FUN AND FORTUNE.-About twice a year the unclaimed packages in our express com-pantes are so d at auction. They are supposed not previously to have been opened. The Messrs. Martin Brothers, Auctioneers, yesterday sold 1.500 packages accumulated in the office of the Central Express Co. As usual, the sale drew a good gathering of people. The bidding, however, wasn't as spirited as we have seen in times gone by. Two years ago we saw people draw valuable prizes in this auction lottery. A negro porter got a camel's hair shawl, and an errand boy, for less than $2, found impulse the presserved of a gold watch found himself the possessor of a gold watch. In the present case the bidding was done shyly. Our reporter went in for a dollar's worth of luck. For that sum he became the worth of aick. For that sum he became the owner of a cigar box. The box looked as if filled with regalias. Its actual contents were stencil plates. They bore the name of J. J. Scroggs. If Scroggs wants em he can have

'em.
The goods were sold in the morning and delivered-in-the-afternoon.—The delivery wasmade in the basement of the premises. Nearly everybody opened his package as soon as put into his hand. There were few ladies among the buyers. One of them we have regularly seen at corresponding sales for at least ten years past. She is a fine woman, with figure rears past. She is a nine woman, with figure tending to embonpoint. For three dollars she secured a baby's dress. As she never was married the article will probably be presented to some one who is. One man got a nice dozen of spoons for sixty cents, while a third got a marking punch in the name of a quack doctor who either is or ought to be in Moya-mensing Prison. A nice old gentleman with a bald head got for five dollars a lady's wig, worth thirty dollars. Having a bald aunt, the auctioneer's salesman magnanimously took i

Many of the packages thus sold are refused by the persons to whom they are addressed. Comparatively few fail to reach the locality of their destination. The accumulation is the of their destination. The accumulation is the greatest during the month of April. The April fool game is common in the country. Of June fools we yesterday saw a good many. An imitation rosewood box was run up to $12 by one of this pattern. It was entirely empty. It was addressed to a lady up town. Many of the packages contained patent medicine. A box, for which a foolish fellow paid $18 in the expectation that it contained a watch, had in it only a new-fangled syringe. The sale was conducted alternately by the Brothers Martin. In both gentlemen runs a vein of quiet humor. While they congratulated those who were lucky, they sympathized with those who were stuck. With a clerical looking gentleman who gave eight dollars for a book of indecent pictures they joined in lamentaof indecent pictures they joined in lamentation. In this case you pay your money without having your choice. This was the case with a chap who got a pair of spectacles of such magnifying power that he undertook to kick, on the opposite side of the basement, a dog that looked as if just preparing to take a taste of his leg. The bidding was short and to the point. One man who had deposited fifty dollars previous to the sale got almost as many packages as he spent of dollars. With the exception of a bottle of hair dye and a microscope worth about five dollars, he abandoned as worthless the rest of his purchases. A wiry little woman with a face like an adze got a handsome hawl for $1 69. A well-known citizen, who fears dogs as he fears well-known citizen who fears dogs as he fear hydrophobia, paid $8 50 for a box of powder to cure the mange. The powder still lies where he indignantly threw it in the centre where be indignantly threw it—in the centre of Sansom street.

A firkin of butter brought 30 cents a pound. It had degenerated into part, grease. It was bought by a woman who looked as if she kept boarders. Her frock was rich in the material of which people make soap. A set of false teeth fell to a gentleman who could bite cork screws; steel pens or gimlets—the style of teeth that think no more of going through a tough steak than a bullet thinks of passing through a cheese.

Take it altogether, and we incline to the opinion that buying unclaimed express packages at auction is a rather slow way of making money. While we enjoy the humor of the thing, we don't care to dip into it very deenly.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.—The proposition to have a parade of the First Division National Guards on Monday, the anniversary of American Independence, failed in consequence of rican independence, failed in consequence of the refusal of City Councils to make an appro-priation to pay the necessary expenses. Therefore there will be no public demonstra-tion in celebration of the day. Of course there will be a universal suspension of busi-ness. The Post Office will close at 10.30 A. M. The carriers will make the 7.30 A. M. delivery and the 4 P. M. collection.

