This programme, the circular says, was re-jected in 1800, in spite of the continued urgency of France. The proposals were incessantly re-newed, with the modification sacrificing Bel-gium and South Germany, but they were never seriously entertained by Prussia. For the sako of peace, however, it was thought best to leave Nanoleon to his delusion. No word implying Liverpool...New York New York,...AspinwallPhilad'a...Charlestor
