THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATING CONVENTIONS.

The Congressional, Legislative and Ward Nominations.

The election of delegates to the different nominating conventions of the Democratic party was held last evening. Under the new rules the conventions for the nomination of rules the conventions for the nomination of candidates for city and county offices are composed of three delegates from each Ward, chosen by "Ward. Delegate Conventions," and they do not meet until to-morrow. The difficulties heretofore experienced in organizing will also be avoided, as the presiding officer is now designated by the Democratic officer is now designated by the Democratio City Executive Committee. The places of meeting of the conventions and the presiding officer are as follows:

Sheriff Convention, Washington Hall, Eighth and Spring Garden streets—President, Christopher Snyder, Twenty-third Ward. Register of Wills Convention, Assembly Register of Wills Convention, assembly Building, Tenth and Chestnut streets—Presi dent, Thomas A. Faby, Eleventh Ward.
Clerk of Orphans' Court Convention, Supreme Court room—President, S. Gross Fry, Receiver of Taxes Convention, City Assembly Rooms, S. W. corner Ninth and Spring Garden streets—President, E. G. Woodward, First Ward.

City Commissioner Convention, Concordia Hall, Callowhill street, below Fifth—Presi-dent, James S. McGuffin, Tenth Ward. — Judicial Convention, Courty Court House— President, Isaac Leech, Twenty-seventh The Congressional, Legislative and Ward

Conventions met this morning at 10 o'clock, at places designated by the City Executive Committee. The results of these conventions

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTIONS.

First District. The First District Democratic Congressional Convention convened in the Old Court House

Convention convened in the Old Court House at 10 o'clock this morning. The temporary chairman appointed by the City Executive Company presided, James H. Gaw and Foivard Degan were temporary secretaries.

After disposing of two contested seats by admitting both the regularly elected delegate and contestant, the Convention organized permanently by electing George W. Nickel, of the Third Ward, President.

These Vice-Presidents were also chosen: James Moran, Second Ward; James J. Davitt. Third: Bernard Dovle. Fourth: James

Devitt, Third; Bernard Doyle, Fourth; James J. McSbane, Fifth; John Daly, Sixth, and William McDevitt, Eleventh.

The temporary Secretaries were continued, and Wm. Kane was elected Treasurer and Messrs. Carson and Fitzpatrick doorkeepers. Hon. Samuel J. Randall was then nominated as the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First District by acclamation.

After the adoption of a series of resolutions complimentary to Mr. Randall, and endorsing his Congressional career, that gentleman was invited by a committee appointed by the chair to address the Convention. Mr. Randall soon after appeared, and after expressing his thanks for the renewed confidence reposed in him by the people of the First District, he retired, and the Convention adjourned.

The Second Congressional District. The Democratic Convention for nominating a candidate for Congress in the Second Congressional District assembled at the Assembly Buildings, Tenth and Chestnut streets, this morning at ten o'clock. The intense heat of the day and the crowded state of the room in which the convention was held, rendered it a very undesirable place to be in. The convention organized by the selection of James J Breed, of the Eighth Ward, as Temporary Chairman, and Francis Barmar as Secretary. The first business in order was the reception of credentials.

The convention then effected a permanent organization by the election of Capi ward W. Powers as President, and Fergus McCusker and John Crugan as Vice Presi-dents, and James H. Monaghan as Secre-

Karies.

Nominations for a Democratic candidate for Congress in the Second District were then made, when the following names were placed in nomination: Charles W. Brooke, Esq., Theodore Cuyler, Esq., Henry M. Phillips, Erq., and Hon. Thos. B. Florence.

The convention then took a recess of half an hour to prepare an alphabetical list of dele an nourro prepare an apphabetical list of delegates prior to proceeding with a ballot.

On the reassembling of the Convention a ballot was taken with the following result, the name of Hon. Thomas B. Florence being withdrawn:

confusion took place.

During the excitement which ensued the delegates rose to their feet, and the noise and disturbance was deafening. The scene pre-sented such a threatening aspect that a body sented such a threatening aspect that a body of police who were waiting in the street were called in, and with great difficulty order wapartially restored. Endeavors were then made to get another ballot, the Brooke delegates insisting on it and the Cuyler men strenuously objecting.

At length another ballot was proceeded with.

