THE TRANQUIL PRINCE. The despatch of Napoleon, announcing the victory at Saarbrück, will excite the conduct of the Prince Imperial, will excite the conduct of the Emperor, will excite the conduct of the Emperor, will excite the conduct of the Emperor.

THE BARRICADE AT SAARBRÜCK. The fact that the attack of the French upon the Prussian position upon the heights opposite Saarbrück was the first demonstration of force made upon either side in the position, and that the French claimed a great victory and the Prussians asserting that the success of the French is attended with no really important result.