The juveniles will indulge in their usual habit of firing crackers, torpedoes, &c., notwithstanding the strict orders to the police to prevent such doings. The proclamation of the Mayor on this subject is as follows:

"July 1, 1870.—Notice is hereby given that the police force have been instructed to rigidly enforce the ordinance prohibiting the firing of crackers, souths. Chaever, rockets and other fireworks, and the firing of orgus, pistols and other fireworks, and the firing of thist.

"Parents, guardians and others, the heads of funilies, are cornestly requested to co-operate with the officers in this respect, so that the good order and quies of the city may be maintained; and casualty by fire in a great measure avoided.

"By order of the Mayor."

The State Society of the Cincinnati of Pennsylvania will hold its annual meeting at Augustin's, No. 1105 Walnut street, at 10 o'clock
A. M.

The Soldiers of the War of 1812 will hold their usual meeting in the Supreme Court-room, at 10 o'clock A. M. room, at 10 o'clock A. M.

In Independence Square, at 31 o'clock P.
M., a mass-meeting will be held under the auspices of the Temperance Blessing, Charles Heritage, chairman. Hassler's Band will be present, and addresses will be delivered by the Hon. S. C. Pomeroy, of Kansas; Hon.
James Pollock, Rev. J. L. Witherow, Rev. H. A. Cleveland, and others. Professor R. Adams will recite a poem written for the occasion by John Hickey. Col. Wm. H. Maurice will recite the Declaration of Independence.

In order to avoid noise and confusion, as much as possible, the following note has been addressed to each fire company:

"Gentlemen:—I would request that you confine your services to your own neighborhood on the fourth of July unless especially sent for.

"As numerous fires occur on that day, I trust you will see the propriety of complying with this request."

"Yours, very respectfully, GEORGE DOWNEY.

As there will be two days of leisure many persons will avail themselves of the apportunity of escaping from the hot bricks and mortar into the shady and cool groves of exhibitions.

Creely commanding, to take charge of the affair. Persons living in the immediate vicinity are requested to raise and lower their window-sash to avoid breakage.

FACT AND FUN FOR THE FOURTH.—Persons who have an American Eagle on Monday, can make him soar by chopping a piece out of his leg. (The play upon the word "sore" will be explained in our edition of Tuesday.) Parents are cautioned against permitting their children-to carry loaded howitizers around in their pantaloons pockets. Fatal accidents have reulted from such carelessness. It is understood that Col. Maurice, who will speak the Declaration of Independence from memory on the Fourth, does not wish to receive encores more than fifteen successive times if the weather is oppressive. Persons should watch their older ys, and positively prohibit their tying their le brothers to the large size sky-rockets previous to setting them off. One poor child who ascended from this cause on the Fourth of July, 1812, has not come down yet, and his parents are afraid they will not recognize him when he does. Do not attempt to crack torpedoes with your teeth. John Han-cock always avoided this practice, and wisely too, for a set of false teeth cost a large sum when your mouth has been very much enlarged all of a sudden. Children under two of age will not be admitted to Inde-ence Square to hear Colonel Maurice speak, and any attempt on their part to force an entrance will be boldly resisted by a strong body of police. Persons who have not been vaccinated, should keep away from the statue of Washington on the Fourth, for it is understood that the General once had an aunt who died of scarlet fever in Georgia. The Board of Health should look after this matter. Boys who carry large quantities of torpedoes in their bats should be careful not to stand on in their hats should be careful not to stand on their heads unless their father's skylights are. Insured against damage by contact with exploded boys. General Grant never stood on his head with torpedoes in his hat, and yet here he is President of the United States. What a lesson for youth! If anybody wants a good American eagle, one can be extemporized out of a rooster with the aid of some alue. out of a rooster with the aid of some glue and lampblack. It is not known positively whether General George Washington ever wore an undershirt, but it is understood that Mr. Logan, of the Sixteenth Ward, is hunting for an authentic garment of the kind. If he finds it he will deck his manly form in the relic and stand upon the State House steps. all day Monday, smiling at the statue of the Father of his country. Small boysof irreverent dis-positions will be prohibited by the police from cracking jokes at the expense of this patriot. THE FIFTH DISTRICT POLICE STATION.— The contract for the erection of the new Police Station house on Fifteenth street, above Locust, having been awarded, work-men will begin to demolish the old structure next week. For a temporary station-house the Mayor has leased the Pritchell estate, at the corner of Eighth and South streets. The property has a front of nearly two hundred feet on each street, with a house in the centre of the lot. The property was fitted up years ago by a gentleman for a commodious residence, with stable, outhouses, &c., and a garden containing an abundance of fruit and shade trees. Of late years, owing to the inroads of disorderly persons, the shrub-bery and fruit trees have nearly all been destroyed, and the house has been considerably injured. The place has been unoccupied for some time past, and has been a resort for a vicious class of persons, comprising men and women, boys and girls. When put in somewhat better order, the property will make a good Station-house for temporary purposes, and the presence of the police will rid the presence of the police will rid the presence of the police will rid the neighborhood of the bad people above re-

