PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Eleventh Day's Proceedings. The Assembly met at nine o'clock, as usual, but under the new rule adopted yesterday, passed half an hour only in devotional exerpassed half an hour only in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday afternoon's session were read and approved.

The fellowing report was received from the Delegate from this Assembly to the Reformed Church, and adopted by the Assembly:

The undersigned, a delegate appointed by the General Assembly to attend the sessions of the General Synod of the Reformed arrch, meeting in Philadelphia, in June, 1869, respectfully reports: That he was present at the sessions of that body and received a cordial welcome. The Synod manifested in every way its hearty sympathy with our Church, assuring and ills carnest prayer for our prosperity and of its joy in our unity and peace. To the suggestion of your correspondent that a closer organization would be agreeable to the views and feelings of our entire Church, Synod expressed its decided conviction that the way was not yet prepared, and that each clurch must labor in its own sphere for the glory of our common Lerd.

A communication was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church

Louisville, Ry. May 28, 1870.—Rev. E. F. Hatheld,
D. D., Stoted Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.—Bar Rhother, The "General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States." in session at Louisville, has directed me to forward to you the following official document. It is a true extract from the minutes of Fri-day, Mny 27th:

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence, to whom was referred the overture for remion from the Old School General Assembly. North, of 1369, at its sessions in the City of New York; and, also, the proposition from the United Church, now sitting in Philadelphia, conveyed to us by a special delegation, respectfully report.

school teneral Assembly. Aurun, of 1505, at 16 sessions in the United Church, now sitting in Philadetohia, conveyed to us by a special delegation, respectfully resort:

That the former of these documents is virtually superseded by the latter, because the body by whom it was adopted has since been merged into the United Assembly, from which enamates a new and fresh proposal reflecting the views of the larger constituency. To this proposition, then, "that a committee of five ministers and four elders be appointed by this Assembly to confer with a similar committee of their Assembly, in respect to opening a friendly correspondence between the Northerna and Southern Presbyterian Church," your committee recommend the following answer to be returned:

Whatever obstructions may exist in the way of cordial intercourse between the two bodies above famed are entirely of a public unture and involve grave and fundamental principles. The Southern Presbyterian Church can confuently appeal to all the acts and declarations of all their Assemblies, that no attitude of aggression or hostility also been, or is now, assumed by it towards the Northern Church. And this General Assembly distinctly arows (as it has always believed and declared) that no grievances experienced by us, however real, would justify us in acts of aggression or a spirit of malice-or-retablation, against, any, branch of Christ's visible kingdom. We are prepared, therefore, in advance of all discussion, to exercise towards the General Assembly North, and the churches represented therein, such amity as ideality to our principles could, under any possible circumstances, permit. Under this view the appointment of a Committee of Conference might seem wholly minicessay; but, in order to exhibit before the Christian world the spirit of conciliation and kinduess to the last degree, this Assembly, agreesato appoint a Committee of Conference to meet a similar Committee already appointed by the Northern Assembly, with instructions to the same that the difficulties which official correspondence even, consent to blunt the edge of this, our testimony, concerning the very quature and mission of the Church as a purely spiritual body, among men. The union now consummated between the Old and New School Assemblies North was accomplished by methods which, in our judgment, involve a total surrender of all the great testimonies of the Church for the fundamental doctrines of grace, at a time, when the victory of truth over error hung long in the balance. The United Assembly stands of necessity upon an allowed latitude of interprelation of the standards, and must come at length to embrace nearly all shades of doctrinal bodies. Of those falling testimonies we are now the sole surviving heirs, which we must lift from the dust and bear to the generations after us. It would be a serious comprenise of this sacred trust to enter into public and official fellowship with those repudiating these testimonies, and to do the seryessly upon the ground as stated in the preamble to the overture before us, "that the terms of reunion between the two branches of the Presbyterian Church at the North, now happily consummated, present an auspicious opportunity for the adjustment of such relations." To found a rorrespondence prefessedly upon this idea would be to endorse that which we thoroughly disapprove.

