SPOTTED TAIL.—A Spotted Tail turned his face westward at 7 o'clock this morning. In other words, he this morning started for his home. Spotted made his mark. He left it upon the pillow in the room of the Continental Hotel, which he slept during his stay in this city of Fraternal Love.

THE GENTLE SAVAGES.—After the hour at which we yesterday went to the house, paid a visit to the Union League house. The next visited the United States Mint. At the ingots of gold in the latter institution old Spotty looked with a jaundiced eye. Spotty is not a jaundiced eye. Red Cloud doesn't know would hardly pay our Spotty friend to sit up at night to learn Spotty looked at the spot. Spotty is not a jaundiced eye. CHILD MISSING.—A little orphan girl, named Annie McNeill, who resides with her uncle, Martin McNeill, No. 505 Spruce street, has been missing from her home since Thursday last. She was last seen in Slippen street market, to which place she had been sent by her mother for the purpose of getting some bread.

FALSE PRETENSES.—David Adler, residing at New Market and Brown streets, was arrested yesterday, on the charge of obtaining, by false representations, a lot of boxes from J. B. Smith & Co. He will have a hearing at the Central Station.

LAMP EXPLOSION.—A coal oil lamp exploded in a house, No. 1044 South street, about half-past ten o'clock last night. The flames caused by the exploding oil were extinguished by Sergeant O'Neill before any serious damage had been done.

STREET WALKERS.—The police made another raid on the street-walkers last night, and arrested twelve in the section of the city between Eighth, Twelfth, Spruce and Walnut streets.

WHISKY.—The five hundred barrels of whisky seized yesterday at Messrs. H. Craig & Co.'s bonded warehouse were not the property of that firm, but were placed there on storage by another firm.

THE FIRE-CRACKER NUSSANCE.—In accordance with the instructions of Mayor Fox two boys were arrested yesterday for setting off fire-crackers in the streets.

TESTIMONIAL.—On Thursday evening, the 10th of June, a testimonial benefit will be given at the Grand Opera House, in aid of the friends, influential gentlemen of this city. The comedy, 'The School for Scandal,' will be presented with a first-rate cast, including Miss Josephine and Lady Teazle.

LOCAL CHRONICLE.—Mr. Leo L. Lloyd, of Liberia, is still in the city, and has given several addresses to assemblies of Philadelphia. He first spoke at Calvary Baptist Church, in this city. He next addressed an immense audience at the Grand Opera House, and lectured also to the Young Men's Christian Association, and at the Assembly Buildings, corner Tenth and Chestnut streets.

SPOTTED TAIL.—His confederates left the city by early train this morning. Spotty "wants to get home." What he now hankers after are his wives and a piece of broiled buffalo. What he also pines for is a roll on the open prairie. Like a mule, the Injun glories in a roll.

THE MUNICIPAL HOSPITAL.—From the Health Officer we have the following report of the Municipal Hospital for the present week:

Discharged, 29; other diseases, 6; Died, relapsing fever, 11; other diseases, 4; Remaining this date, 131; Headed by JOHN B. ADDICKS, Health Officer.

SUDDEN DEATH IN A POLICE STATION.—Yesterday John Daryl, Thomas Herring and Sarah Parrish were arrested on a warrant charged with disorderly conduct and breach of the peace. They were taken before Alderman Smith and held in $300 bail. Not having bail, they were sent to the Eleventh District Police Station. Lieut. Pritchard sent out for bail the woman, but it would not be procured, and she was locked up. This morning at seven o'clock she came out of the cell and was apparently well. She sat down in a chair, and in a few minutes she died. The deceased was 38 years of age, and resided on Hazard street, near the Plank road.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—An attempt was made to enter a house at Ninth and South streets, last night. Operations were commenced on a back-sluiter. The noise aroused the occupants of the house, who fired a pistol at the thief. The thief attracted the attention of Sergeant Fox and Policemen Keegan, and they captured a fellow as he ran out of the alley. The prisoner gave his name as William Sullivan. At the Central Station this afternoon, he will be arraigned on the charge of attempted burglary.

JUVENILE ROBBER.—John Childress, four years of age, has been engaged on a schooner belonging to Captain Hagan. The vessel is from Richmond, Va., and for several days has been lying at Greenwich Point. Yesterday Childress suddenly disappeared. About the same time the captain missed $250. He sent word to Lieut. Smith, of the Seventeenth District Police. Policemen were thereupon sent out to search for the runaway. The entire "Neck" was searched, and finally the young thief was captured at Second street and Stone House lane. The stolen money was found in his possession. He will have a hearing at the Central Station this afternoon.

GOING TO EUROPE.—The Baptist denomination of our city are about to suffer a temporary loss by the absence in Europe and the Holy Land of George Danz, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Broad and Arch streets. He has long contemplated this tour, but deferred it on account of pastoral duties. At a meeting of the church, last evening, he was granted a leave of absence for one year, his salary to be continued.

A DISHONEST BOARDER.—Henry Shaffer boarded four or five days at a house on Webster street, near Twenty-first. On Friday he left the house in company with a gold watch belonging to the boarding-housekeeper. Lieutenant Henderson was notified and yesterday Shaffer was captured at the Baltimore Central Station. He had the watch in his possession at the time. He was committed by Ald. Dallas.

SUSPICIOUS.—Pat Welsh and Thomas McQuaid were arrested last night at Seventh and Shippen streets. Welsh had in his possession a pair of shoes. As the shoes stood in the neighborhood had just been robbed, it is thought that the prisoners had something to do with the matter. They were taken to the Central Station for a hearing.

CITY NOTICES.

THE SEASON OF FLOWERS.—From the earliest times the beauty of natural flowers has been appreciated by prince and peasant, and celebrated in song. "The time of the singing of birds" has engaged the pen of the poet, and the season of birds and flowers may be said to bring to us the most cherished symbol of perennial bliss. That season is upon us now, with its sunshine and its showers, and its best mercantile exhibitions are our leading millinery and dress-makers, Messrs. Thos. Kennedy & Brothers, No. 729 Chestnut street. What May and June have done for the face of nature these gentlemen have accomplished for the heads and faces of our devoted wives and lovely daughters by their magnificent importations of genuine French flowers. The latter are so true to nature and so artistically grouped that it is unfeignedly conceded that the very perfume of a conservatory whenever we pass on or enter their splendid store. The fact is Messrs. Kennedy & Brothers determined years ago to establish the leading French Flower Emporium in America, and they succeeded so well in this that to-day there are few ladies of taste who ever think of employing any other flowers for head and parlor decorations than Kennedy's. Hundreds of French artists must necessarily be employed all the year round in manufacturing the enormous supplies of these beautiful goods that are annually sold by this firm, both to consumers in this city and to the merchants of New York, Boston, Chicago, and other cities throughout the Union. Just now Messrs. Kennedy & Brothers are complimenting their numerous lady patrons by a sweeping reduction in the prices of their magnificent stock of flowers and trimmed hats and bonnets, in which their assortment is unparalleled in the country, both for elegance and variety, and that they are so goodly that it is unfeignedly conceded that these gentlemen monopolize in the department of fashionable millinery. Their present prices are amazingly low, and their crowds of customers seem to appreciate this fact.
