The change is not attogether anexpected, though it was scarcely expected that the deposits would show any material tailing off. The fin provement in the loans is entirely due to the speculative movement in local stocks.!

Loans are quiet to-day, and rates unchanged.
Gold was quiet, and the range of sales was between 1132 and 114, opening and closing at 1132.

Government-bonds were fairly steady, with a slight appeared tendency in the new bonds.

On the following day the attack was continued. All the Jews had fled from the neighborhood. The Jewish telegram referred to described the fury of the populace as horrible in the extreme, and implored that succorshould be immediately sent them, as they were houseless wanderers.

[From the New York Herald of to-day.] It will be seen by our Washington telegrams that the Ways and Means Committee have reported the new Funding bill. Its general provisions have been already anticipated. The new loan is to be $1,000,000,000, in the form of a thirty-year bond, at four por cont., to be exchanged at par for the five-twenties, and to be sold at not less than par in gold. In the work of transforming the debt, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to sell the surplus gold of the Treasury to cancel the outstanding debt, while the bonds already in the special and sinking funds are to be destroyed. The bill mabeen ordered to be printed. The compulsory section affecting the national banks has been left out. In the street it is thought that the Senate will insist upon the original bill, and that, in the failure of the two Houses to agree, the whole funding question will fall to the ground for this session of Cougress.

Some of the stock houses reported a better inquiry for money, and new loans were made, in some instances as high as five per cent. The prevailing rates were four to five on stocks, and three to four on governments. It is evident, from the character of the bank statement on Saturday, that no further remittances from the conatry may be looked for, especially as a better demand is re-Saturday, that no turther remittances from the constry may be looked for, especially as a better demand is reported in the Western money centres. Commercial puper was unchanged.

The foreign exchange market was only moderately active at a reduction of an eighth per cent. in rates by the leading bankers. There is a fair supply of bond bills on the market but few garware all bills.
