The present location of this mission is found to be too small to accommodate the Sabbath school, and steps are about being taken to secure a larger place to meet in. When this shall be consummated a still larger increase of children and adults may be confidently anticipated.

A social meeting of the member of the Sixth Presbyterian Church, Sprace street, below Sixth, was held on Taesday evening last. The Sabbath school room, which has been newly fitted up and beautifully ornamented with flowers, evergreens, &c., was filled with the members and their friends. Addresses were delivered by Rev. B. L. Agnew and the pastor, Rev. J. P. Conkey, after which a bountiful collation of fruits, cakes, &c., was provided, followed by social conversation and music. The music was under the leadership of Mr. Frank Gilder, now organist of the church, and was of the highest character. The whole affair was well-conceived and admirably carried out, and must ever remain as a bright spot in the memories of all who participated. The church edifice has been recently, reup-LEGAL NOTICES.