3. Some of the members of our own hedy were, but a short time since, violently and unconstitutionally expelled from the Communion of our branch of the now United Northern Assembly, under ecclesiastical charges which, if true, render them attends for home hefore the Church and the world. It is to the last degree unsatisfactory to construct this oftensive legislation obsolete by the mere fusion of that body with another; or through the operations of a faint declaration which was not intended, originally, to cover this case. This is no more "rule" or "precedent," but a solumn sense of outlawry against what is now an important and considient precedent to any official correspondence on our part.

Rev. Dr. Wm. Adams, of New York, offered the following:

Whereas, This General Assembly, at an early period of its sessions, declared its desire to establish cordial internal relations with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, commonly known as the Southern Assembly, upon the basis of Christian honor, confidence and love; and with a view to the attainment of the end, appointed a committee of five ministers and four elders to confer with a similar committee, if it should be appointed by the Assembly. Assembly, used to the amicable settlement of all existing difficulties and the opening of a friendly correspondence between the Northern and Southern churches; and forthe furtherance of the objects contemplated in the appointment of said Committee, and with a view to remove the obstacles which might prevent the acceptance of our, proposals by our Southern two assemblies which met in New York last year, the effect that "no rule concurrent declarations of the two assemblies which met in New York last year, the effect that "no rule or precedent which does not stand approved by both the bodies shall be of any authority in the remitted body, except so far as such rule or precedent may affect the rights of property founded thereon." And, as a further pledge of our sincerity in this movement, we sent a copy of our resolutions, together with our Christian salinations, to the Assembly at Louisville, by the hands of delegates for that purpose; and whereas, The Southern Assembly, while receiving our delegates with marked courtery, and formally connellying with our proposal for the appointment of a Committee of Conference, has nevertheless accompanied that appointment which we cannot consistently accept, because they involve a virtual pre-indegment of the very difficulties concerning which we invited the conference the proposal for the perfect be postponed, and the Committee be discharged.

very difficulties concerning which we invited the conference; therefore, Restreed. That the further consideration of the subject be postponed, and the Committee be discharged. At the same time we cannot forbear to express our profound regret that a measure designed, and as we believe, eminently fitted, to promote the establishment of peace, and the advancement of our Redeemer's kingdom in every part of our country, has apparently failed to accomplish its object. We carneally hope that the negotiation thus suspended may soon be resumed under happier ampices, and heraby declare our readiness to renew our proposals for a friendly correspondence whenever our Southern brethern shall signify thore the readiness to account in the form and spirit in which it has been offered.

THE CIGAR TRADE.—Antoine Garcia was before Commissioner Phillips this morning. He was visited by Marshals Sears and Schuyer. They found him clandestinely manufactur ing cigars. Marshal Schuyler testified that last Monday Marshal Schuyler testified that last Monday is aw Garcia in Spruce street, above Front. Witness was in company—with Mr. Sears; two men were in the building, making cigars; for this work three tables were provided; Garcia was standing by the third table, but not making them; there were four hundred cigars on the premises, tied in bundles.

Government Detective Sears deposed that he was in the secret service. He saw Garcia on Monday in the fourth story of 132 Spruce street. He and two others were making cigars. He said that he boarded in the inn below. He said that the factory belonged to Antoine Martinas, for whom he was working. He aid that Martinas could be found at No.33 walnut street. There is no such number there. He then said it was 333 Walnut street, Martinas was there. Garcia then said—I told you a lie; these cigars are mine; I am working for myself. He said not only that he had no license but that he had no license, but that he never had; that he had been working for other parties, and only a short time for himself; he said he had no money to pay for a license. All told, the cigars seized numbered over a thousand.

The defendant entered $2,000 bail to answer. The same officers bagged another Spaniard. His-name is Antoine Priana. He also had a hearing before the Commissioner above-named. The friends of the respective parties made up a swarthy group.

