MEDICAL SOCIETY OF THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA. Third Day.

The Society met at 10 A. M., and was called to order by the President. Dr. James S. Carpenter, of the Schuylkill County Medical Society...

Dr. Hiram Corson offered the following preamble and resolution: Whereas, the question of admitting women to membership in this Society...

Dr. Joseph Parrish, of the Samaritanum, offered the following substitute for Dr. Atlee's preamble and resolution: Whereas, the College of Physicians of Philadelphia and the American Medical Association...

Dr. Cummings moved to lay Dr. Parrish's substitute on the table. Lost. The question being referred to the yeas and nays...

Dr. Maybury and Dr. Neiburg called for the yeas and nays on the question, which, on being called for, followed as follows: Yeas, 67; nays, 68. So the substitute was agreed to.

Dr. Atlee's resolution consequently falls, and Dr. Parrish's substitute, as above, remains before the meeting. Dr. Whiteman offered the following amendment: Resolved, That the resolution of Dr. Parrish...

Dr. Hiram Corson appealed to the opponents of the medical education of women not to evade this question for another year by referring the matter back to the county societies.

Dr. Parrish thought that the annals of the amendment was to give more time for the consideration of the question...

The amendment was lost. The question again returned on Dr. Parrish's substitute. Professor Gross understood the question now before the house as follows: Yeas, 67; nays, 68.