CITY MORTALITY.—The number of interments in the city for the week ending at noon lo-day was 414, against 362 the same period last year. Of the whole number 189 were adults and 225 children—133 being under one year of age; 212 were males; 202 females; 116 poys, and 109 girls.

THE STREET CONTRACTORS .- The Board of Health, during the past week, had before it all of the contractors for cleaning the streets, and ustructed them that the work must be done better and more promptly. A resolution requiring the Inspectors to make their reports ander oath was adopted. The warrants for the payment of the contractors for June have been withheld for the present.

PERSONATING A POLICEMAN.—Henry Wildams alias George Elliot, was arrested last night, at Broad and Sansom streets, by Lieutenant Flaherty, for personating a Sergeant of Police and attempting to blackmail some women. He was locked up for a hearing at the Central Station. THE FIREMEN.—The New Orleans firemen now on a visit to this city were driven around Fairmount Park to-day.

THE CAPE MAY TRAINS.—The summer arrangements of the West Jersey Railroad have been completed, and extraordinary facilities are now offered to travelers and pleasurescekers. An extra Cape May train has been put on, which leaves Market street, ferry at 4 o'clock P. M., and arrives at Cape May at about 7 o'clock. Visitors to the island will find this train very convenient, as it not only does not stop at the way stations, but it arrives nearly half an hour earlier than the 3.15 P. M. train. General Wm. J. Sewell, the worthy Superintendent of this road, has done everything in his power to further the comfort and convenience of passengers. For full Another Step to the Westward.—The tendency of the business community is toward the perfection of the arrangements for transacting their business. The days of dinginess and close quarters in stores in American cities arrapidly passing away. The stores of the Cheeryble brothers and of Mrs. Clennam, as described by Dickens, find occasional festimiles among business fossils in Philadelphic, but the man who now-a-days undertakes to do business in a hog-pen, is very likely only to have hogs for fits customers.

What is true of stores is true also of count

What is true of stores is true also of counting-rooms. Time was that men who spent one-third of their lives in their business offices spent it with nothing more picturesque in the way of surroundings than a pewter inkstand and a couple of spavined stools. At the present time Philadelphia boasts some of the finest business edifices in the United States. We know of none more stately or better supplied with modern conveniences than that of Messrs. William T. Snodgrass & than that, of Messrs. William T. Snodgrass & Co., at the northwest corner of Ninth and Market streets. When the erection of a business structure is in question the bestarchitect is the merchant. At planning the new Masonic Temple or the big Synagogue on Broad street, in all probability Mr. Snodgrass would have made a failure. As it is, the premises at Ninth and Market streets, in point of convenience and labor-saying appliances, have probaging and labor-saying appliances, have probaging and labor-saying appliances.

enceand labor-saving appliances, have proba-bly no superior in the United States. The lot is 112 by 26 feet in area. Just in this locality the title to the soil is of some little value. For this reason the confirmed fogy is the only person who permits an inch-of-it to go a-begging. Of their lot the Messrs, Snod-grass haven't lost a barley-corn. Beginning with a splendid sub-cellar the basement above is as handsome a room as it ever was our privilege to enter. The cloth trade want light and here they have it. The room extends entirely under the sidewalk, both on Market and on Ninth streets. The pavement is the Hyatt light—circlets of convex glass set in cost type from To. gat this light alone in cast fron frame. To get this light alone cost the neat little sum of $4,900. The price of the article is $7 80 per square foot.

