the excuse of the partisans of the dogma in their endeavors to explain away the truth and justice of the argument against Pope Honorious. In athrmation that Infahibility was most inopportune, be cause such arguments were false and illfounded, he quoted from the works of eminent theologians, adducing authority to prove that Popes could be deposed for heresy. Cardinal Von Rauscher, through a deputy, entered a strong protest, in behalf of soviety and in the interests of civil government, against any proceedings prejudicial to the cause of freedom of thought and action. The tenor of the document was blended with de-

Cardinal Cullen, of Dublin, attempted to refute the arguments adduced by Cardinals Rauscher and Schwartzenburg, but in the attempt brought upon himself only ridicule Their defence was vigorously maintained by Doctor Machaele, who derided him for the attempt to disprove the reasoning of those theo-It is not anticipated that the discussion will be promulgated beyond the close of July. Twenty or more of the Congregations of the Council are expected to exhaust the debate. The remaining time will be actively employed in discussing the dogmatic scheme.

REMARKABLE SCENE AT A MURDER Conviction for Murder in the First Degree .- Touching Prayer by the Prisoner. After listening to the charge of the Judge this morning the jury upon the Barrett murder trial retired. The grief of the prisoner and his friends upon the rendering of this verdict was uncontrollable, bursting forth into a wail of agony, and the eyes of many spectators in the court room were filled with tears. When the emotion was somewhat subsided, the pri-soner knelt and offered the following really ouching and impressive prayer: Thee at this present time, feeling to rejoice and feeling thankful for the blessings we have and feeling thankful for the diessings we have received from Thy bountiful hand. Oh, God! Thou hast said we had better fear Thee that can destroy both soul and body, and we rejoice that I hou hast pardoned this poor soul and we feel to rejoice that if we have to lie there within those prison walls during life, that Thou hast pardoned this poor heart. And now Thou art able to go with this poor body and meet me within the dark dungeon walls and able to rejoice this poor heart, and when he is done with this world he may come to Thee at Thy right hand. We plead, because we feel needy We come, our Heavenly Father, praying that We come, our Heavenly Father, praying that Thou wouldst have mercy upon our family and upon our relations, and pardon their hearts. Thou knowst what dauger they are exposed to, and we ask at this time that thou wouldst drive all enmity from their hearts and let them go from here rejoicing, that this poor heart may meet them some day before Thy throne. O God! we have to leave a dear, poor family, and we pray that Thou wouldst stretch amily, and we pray that Thou wouldst stretc out Thy arm and be a husband to her.

Let Thy loving spirit up to the loving spirit go to heart. Let her r partner's heart. Let her rejoice that there is a word that can be sweeter than a husband's word to her heart. We pray for these dear little ones. O God! be a father; and a father indeed and in need, to them. And

The gold market was dull and belay. All the sales of the day occurred at 114% and 114%, and the quotation closed J14% 114%. The Treasury programme is regarded as unfavorable to an upward movement, and hence the lower prices as compared with Saturday, the hearish feeling being assisted by the inactivity in foreign exchange, which was firm, however, at 100% for prime bankers sixty-day bills and 110% for sight. In the gold lean market the rate ranged from three per cent. for carrying to flat for borrowing. The operations of the Gold Exchange Bank resulted as follows: Gross clearances, $33,226,000; gold balances, $1,164,245; currency balances, $1,342,430.

The money market was easy and stody, the dullness of the day preventing any important thynactions. On governments and stocks the rate was thing-lorabour per cent, with exceptions at five per cent, on stocks. A "seller thirty" transaction in stocks occurred at four per cent, as the special rate of interest. Commercial paper was without new feature.

The levernment list was strong, despite the lower price of gold, the contemplated purchase of eight millions by the Treasury during the month of June offsetting the influence of a decline in the gold promlum. The market was 'all. Buyers are disposed to await the result of the financial measures likely to come on the Congressional tapis this week. ALLOWELL SELECT HIGH SCHOOL

Tussay; May 31st, 1870.—The usual weekly bank statement exhibits a material change in some of the mean a tures of the more by market, as compared with the preceding week. The deposits have again increased $48.124, and the legal-tenders $333.255, whilst the loans have actually fallen off $180.119, thus adding over $700,000 to the idle capital seeking investment. The clearings have fallen off over four and a half millions, showing a very dull market for the week.

The loan market to-day is quiet, though there is quite a lively demand from the brokers. Rates continue eary at a per cent, on call, and at 525 per cent, on prime discounts. In Government securities there is not much doing, ex-