Third Congressional Convention. The delegates to the Third Congressional Convention were called to order atten o'clock this morning, at the Black Horse Hotel. Frankford road, by Chas. O. O'Farrell, Chair man of the Executive Committee of the Nine

On motion, Dr. H. F. Sellers and George W.

On motion, Dr. H. F. Sellers and George W. Fisher were chosen temporary Secretaries.

The credentials of the delegates were then presented, and the proper list being made out a permanent organization was effected by the election of the following officers:

President, Dr. Herman Vogelbach. Secretaries, Dr. H. F. Sellers and Geo. W. Fisher.

On motion, the Chair appointed Messrs George Mintzer, of the Twelfth Ward, S. Morgan Ramsey, Thirteenth Ward, Frank Quinn, Sixteenth Ward, John S. Riehl, Eighteeuth Ward, and Joseph A. Taylor, Nineteenth Ward, and Joseph A. Taylor, Nineteenth Ward, the Committee on Resolutions. A recess was then taken to allow the Secre taries to make out an alphabetical list of delegates.

On reassembling, the Convention proceeded to nominate a candidate to represent the Third District Democrats in Congress. On motion, Dr. John Mosfet was nominated by acclamation.

The Committee on Resolutions, through Mr. Mintzer, then reported the following:

The Democrats of the Third District, in convention, reassert the following time-honored principles: That the Federal Government is one of limited power, derived solely from the Constitution; that grants of power made therein ought to be strictly construed by all dependants and agents of the Government, and that it is inexpedient and dangerous to exercise doubtful power; that the Constitution is founded on fundamental principles of entire and absolute equality of all the States in the Union.

Resolved, That the Internal Revenue sys-The Committee on Resolutions, through Mr.

able in its oppression and action; that it should be immediately remodeled; that its annoyances of stamps, licenses, tax uponsales and incomes should be abolished; that taxes should be collected by State and county officers, and that the multiplication of officers is unnecessary except to eat out the resources of the tax-payer, and we advocate a thorough reform in that particular. Resolved, That we advocate a tariff that will impose the least burden upon the people, and yet promote and encourage the great industrial interests of our district.

Resolved, That a return to a specie-paying—basis is essential to the interests of the people basis is essential to the interests of the people and the prosperity of the nation.

Resolved, That we regard the act passed by Congress to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment unconstitutional, unjust and oppressive, and the bill (which may be justly called a bill to prevent naturalization) a direct stab at the foreign population. That land monopoly is one of the great evils of our country and against the spirit of our institutions; that the whole of our public lands ought to be held as a sacred trust to secure homes for actual settlers; and we denounce the action of the bogus member of our district in voting large grants of land to the mammoth railroad corporation.

Resolved, That we sympathize with the efforts of all people struggling for self-government, and denounce the truckling of the Federal Administration to Great Britain and Spain.

Resolved, That in Hon. John Moffet we have a faithful exponent of the above principles, possessing both in public and private life a spotless reputation; his renomination for the position to which he was justly and fairly elected two years ago is a just recognition of his worth, his virtues and his patriotism. A discussion followed on the 5th resolution, in reference to land grants. The opposition to the same was based on the grounds that the railroad companies would use their capital in defeating the Democratic candidates. After an interchange of views the resolution was allowed to remain, and the series were adopted unanimously. Dr. Moffet was then invited into the room. He hanks for the honor conferred upon him, and promised to do everything in his power to aid in the success of the Democratic party. The convention then adjourned, with cheers for the candidate.

Fourth Congressional District. The delegates to this Convention met punctually at 10 o'clock, in the house of James Krekler, Ridge avenue and Broad street, and it was temporarily organized by the appoint ment of Col. Edmund Randall as Chairman, and Robert C. Howell as Secretary.

The first business transacted was the reception of credentials, which occupied consider able time. There were no cases of contest Nominations were then made for Presid Nominations were then hade for resident of the Convention, as follows:—Col. Edward Randall, Thomas McCullough, Benjamin P. Wright and Dominick Torpy. The two latter gentlemen withdrew, and Mr. McCullough stating that, for the sake of harmony, he would also gladly withdraw, there was much confusion, and his friends would not consent confusion, and his friends would not consent to his withdrawal, and the election proceeded by ballot.

The result of it was : Randall 37 votes, Mc-Cullough 27 votes.

