the whole action of the Government itself. The American people, we cannot doubt, are utterly, opposed to so bullotul a degma. It is contrary to their deepest convictions:

But while they can never consent, as we believe, to expel all recognition of God and His truth from the public schools neither can they consent, on the other hand, to let a pertion of the public schools pass under the control of any particular denomination, and thus become the instruments of sectarian instruction and influence. It is a matter of utmost importance that the children of the people should be educated together, under the same roof, in the same atmosphere of American thought and feeling, and in those common elements of involvinger, virtue and frateriant sympathy, humanity and patriotism, which go to form a good and loyal citizen of our Great Republic.

We sincerely trust, therefore, that our Roman Gatholic fellow-citizens, who agree with us on the importance of the noral and religious element in popular education, will centime the co-operate with us in sustaining our American common school system and in infusing principles—such as love to God and love to our neighbor—which-lie-at-the-foundation—of-human disty-and are essential to the right training of the youthful hand. On this participle and catabolic platform we should hop-that a very large majority of those even, who dissent entirely from our theological views, and belong indeed to no branch of the Christian Church, would be willing to stand with us. We cannot think that there are many of our countrymen who would scriously object to having their children trained up in the public school, under the influence of these ancestral and truly demor ratical principles. The number of such in the past has been exceedingly small. We cherish the confident hope that it will be so in the future.

Publication.
Gov. Pollock moved to lay the amendment on the table. Carried.

Dr. Crosby moved, as a substitute, that the old Boards be continued for one year William F. Dodge seconded the motion of Dr. Crosby, not because he approved it, but in order that he might have an opportunity to make a speech in opposition Dr. Musgrave also favored the substitute of Dr. Crosby.

Dr. Breed opposed leaving things as they are at present; and, if necessary, he proposed to vote for the adoption of these reports ipso Dr. Adams hoped we should not be left half reconstructed, like Milton's lion, with his fore-paws rampant and his hinder parts still cleav-

Rev. Mr. Moon moved to lay Dr. Backus's motion and Dr. Crosby's substitute on the tale. Carried unanimously. The report was then taken up for consider-

2. That a committee be appointed by this Assembly, whose outly it shall be to endeavor to procure all the legislation required by the exigencies of the case, and direct the transfer of property now held by the two bodies above described, on receiving the opinion of competent counsel that the authority of the new body is perfect.

3. Meantime, till such a result has been reached, that both of the existing organizations should be kept up in the form required by their respective charters.

The above recommendations were unanimously adopted.

mously adopted. The report was then adopted as a whole.

The Assembly then proceeded to designate the locality of the Board of Home Missions. New York, Philadelphia and Chicago were nominated, but the nomination of Chicago was withdrawn by the mover. The vote was found to stand as follows: New York, 306; Philadelphia, 153.

UNVELLING OF THE BUST OF JOHN W. CLAGHORN, ESQ., AT THE NORTHERN HOME.-Last night witnessed an impressive and solemn cene at the Northern Home for Frier Children and Soldiers' Orphan Institute. All the little ones connected with both institutions were assembled in the largest school-room of the Northern Home. The bust is placed in the front Committee Room, under the tablet to the memory of the late Mrs. Claghorn, who, with her husband, J. W. Claghorn, Esq., were among the earliest and best friends of the institution.

The exercises were commenced by the chanting of the Twenty-third Psalm by the children.

Dr. Hutter then made a most impressive prayer. He thanked the Great Father of all for having given to these institutions and the world such a friend as Mr. Claghorn. prayed for all present, especially the chil-dron of these institutions, and that all the exercises of the occasion might redound to the glory of God.

M. J. Mitcheson, Esq., then made a few appropriate remarks. He read the resolution passed by the Board of Trustees, at the meet-ing last October, respecting this beautiful memorial to the departed.

The children then sang the hymn—

"Jesus, lover of my soul." Dr. Hutter then delivered an address, respecting the character and labors of the de-

The next hymn was the one so touchingly sung by the orphans at the time of Mr. Clag-horn's funeral, beginning, "There is a realm where Jesus reigns."

A letter was then read from the family of the deceased, expressing a lively interest in the exercises of the occasion, which were too painful for them to witness. Also, enclosing a check for $500 for the "Chapel Fund," manifestimate their contents of the chapter of the cha check for $500 for the "Chapel Fund," manifesting their earnest support of the work in which Mr. Claghorn so largely shared.

