The Beethoven Symphony seems to have qualities of the good players. The same thing The Beethoven Symphony seems to nave been a complete failure, owing partly to the insufficient rehearsals, but, I think, more to the accoustic faults of the building. INSURANCE. The Liverpool & London and Globe Ins. Co. Assets Gold, $ 18,400,000 which he wrote, or rather dictated, to Diodati, January 2, 1638, he said: "Alas! your dear friend and servant Galileo has been for the last month hopelessly blind; so that this heaven, this earth, this universe, which I by my marvelous discoveries and clear demonstrations had enlarged a hundred thousand times beyond the belief of the wise men of bygone ages, henceforward for me is shrunk into such a small space as is filled by my own bodily sensations." In this cry of anguish is found the only instance of boasting that Galileo's career affords. He was one of the heroes as well as one of the martyrs of science, and he thought little of himself until everything external was hidden from him. The author of this little book has done good service in giving to the world so good an account of one of the few yery great men of the world.
