Thomas, yesterday, Albert Schreyer, a resident of Rising Sun, was charged with cruel and unnatural treatment of an orphan boy about twelve years of age, adopted by him, and who has been an inmate of his family for about two years. The evidence showed that on Sunday afternoon the boy had gone into bathe against the wishes of his guardian, and to punish him the latter took his clothing home, leaving him in the water. Here he remained until darkness had set in, and then returned to his home, but was reand then returned to his home, but was rerused admittance, and was exposed to the night air until morning. Mrs. Fredonia Kamerly, siding in the vicinity, and hearing of his distress and nakedness, sent him a pair of pants and a shirt. Mrs. Schreyer threatened her with prosecution if she did not removethe clothing from the boy, and, in fear, she did so. And thus he remained exposed until Monday evening, without food or clothing, when Mrs. Louisa mained exposed until Monday evening, without food or clothing, when Mrs. Louisa Alexander, a neighbor, gave him an apron to shield him from the sun until proper clothing tould be furnished to him. She also informed ceman Peterman of the situation of the child, and the unnatural treatment to which he was being subjected. Officer Peterman found the boy and took him in charge. The little fellow's back and legs were fearfully scorched and blistered by the burning rays of the sun, and at the hearing he still wore the clothing furnished him by kind neighbors. His case will require medical treatment. When arrested Schreyer stated that the boy was very bad, that he had taken the clothing from him merely to intimidate him, and that he had not time to return it. He also produced witnesses to prove the bad conduct of the boy.

Alderman Thomas said that he had no doubt that the boy was bad, but that did not ex-tenuate the charge of criminal neglect. He should hold the defendant in $1,000 bail to answer at Court. The boy was placed in charge of Officer Peterman, to be removed to the Northern Home for Friendless Children rom which institution he was indentured to

THE COURTS.

Dispute About a Trade Mark.

Common Pleas—Judge Paxson.—A case of some interest was heard at nine o'clock this morning in the new Court-house. About one week ago R. P. Hall, K. F. Worcester and H. W. Small were arrested upon the information of Charles A. Gilles, and charged with imitating a trade mark. A suit in equity was at the same time instituted against them, and an application made for an injunction to restrain the defendants from further using said trade mark. The petition was entertained, and an injunction for five days granted by the Court. injunction for five days granted by the Court. This morning the application to continue the injunction was heard, J. M. Moyer and Amos Briggs appearing for defendants, and S. Wagner and Judge Brewster for plaintiffs. The case involves a large amount of money. The facts alleged are as follows: nacts alleged are as follows:

R. P. Hall was the discoverer of a hair pre-paration known in the market as Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer. A trademark upon the same was granted to him. In 1865 he sold his right to said trade-mark to the plaintiff for $30,000, with the reservation in his agreement of sale, as he alleges, that after the plaintiff had made $100,000 out of said preparation, it should again revert to him. It is alleged now that Gilles has made over $400,000 out of the sales of the article. Frequent de-mands, it is averred, were made by Hall upon the plaintiff for the cancellation of the agreement of sale, and these were refused. Hall then commenced manufacturing in this city, taking the other defendants into copartnership, he claiming that the proprietorship of the trade-mark has reverted to him, under the agreement of sale. The plaintiff denies this and claims that the sale was an absolute one and not contingent.

The case was fully argued and held under advisement.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Paxson—The whole morning was occupied with the trial of a disorderly house case.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Ludlow.—Parties charged with selling liquor without a license were before the Court to-day. Three pleaded guilty, and were fined $60, $70 and $100 according to the circumstances of the $100, according to the circumstances of the CITY NOTICES.

How to Look Young-Sixteen.-Don't paint or use vile Hair Restorers, but simply apply Hagan's Magnolia Balm upon your face, neck and hands and use Lyon's Kathairon upon your hair. It gives to middle age the bloom of perpetual youth. Add these effects to a splendid head of hair produced by the Kathairon, and a lady has done her best in the way of adorument.
