THE NEW PARK OF THE PINLADELPHIA RIFLE CLUB.—It was stated in the BULLETIN some time ago that the Philadelphia Rifle Club had purchased a piece of ground on Indian Queen lane, near the station on the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown Railroad, phila Germantown and Norristown Railroad, and the proposes of a park, in order that the for the purposes of a park, in order that the Germans might have a fine place for their celebrations and entertainments, Engel & Wolf's Farm and Washington Retreat, which Wolfs Farm and Washington Retreat, which have been the popular resorts for years past, having been incorporated in Fairmount Park. The ground purchased comprises nineteen acres, and upon it there were a stone massion in good order, a stone barn, a frame tenant house, and plenty of shade trees. Since the purchase workinen have been engaged in preparing the place for the purposes for which it is intended. The grounds have been beautifully laid out, and nine hundred additional trees have been planted. There has also been put up a large pavilion, hexagon shaped, eighty feet in diameter, surrounded by a capacious porch fourteen feet in diameter, making the actual diameter. eter of the structure one hundred and eight feet. The pavilion is surmounted by a flag pole, with an American gilt eagle on the top.

From the pavilion, running right and left, there are two arbors, each eighty-six feet long and twenty-eight feet wide. About one thousand persons, it is estimated, can be seated in the pavilion and arbors.

The shooting-house which has been erected is of brick, 120 by 30 feet, and 14 feet in height. To prevent accidents, three massive stone walls have been put up as guards against stray bullets. In the rife-pit there are twelve targets, and ample space has been left to add more if they should be required.

The stobiling and sheet on the premises will

The stabling and sheds on the premises will be sufficient for the accommodation of one hundred horses.
The grounds are enclosed by a neatly nainted fence, and the entrance is ornamented by a neatly-built lodge, the roof of which is ornamented with imitation cannon balls and

The cost of the property when purchased was $30,000, and in making the improvements described $20,000 additional have been excellent accommodations and the facilities for reaching the place by the P., G. and N. R. R. will make this new park a very popular place of resort for our German citizens

The dedication of the new park will take place next week. On Monday there will be a parade of the Rifle Club, Turners, the German military and other German societies. After passing through a number of streets, cars will be taken at Ninth and Green streets for the grounds. The exercises connected with the dedication will consist of instrumental music, singing, a speech in English by Col. M. Richards Muckle, and au address in German by Dr. G. Kellner. Then there will be prize-shooting, acrobatic feats by the Turners, and other amusements. Tues day and Wednesday will be taken up with rifle practice, concerts, dancing, games, &c. Invitations have been extended to the President, General Meade, Mayor Fox, Governor Geary, and other distinguished gentlemen to be present Committee of Arrangements have concluded to make a donation of one-tenth of the net proceeds of the festival to the fund for the relief of the widows and orphans of German soldiers who may killed in the present war in Europe.

A CLEVER SWINDLE.—A German or Swiss woman, about forty years old, has been imposing upon some of our charitably-disposed citizens by an artfully-constructed tale. She is engaged in collecting funds to defray the funeral expenses of one of her children—a twin-son—who has just died at the Episcopal Hospital. The Swiss Consul happens to be out of town, and consequently she cannot obtain a certain sum of money which she has coming to her, through him, from abroad, and the authorities at the hospital will not wait until the Consul's return, but insist upon the immediate burial of the child. She is desirous of having him placed by the side of hi-father, who lies buried at Laurel Hill Ceme tery. Her story of the child's last sickness is very touching. The religious part of it is exceedingly well done. The hymn which he sang just before his death she repeats in broken English, and with just the proper admixture of emotion. Her maternal tears have carried away the judgment of a number of ladies of unusual sagacity, and we know of at least one clergyman who, very recently, advanced her the money which she needed. The clergyman is still waiting the return of the Swiss Consul.

ATTEMPTED MURDER. - Bernard Coffee went into Fitzpatrick's tavern, at Newbold and Callowhil streets, yesterday afternoon, and called two men up to drink. After the liquor had been swallowed, Coffee said some thing about not having any money. One of the men then offered to pay for two drinks, thus leaving Coffee to settle for his own. This Coffee didn't seem to like, and threatened to put a knife into Fitzpatrick if he took the money. He didn't wait to see if the cash was handed over, but drew a knife and rushed at Fitzpatrick. The latter ran up-stairs. He got a revolver and returned to the bar-room, but Coffee had left. Coffee, after considerable trouble, was arrested by Policeman Costigan. After a hearing before Alderman Paucoast, he was held in $1,000 bail for assault with a knife, and $600 bail for assaulting an thing about not having any money. One of with a knife, and $600 bail for assaulting an officer.

