He said that the evening before he went away." During the summer of 1862 I commanded the defences of Washington, and had almost aily intercourse with the President, who was kind enough to enter into familiar conversation th. me on many occasions, which I shall ways remember with pride and pleasure.

On one occasion, at the request of the officers of the Seventy-first New York Volunteers (which constituted a part of my command), the President reviewed that regiment in its camp near Tenallytown.