The bust was now unveiled, and two little orphan girls rose and repeated a beautiful ribute to the memory of their beloved benefactor as follows:

factor, as follows:

"This evening is an occasion of more than ordinary interest. The unveiling of that beau tiful and perfect semblance of a dear and well remembered face, so familiar in these apart ments, is a scene full of solemnity. Surely his spirit is still present with us; for, 'are they not all ministering spirits, sent to minister to the heirs of salvation?' Methinks in that bright spirit world, even amid the various and glorious occupations of the blossed, our beloved and departed friend would ain crave the mission of being a guardian angel still to these institutions, which shared so largely in his care while he tarried among us. Per-chance, in company with her, who, on earth, aided him in every good work, and whose vir-tues the overshadowing tablet records, he still lingers amid these halls to watch over and care for the orphans—blessed Heaven-sent messengers of love.

"It seems peculiarly fitting that these exercises should transpire on this day, celebrated all over the country as a day of memorial to he noble dead, thus to remember our more than a father, Mr. Claghorn!"

After the benediction by Dr. Hutter, all the children marched through the rooms to view

Last week they rented a room at No. 226 Walnut street, and announced themselves as "Carter & Norton, miners and shippers of anthracite and bituminous coal." It is alleged that they then purchased goods, and before paying for them, shipped them away. From James, Kent, Santee & Co. they ordered goods valued at $700, but the goods were not sent. From E. Bradford Clarke, at Broad and Walnut streets, groceries valued at $200 were obtained. Last evening, carpet and rugs, valued at $90 50, were bought from S. C. Foulk, No. 19 South Second street. The order was given—"C. O. D." When the articles were delivered the receipt was torn off the bill, and the messenger was sent away. Mr. Foulk then made inquiries among shippers and iron and coal merchants, and nobody seemed to know anything about "Carter & Norton." He then notified the detectives. This morning, when arrested by Detective Levy, the supposed swindlers made some resistance, but they were secured, and were locked up at the Central Station to await a hearing this afternoon.

a hearing this afternoon. ASSAULT WITH A RAZOR.—This morning, about two o'clock, Robt. Scott, colored, behaved disorderly at Eleventh and Lombard streets. Policeman Ryan captured him. Then, it is alleged, he drew a razor and attempted to cut Ryan. Ald. Bonsall committed Scott.

The reason that our bank messengers are so trustworthy is because their ambition, like that of a newspaper reporter, is anchored down to a two-story brick, with a rose-bush under its parlor window. For this reason the integrity of bank clerks and newspaper writers is as unapproachable as the top of a greased telegraph pole.

FEMALE STREET FIGHT.—Last night Mrs. Patterson and Jennie Jenks got into a quarrel at Ninth and Race streets. From words they at Ninth and Race streets. From words they got to blows. They pulled and scratched, and hair and dress material were scattered about nair and dress material were scattered about in profusion. Both belligerents were upset and rolled in the gutter. Then they kicked each other. The affair created considerable excitement, and Lizzie Wright and Ellen Devine. who caue up at the height of the battle, tried the same game. Finally the whole party were arrested by Policeman McLaughlin. This morning Ald. Jones heard the case and sent the prisoners to Moyamensing.

LARCENY OF A BONNET .- Mary Taylor took a fancy to a very handsome bonnet which was in one of the rooms at the Continental Hotel, yesterday afternoon, and appropriated it to her own use. She was followed to Seventeenth and South streets, where she was arrested by Policeman McMahan. She was taken before Alderman Morrow, and was held for a further hearing.

STEALING NEWSPAPERS. - Three boys, named William Adams, James Fay and Alexander Fletcher, were arrested this morning, at Broad and Callowhill streets, for the larceny of newspapers. They had followed up the carriers and collected quite a lot of papers, which were being folded up when the police captured the juveniles. The thieves were committed by Ald. Massey

SOLDIERS ATTACKED.—The Excelsior Reserves, while passing along Broad street, near Passyunk road, were stoned by a crowd of boys. Several members were struck, but not seriously injured. It is said that two or three shots were fired, and this had the effect of scattering the assailants.

CANING A POLICEMAN.—Joseph Cunnington was arrested at Twenty-third and Sansom streets last night for disorderly conduct. After his arrest he used his cane, and Policeman Dolan was severely beaten on the head. This morning Cunnington was sent below by Alderman Morrow.

Policeman Assaulted.—Charles Bogler punched the head of Policeman Larrison, at Third and George streets, last night. He was arrested, and after a hearing before Alderman Eggleton, was held in $1,000 bail for trial.

