SPEECH OF RED CLOUD.

The Great Spirit has raised me this way; He mpressed with the importance of the more announced to the chiefs that the department of the missioner announced to the chiefs that the department of the missioner announced to the chiefs that the department of the missioner announced to the chiefs that the department of the missioner announced to the chiefs that the department of the missioner announced to the chiefs that the department of the department all the finery they possess, and were evidently meat concerning them. He explained to them tha when our people grew so fast as to crowd upon the plains we wanted to find a place for heSioux to live, where they would not be distuned, and for that reason our great soldier. teeral Sherman, made the treaty to give them thecountry which they now have, and to take outown people out of it, so they might live hee alone. Lately some of our young people ranted to go there again to look for the okin the hills, but the President refused to et hem go, saying that it had been promised to the Sioux, and they must keep it. They may be sure, therefore, that the President will do what he

it. They may be sure, therefore, that the President will do what he said and they shall not be disturbed while they are paceable in that territory. We have asked Conress to give us plenty of money to continu feeding them, so that their rations may be are. We expect them to do that. So, therefore, we feel that that part of their request will e granted. We shall send them also the good which we have promised, so that they and heir wives and children shall have clothes to war. They asked for powder and lead. I wanto tell you just what we feel about that. They hite people who live on the frontier have been frightened. They say that Red Cloud and is people have been threatening them. They afraid they will hurt the people along the fintier. We want Red Cloud and his people taay to us here, before they go away, that they ill never do so, and that they wilk keep peacewith all our people who are there. U Haslam & Co.
