Mr. Cooper, of Kansas, presented the following resolutions:

Wheras, The western portion of this Church, in the Providence of God, is especially intrusted with the duty of promoting the education of the Indians, as an essential means of elevating and perpetuating a race now rapidly passing away; and,

Wheras, A proposition is now favorably entertained by the United States Government to maintain a sufficient number of Professorships, to secure Academic and Normal scholarships in an Institution which, by charter, bolongs to the Presbyterian thurch, and which has grown out of her Missionary work.

Resolved, That this Assembly approves the benevolent design of the individuals who are cooperating with the Government to secure this end, and regards with special favor the proposition to establish and maintain in connection with the Indian Department at Washing ton said professorships in Highland University, with a view to educate Indian youth for teachers and mission aries, to be employed in the civilization of their tribes.

It was moved to refer these resolutions to the Committee on Foreign Missions. Lost.

The resolutions were then adopted as presented.

A number of goutlemen connected with or interested in this Seminary appeared before the Committee and were heard at length. From all which your Committee is obliged to state, as we do with deep regart, that the difficulties hereofore existing, and which were supposed to have been amicably and finally adjusted by the action of the Assembly sitting in the First Presbyterian Church, in Fittsburgh, in November last still continue, or have broken out afresh, that by this removal of strife, the interests of the Seminary are greatly perilled, and our common Christianity subject to reproach greatly perilled, and our common Christianity subject to reproach.

In view of the facts that have common the committee recommends the following action, based upon the decision of the Assembly in November last.

Resoired 1, This Assembly selemnity enjoins upon the parties concerned that no further controversy respecting past issues be indulged in, and all should corduly unite in effects to premote the prosperity of the institution in the field of usefulness now open before it.

Resoired 2, Insanuch as the Chair of Theology has been vacated by the resignation of Dr. Lord, and Mr. McCormisk has been released from the fourth installment of his bond, according to the direction of the Assembly, no occasion exists for further controversy in reference to these matters.

Resoired 3, Insanuch as it appears that dissatisfaction has been created by the election of Trustees in April hast, the Assembly enjoins upon the Directors to make such changes as will conform their action to Article III of the agreement, whereby persons not unacceptable to either party shall take the places of the three Trustees whe resigned in accerdance with the direction of the Assembly.

against the action of the Board of Directors in re-electing the members of the Board of Trustoes who were displaced in 1859.

After a careful and prolonged investigation of this matter, your committee is constrained to express its regret that the parties to the agreement signed in Ohieago on the third day of November, 1859, did not arrive at a more distinct understanding of the terms of the agreement at the time. It is apparent they each put a very different interpretation upon the language of the contract, and thus, so far new each nudge, without any secret reservations or intention to differ the contract, and thus, so far new each nudge, without any secret reservations or intention to differ the contracting parties, without funds and each ignorant of each other views, put two different interpretations, must necessarily fail to give practical satisfaction. In this view of the case, therefore, it cannot properly be said that any default in complying with the allegations of the acture of a meral violation of the compact. Under such circumstances, and in view of allthe facts which have come before us, your committee recommend the following resolutions:

THE COURTS. The Tilman Homicide.

OYER AND TERMINER—Judges Allison and Parson.—The case of William Atkinson, col-ored, charged with the murder of John Tilored, charged with the intract of John In-man on the 10th of February last, was com-menced yesterday afternoon, a jury being completed from the second special venire. On the part of the Commonwealth it was alleged that Atkinson and a girl named Annie Miller were intimate, and on the night she went to a party, and leaving it was accompanied by Tilman and two girls. The whole party went to Annie Miller's room, and Tilman was sleeping with his head resting on a table, when Atkinson came in, greatly ex-cited. He had a knife in his hand. He ordered the females to leave the room, and then, taking a pitcher, threw it at Tilman, striking him on the head, fracturing his skull, and causing death. He afterwards said he intended to strike Annie Miller, and not Tilman. Annie Miller was on the witness stand yesterday afternoon and all of this morning, undergoing a most rigid examination in chief and cross. Several times during the examination she burst into tears, and finally brokedown completely, falling into a violant hypersection. lered the females to leave the room, and then down completely, falling into a violent hysterical fit. The scene caused some confusion and excitement in court. She was carried out and the proper remedies applied.

The case is still on trial.