SLIGHT FIRE.—This morning about ten o'clock, the bakery of Wm. Kilgel, No. 1016 Buttonwood street, was slightly damaged by fire. The flames were extinguished by Lieut. Steinauer and Policeman Winny.

INSULTING.—John F. Clarke was arrested last night, at Seventh and Alaska streets, for insulting females. Ald. Collins sent him to prison.

WIFE BEATERS.-Edward Cassidy, No. 1111 Carpenter street, and Cornelius Hargen, a resident of West Philadelphia, have been sent to prison, on the charge of wife-beating.

WAIT FOR THE WAGON.—Though the celebrated carriage factory of Messrs. Fulton & Walker is worked to the extent of its capacity, these gentlemen have been frequently com-pelled to request their customers to "wait for the wagon." For once they have some stock ahead. At Twentieth and Filbert streets they show a variety of phaetons, coupes and carriages of every kind. That they can possibly fail to suit every customer is an idea not for a moment to be entertained. Their facilities have been increased to a degree that no on nave been increased to a degree that no one need longer "wait for the wagon," or for the landau, the buggy, or the barouche. That they are shipping handsome vehicles to other cities shows pleasant recognition of their ability as builders in distant localities. The staunch and very handsome express wagon belonging to the BULLETIN establishment was made at their factory. Messrs. Fulton & Walker are a pair of progressives. They secure the best skill in the market, irrespective of its effect upon their check book. In matters of taste they are faultless. We never permit a carriage of their make to pass us, without taking off our hat.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.—The anniversary of the Tabernacle Sunday-school will take place at the Academy of Music, on Thursday evening next. Mr. John M. Evans, the Superintendent of the Sunday-school, will conduct the music. The children are to occupy the stage and will sing several pieces Solos will be sung by Mrs. Schimpf and Mr Briscoe. Every preparation has been made to render the occasion a delightful one, and we hope, and have no doubt, that it will be a success. The Satterlee band will be in attend-

CAPE MAX.—A change in the West Jersey Railroad time table, to go in effect to-morrow, gives additional facilities for reaching Cape May. The trains now leave daily at 8. A. M., and 3.15 P. M. Other express trains will be added during the present month, to accommodate the increasing travel.

Suggestive Emplem,—The movement, of late, towards divesting of its former grimness, the interment of those we love, is a move in the proper direction. As an emblem of lamentation the Chinese have always work white. We notice that in Philadelphia, when the Angel of Death has summoned away a member of a household, the fact is as often signaled by means of soft, white cashmere a by sombre crape:

The introduction by the celebrated carriage-builder, Mr. Joseph Beckhaus, of white hearses, has led to the reception of orders for them from all sections of the Union. The handsomest hearses in Washington and San Francisco, as well as numerous other cities, were designed and manufactured at No. 1204 were designed and manufactured at No. 1204. Frankford road, Philadelphia. At a vehicle of this kind, now waiting shipment to a distant city, the by-passer will do well to look. About it there is nothing grim or ghastly. The design is perfection itself. The sides are oval, showing through the thick plate glass a coffin bed margined with slivered rails, and drapory of snow-white cloth bordered with heavy buillon. The back and front are rounding. The glass to fit them is made in Paris to the order of Mr. Beckhaus. The lamps are of gold-lined silver, with glass The lamps are of gold-lined silver, with glass engraven with the emblems of our common mortality. A silver dove is perched upon the top, surrounded by plumes in white and pur-ple. The axles are steel, with French elliptic steel springs, and the bearings, hubs and other mountings are of a pattern peculiar to the builder. This vehicle was made for Schuyler & Armstrong, of this city. A mate to it was last week sent to Elisha Cox, Baltimere. The external surface of both is a pure glistening white. It seems emblematic rather of inno cence than of grief—of purity, rather than poignant sorrow. We repeat, that the idea of Mr. Beckhaus in this direction is one whose adoption cannot become too general.

HOME FOR BLIND WOMEN.-We direct at ention to the Strawberry Festival in aid of he "Home for Blind Women," to be held at Eighteenth and Chestnut, on Thursday and friday of this week, from 4 till 10 P. M. Festival of the season appeals more strongly to our sympathy. Go and see those blind women cane seating chairs, making baskets, knitting and crocheting, for the advertisement says they will be at the festival. The sight will be a stronger appeal than we can write. Donations in cake, cream, ice-cream, berries and flowers will be gratefully received during the Festival.
