If this report is correct, and of its truth we have no doubt whatever, the young men who committed the outrages must forfeit the title of gentlemen; and the public must admit that the claim of the Academy-to be an institution where men are refined into a polished and elegant aristocracy is altogether unreasonable and false. But there is something more to be done than the simple denial of the right of these boors to the respect of decent men. This persecution must be stopped, and the authors of it must be punished. SATURDAY, June 18, 1870.—The local money market is fairly active to-day, and both call loans and discounts are in some demand. The active speculation at the Stock Board this morning gives temporary employment to capital, but the only result upon the loan market is a shifting of loans, resulting from a change of investment. A healthy change in the loan market can only proceed from an expansion of business, and this is not probable during the continuance of the dog days. Business men are beginning to make their arrangements for a summer vacation in the mountains or at the fashionable water-in realization. The magnitude of the tradesstrike in France involves the cotton factors of Lille, Tours and St. Etienne, where the finer and inferior grades of cotton are manufactured. The batters, mathematical instrument-makers and engravers have in some instances participated in the movement, but the principal strength of the strikers manifests itself among the workers in iron and other heavy metal.

Many of the iron founders of France and Germany, for the manufacture of cast and hollow-ware and parts of machinery, have been compelled to close on account of the desertion of the workingmen and other war. ENGLAND. Prospects of Spain in the Cuban Contest.—The Times on the Subject.

LONDON, June 18, 2 P. M.—The Times, in an article on the present situation in Cuba, considers that Spain has forever let slip her footbold upon the Island, and that it cannot be said to be in the possession of that country or under the control of the Spanish arms.

The Times supports this position by the assertion of Prim himself, who hesitates not to declare that Spain has irrecoverably best (two declare that Spain has irrecoverably lost Cuoa.

The Times thinks that in this disastrous condition of affairs it would be an act of barity upon the part of the Gov he United States to step in and put an end to the terrible and sanguinary struggle by inter-posing a strong hand between the belligerents and annexing the island.

In this connection the Times gives it as its earnest conviction that the difficulty of ceding Cuba and the slaves to the Cubans themselves is not to be solved by postponing the question to some future day, and the adjournment of