Col. Edward Randall was declared elected, and, on motion, the election was made unani-

Robert C. Howell and William Bennett were elected Secretaries. Frederick Kuschman was, on motion elected Doorkeeper.
The convention being thus regularly organized, the Chair stated that it was ready for Mr. George F. B. Collins moved to adjourn, which gave rise to vociferous yelling, stamping of feet, and a scene of confusion approach ing Pandemonium.

Mr. Charles M. Wall arose, and in a state of apparent nervous excitement said he desired to amend the motion, so that a committee be appointed to whom all matters might be re

This was ruled out of order by the Chair and an effort was made to take up the question on the motion of Mr. Collins, but it was impossible to do so because of the irregu-larity and confusion, which exceeded any-thing we have yet witnessed. The President, with the view of making himself heard, seized a heavy willip from the hands of one of the delegates, and, converting it into a gavel, a vigorous rapping on the table was commenced.

Mr. Benjamin F. Wright, one of the building inspectors, endeavored to get the delegates seated, but as no attention was paid his efforts to restore order, he walked out, saying "he would not sit in a rowdy convention." Motions were made to proceed to make nominations, but none of them being in order, until the question of adjournment was settled, the noise appeared to increase, and amidst bad feeling and excitement the question was taken on the adjournment and de-clared carried. Many of the delegates pro-tested in earnest terms, but Col. Randall seiztested in earnest terms, but Col. Randall seizing the credentials hastily from the table, rushed down stairs, followed by many delegates. One delegate shouted: "These proceedings insure the defeat of the Democracy in the Fourth District!" and in this most of those present concurred.

Col. Wm. B. Thomas and friends occupied a room in an adjoining tavern for the better approximation of matters, and with this strom in an adjoining tayen for the better superintendence, of matters, and with this proceeding the delegates were much dis-gusted. Demoralization incurable exists in the Democratic ranks of the Fourth District. THIRD SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

The Convention met at ten o'clock this morning, at Ladner's Military Hall, Third street below Green, and was called to order by John Apple, Esq., the temporary chairman appointed by the Executive Committee. On motion, Messrs. John Hooplet and William Ladner were elected temporary secretaries, and Messrs. James H. Murray and Thomas Dooley, doorkeepers. Ald. W. W. Dougherty was unanimously elected treasurer of the Convertion.

The convention then proceeded to vote for a permanent chairman, Messrs. John O'Grady and Wm. A. Wright being nominated. On motion the friends of Mr. O'Grady were requested by the temporary chairman to take one side of the room and those of Mr. Wright the other, when it was plainly evident that Mr. O'Grady was elected.

Messrs. Joseph S. Hibbs and John Woodhouse were unanimously elected vice president.

On motion, the temporary secretaries were manimously elected permanent secretaries.
On motion, James Tozier was elected mes-credentials of the delegates were then called for, each delegate, as he presented his credentials, depositing twenty-five cents with the Treasurer for the payment of the doorkeeper and messenger.

On motion the Convention then took a recess for fifteen minutes to allow the Secretaries to prepare an alphabetical list of dele-

On the reassembling of the Convention the roll was called and contests announced in the righth division of the Fifth Ward, the sixth and eighth divisions of the Sixth Ward, he fifth and seventh divisions of the Eleventh Ward, the first and sixth divisions of the Twelfth Ward; and the first, sixth, seventh and ninth divisions of the Seventeenth Ward. Eleven contests in all. According to the rules the Chairman appointed a committee of five to act on each contested seat, which committees, after retring and hearing the contestants, presented their reports.

The Convention then proceeded to nominate a candidate for Senator from the Third Senatorial District. The following gentlemen were nominated:

David A. Nagle and Samuel Daily.
On motion the nominations were closed, and the chairman appointed Messrs, William H. Wright and John Clancey tellers.
The Convention then proceeded to ballot for a candidate with the following result: David A. Nagle.

THE ROCCA SIDEWALK. Brick pavements are constantly getting out of order, and need are constantly getting out of order, and need repairing almost every year. In front of public institutions and many business houses, granite is fast taking the place of bricks, but that material is rather expensive. The roccupavement, made by Messrs, Bandman, Hollmann & Co., proprietors of the New York Stone Works, which has been extensively land in New York during the past year, is now being put down on the south side of Green street, west of Twenty-third, in this city. It is made of cement of a peculiar composition, mixed with pure silex, and is laid down while in a pulpy state. In a few hours down while in a pulpy state.