But, dear as it seems, it is cheap in the end. This basement is the equal in convenience, and, of course, so much larger than the room upon the ground-floor. The room upon the latter is among the fluest we have ever seen. To do business in such premises can be at tended with nothing but pleasure. As we have said, no one can so contrive a businesshouse as a business man. In the distribution of light and heat the Messrs. Snodgrass have proven themselves independent of either Pro-iessor Morton or. Sir Isaac Newton. People who buy cloths from them, buy them where the blue sky looks down upon their bargain The windows are of the most transparent plate glass, whose screens, placed upon a rail road track contrived for the purpose, retire i day-time to a closet. Hoistways and hatch-ways, gas and water are just where they should be. The store is in the right place, and the firm in theirs. If the accretion of busifirm in theirs. If the accretion of business has enriched them, no one begrudges them the fruit of their upright labor. It was the axiom of a celebrated political economist that no business transaction is a healthy one unless it brings corresponding that the best to business transaction. benefit both to buyer and to seller. In no city is this maxim kept more closely in view than in this goodly place. What we are glad of is that for their very extensive jobbing as well as retail trade, the Messrs. Snodgrass now have adequate accommodations. The cloth trade per se is full of interest. No trade requires closer watching, or a more intimate acquaintance with the business. From the parlor window of the man who goes into it without first having his eye-teeth cut, a sheriff's flag is pretty sure ultimately to fly Because the Messrs. Snodgrass are masters of their line of trade, they have erected this beautiful store at Ninth and Market streets, and removed their business to a locality more commensurate with its magnitude. That many merchants from other cities will model stores after the plan of the Messrs. Snodgrass is very probable. Their visitors are very numerous. With the opening of the Fall trade they will be prepared with one of the lawser and these trades are seen as the content of the lawser and the content of the content of the content and the content of the the largest and finest stocks ever seen on this side of the Atlantic. We spent a pleasant hour this morning with the genial head of the firm. We heartly second his invitation to every reader of the BULLETIN to call and visit the firm in their new location.

Excursion:—The delightful excursions to New York by water, which were participated in and enjoyed by such a large number of persons last year, have been renewed and will persons last year, have been renewed and windoubtedly be as pleasant as in preceding years. The first excursion of this kind this season will take place on the Fourth of July. The party will be accompanied by the First Regiment band, which will perform choice selections. The reputation of this band needs no comment. It is known to be a first-class no comment. It is known to be a first-class organization, composed of able performers. The party will leave Walnut street ferry at 7.30 A. M., on Monday, and proceed by a special-train over the Camden and Amboy Railroad to South Amboy, from which place a steamer will convey it around New York Bay and up the Hudson river. A view of the Battery, the East river and the beautiful scenery on the Hudson is afforded. We have no doubt but that every body who joins in this excursion will be delighted. A rare chance is offered for those who wish to escape from the offered for those who wish to escape from the dust and heat of the city. Tickets can be pro-cured of Henry Coleman, 1075 Germantown avenue, and at 828 Chestnut street.

ATLANTIC CITY.-The can't-get-aways will now have a good opportunity of spending a couple of days at the sea side. The Camden and Atlantic Railroad Company is making ample preparations for the accommodation of the great throng of people who are expected to go to Atlantic City to-morrow and Sunday to remain until Tuesday. To relieve the pressure on the ticket-office at Vine Street Wharf arrangements have been made for the sale of ckets at No. 828 Chestnut street (Continental Hotel); Trenwith's Bazaar, 614 Chestnu street, and No. 116 Market street.

