MONTBLY COMMITT MONTHLY COMMITTEE MARINE BULLETIN. The Drift of Public Opinion in the New PORT OF PHILADELPHIA-JUNE Dominion—Speedy Peaceful Separa-tion from England Deemed Necessary.

[From the London (Ont.) Free Press, June 17.] AUN BISES, 4 34 | SUN BETS, 7 26 | HIGH WATER, 8 10 from the London (Ont.) Free Press, June 17.]

It is not an unimportant indication of the tendency of public opinion that, while the Journal de Quebec has hoisted the flag of independence of Canada, the Toronto Globe expresses itself in tones of unmistakable dissatisfaction at the English attitude toward Canada. No doubt the late Fenian raid has done much to excite prevailing feeling, but that affair is only incident to Sour position. The radical difficulty is not the Fenian raid, but the condition of affairs under which it becomes possible. If the United States knew that a descent on Canada would be resented as promptly and efficiently as was the insult to the British flag when carried on the Trent, General Grant would have been a good deal more active with his proclamation. But it is patent to the Brig Planter, from Potto Ricc., for orders.