Detective Sears again testified that he saw Friana making cigars at 1122 Pine street. He was in front of a desk handling cigars. Seized a basket containing 500, just bought by a Spaniard, named Jehn Byeux. Nine hundred more were on the premises, none of them bearing stamps.

The Commissioner held the party in $1,000 for another hearing to-day. THE LATE CLIFFORD S. WHITE—BAR MEETING.—A large meeting of the members of the bar was held in the Quarter Sessions Court-room this morning, to give expression to their regret at the loss of their fellow-member Clifford S. White.

Hon. Judge Ludlow was called to the chair, and feelingly alluded to the fact that only two weeks ago Mr. White had come before him in

Its bole is as thick as the body of only don't know, but don't know anybody who does. Its bole is as thick as the body of a man. Its altitude is fifty feet. It is believed to be the, largest specimen of the hawthorn in any part of the world. To it the celebrated one described by Burns must have been a pigmy in comparison. The song of Morris will be unavailing in the case of this tree. It east to she theatre renders imperative the removal of the curiosity. The directors propose moval of the curiosity. The directors propose to saw it off to the ground and convert its timber into furniture, to be preserved as relies. They care more for the furniture than for the tree.

There are others who differ with these gen tlemen, and who wish to try the experiment of removing the tree to Fairmount Park. Should it fail to thrive, the trunk could then be placed at the disposal of the donors. That the transplanting would be practicable in win-ter is almost certain. Though it cannot re-main unremoved until that season, there are many who believe in the experiment of removing it now. The tree is but three feet from a deep foundation wall, by which its roots are doubtless matted compactly. Together. The hawthorn is of tardy growth. THE PHILADELPHIA SOCIETY FOR PRO-MOTING ACRICULTURE.—This Soc ety this morning held its regular monthly meeting.

President W. Hayward Drayton occupied the chair. In this connection we might as well state that the rooms are now always open, and that David Herstine, Esq., is in constant attendance during the hours of business.

A large number of agriculturists were present. A gentleman announced the establishment of an extensive cheese factory in Chester county. He stated this as an item of general interest. The cheese is of peculiar excellence, different from anything yet in the market. He looked upon the enterprise as one worthy of especial encouragement.

Mr. Herstine, from a Committee appointed by the Society to visit other Societies, represented that he had visited the sister Society called the Brandywine Farmers' Club, at Coatesville.

The same gentleman reported as to the working of Godfrey's Revolving Mold-board-Plow. Several farmers, upon whose land it had been used, spoke warmly in its favor.

Mr. Alex. Biddle was elected a member.

ROW AT THE ALMSHOUSE.—Last evening, when the inmates of the Almshouse were directed to go to the wards in which they belonged, some of them rebelled and got up quite a fight with the keepers. One of the latter, an old man, was severely beaten. Two of the participants in the assault were arrested. They are named James Oaks and Arthur Brandgon. They are still boarding at the expense of the city, but their quarters have been changed to the Stone Palace in Moyamensing. LARCENY OF MOROCCO SKINS.—Richard Abbot will have a hearing at the Central Sta-tion, this afternoon, upon the charge of the larceny of morocco skins. About ten days ago the establishment of John Frank, on Willow street, below Third, was broken into and robbed of skins valued at $608. On Saturday night Abbot was arrested while attempting to sell some of the stolen skins in Pegg street. The remainder of the stolen property was recovered yesterday. ILLEGAL LIQUOR SELLING.—Mary Dowell, who has a tavern at Thirty-seventh and Lancaster avenue, was before Ald. Randall this morning. Mrs. Troutt, the complainant, testified that her husband is in the habit of getting drunk, and she had duly notified Mary not to sell him any more liquor. Notwith-standing such notification, the defendant con-tinued to furnish the "ardent" to Mr. Troutt.