Among the very few remedies for the pecu liar diseases of the season that have kept their hold upon popular favor through many long years of trial, Bowers' Infant Cordial holds a first place. Prepared by an experienced druggist from the best of materials, and containing some of the simplest and yet most efficient agents known to the profession, it is a most admirable remedy for all diseases of the bowels—equally good for babies or men. Try it and you will not consider the domestic nedicine chest hereafter complete without it

PHILADELPHIA CONFECTIONS AND CHOCO-LATE.—If we failed to call attention to the celebrated confections and chocolate manufactured in Philadelphia, we should be doing-injustice to our readers, and especially to strangers in the city, to whom fine confections and chocolate are a subject of interest. The honor of making the best chocolate and con-fections rests with Messrs. Stephen F. White man & Son, corner of Twelfth and Market

THE SWIMMING SCHOOL.—The proprietors of the Natatorium and Physical Institute, Broad street, below Walnut, announce a change of hour. The ladies' hour will close hereafter at 1 o'clock P. M. The Swimming School will be open on the Fourth of July for gentlemen swimmers only, and will, undoubtedly, he crowded, as it always is, with men and boys, indulging in this healthful exercise.

FOR LONG BRANCH.—The arrangements for For Long Branch.—The arrangements for Long Branch, via the Camden and Amboy and New Jersey Southern Railroads, are announced. Four trains, daily, now can to that delightful watering-place. Beside the attraction offered by the superb bathing and the fine hotels of Long Branch, a special inducement is offered by the low fare, which is but $2 50. THE Odd Fellows of Northwestern Pennsylvania will have a grand celebration at Mendville, July 4th. Addresses are to be delivered by Vice President Colfax and also by Past Grand Master John W. Stokes.

The Coopers.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Ludlow.—This morning William Attridge, the cooper convicted of arson in firing the old Cooper Shop. Refreshment Saloon, was sentenced to six years in the Eastern Penitentiary. It will be remembered that at the time of the commission sion of this offence, the coopers of the city were on a "strike," and on the evening of were on a "strike," and on the evening of this fire six other cooper shops were par-tially destroyed by incendiaries.

tially destroyed by incendiaries.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Allison.—The whole morning was occupied with the continuation of the hearing of the case of Mint zer vs. Mintzer. Several years ago Mr. Chas.
A. Mintzer was ordered to pay $6 per week for the support of three children. He now asks for a modification of this order, in as much as his health is seriously affected, his hearing defective and his ability to pursue his profession as a musician is impaired, while the three children are respectively 19, 16 and 14 years, and the mother has an income from a separate estate. The application was resisted and several witnesses were examined, some of them stating that Mrs. Mintzer has three other children at home, the oldest being 30 years of age, and yet no board being exacted from him or the others. The Court modified the order to $4 per week.. '

CITY NOTICES.

THE KITCHEN KOHINOOR.—To bring to perfection a roast or a broll, your kitchen range must first be properly humored. The cook who is unprovided with first class coal, is a cook who is laboring under depressing discouragement. For this reason as many people procure their coal exclusively from the coal yards of Mesers. Mitchell & Wroth, Northeast conier of Ninth street and Girard avenue. The rank is only the stump of the guinea. What the people want is not a "hifnlutin" name, but a coal of first-class character, and served to them in Seriptural weight. The place to got this at the lowest market price is at Ninth street and Girard avenue. "A choice acticle of White Ash Coal, large nut size, now selling at $6.75.

Horson's Choice.—Whoever attempts to FIGHOUS CHOICE.—Windows attempts to restore gray hair with the ordinary proparations, must choose between the tar-like dyes and the muddy coloring fluids. Both are dirty. Phaton's Vitalia, or Salvation for the Hair, is the only orticle in existence capable of changing gray hair to any natural shade; it is transparent, fragrant, limpli and infallible. Bold by all druggists and fancy goods dealers.

BROWN'S ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER.

This article is now deemed indispensable in hot wenther. As a gentle and healthful stimulant ginger has no rival; and in the neculiar form in which it's prepared by Mr. Frederick Brown, at the northeast corner of Fifth and Chestnut steets, it is at once convenient and pulatuble. Those who design making voyages by land or water should not be without the essence. JUDICIOUS MOTHERS AND NURSES use Bowen's Infant Cordian, because it is one of the most delightful and efficacious remedies ever discovered for curing the various ills to which infants and young children are subject.