Homicide.—A man named Marcus Porter died this morning, about half-past two o'clock, at the house of Samuel Ray, No. 1022 Delaware avenue. The cause of his death is said to be injuries received on Saturday last It seems that Porter, Frank McCully and William McCully started on a fishing expedition. They proceeded to the Kensington Ser, w Dock, While there a quarrel arose, but how it originated is not yet definitely known Porter, it is alleged, was knocked down by his companions, badly beaten and also kicked and jumped upon. YELLOW FEVER AT THE LAZARETTO.-The brig Holme, from Jamaica, came up the river on the 29th of June last. As she was in a filthy condition she was stopped at Quarantine. It was then ascertained that the committee of the committee tine. It was then ascertained that the com-nuander, Captain Phillips, had died of yellow rever off Cape Hatteras. One sailor who was sick was taken to the Hospital at the Laza-retto and subsequently recovered. The vessel was loaded with logwood, and there was also a lot of rags, which are supposed to have been purchased at Black river, Jamaica, having been previously used by yellow fever patients. While the vessel was detained at the Laza-retto, the pilot, J. Bennett, of Cape May, and the second mate, a man named Grif-liths, deserted and came to the city, where they were attacked with fever and died. It they were attacked with fever and died. It was directed that the brig should be unloaded at the Lazaretto. In this work a barge belonging to Captain Dogget was used. The Captain took his wife and son with him. They were taken with the fever and died at the Lazaretto.

taken with the fever and died at the Lazaratto. Several days afterwards Captain Dogget went to his home at Port Carbon and died there. This was about a month ago. The captain of another barge was taken siok, but was removed to the hospital and recovered.

Last week the disease spread outside of the Quarantine grounds, the family of Mr. Jacob Pepper having been attacked. Mr. Pepper was proprietor of a public house adjacent to the Lazaretto, and his place was frequently visited by some of the crew of the Holme. The wished by some of the crew of the Holme. The mother-in-law of Mr. Pepper, Mrs. Annie Enos, 84 years of age, was attacked early in the week and died. On the same day a servant girl was taken ill, and died at the residence of some of her friends, near Darby. Mrs. Mary Kugler, wife of the Steward of the Quarantine station, who had nursed Mrs. Enos. was attacked to the control of the Steward of th Station, who had nursed Mrs. Enos, was at tacked on Friday and died on Saturday morn lng. Mrs. Mary Johnson, a sister-in-law of Mr. Pepper, is now ill with the fever, but was doing well this morning. Eleven persons in the house had the feyer, but all recovered exor pt those mentioned above.

Dr. Thompson, the physician in charge of the Lazaretto, and the gardener, are now sick, but they were both doing well this morning. Dr. J. L. Forwood, of Chester, who had the yellow fever in the West Indies, and has had much experience in the treatment of the disease, volûnteered his services yesterday, and i now in charge of the Station. There, is no cause for alarm in anticipation of the disease spreading to the city. At this season of the year there are always a number of cases of malignant fever under treatment at the Quarantine hospital, and this year there have been less than usual. The sickness is now confined to the employes of the station, but it would be well for those who have been in the habit of going to the botel and lish-houses in he vicinity to cease their visits at the present time. . .

IMPROVEMENTS AT FAIRMOUNT PARK.-A meeting of the Park Commission was held yesterday, Hon. Morton McMichael. Presilent, in the chair. After the reports of the several committees were read and acted upon, the Board directed the following works of improvement to be constructed, viz The width of Lansdowne Drive to be increased, so that wherever it is practicable, with-out great expense, its width may be forty-tour feet, exclusive of gutters, and not less

Elm avenue. LOST ARTICLES IN FAIRMOUNT PARK.-The officers of the Park Guard and the keepers often pick up articles which have been lost by visitors to the grounds. A number of these lost articles have been restored to their owners during the past month. Keeper Allen ound a pocket-book, containing $125, which Keeper Funk handed a costly bracelet over to be owner. There are still a quantity of arti-les in charge of the captain of the Guard un-

On May 17 the entries stop, but on June 9, in very crooked writing, there is the announcement: "A frightful attack of nervous debility." John Barleycorn probably had something to do with this attack. BREWERS' PICNIC.—The twenty-first annual picnic of the Gambrinus Beneficial Associa-tion, which is composed of the employes of the different breweries in the city, is in progress at Engel & Wolf's farm to-day. This morning there was a procession composed of the brewery wagons, each drawn by four horses, and elaborately decorated with evergreens. The procession was headed by King Gambrinus on horseback. There were also in the line two bands of music, and an omnibus drawn by six horses. The procession pre-sented a very attractive appearance.

THE BURNED MILL.—The main building of the mill at Twenty-second and Wood streets, de-troyed by fire yesterday afternoon, was 100 by 135 feet. This does not include the twoby 135 feet. This does not include the two-story brick house, 30 feet square, which is in the rear of the main lot. Mr. Theo. H. Vetter-ein purchased the establishment in 1869, and the total cost, including the improvements made since, was $75,000, but the property, when all rented, it is estimated, will yield good interest on $100,000.

SUICIDE AT CONSHOHOCKEN, PA.

A Man Stabs Himself.

A Man Stabs Himself.

The Norristown Herald says:
One of the most distressing and revolting suicides that it has ever been our lot to chronicle occurred in West Conshocken, this county, on Saturday hast. Patrick Murphy had shown evidences of insanity some time previous to such an extent that his wife kept a close watch over him. On Saturday morning, however, at about four o'clock, she had occasion to leave him a few minutes, and upon returning found that he had indicted upon himself a fatal wound, by taking a razor and cutting his abdomen sufficient to allow the number a ratal wound, by taking a razor and cutting his abdomen sufficient to allow the bowels to protrude. Medical aid was summoned and every assistance rendered, but the unfortunate man died about 9 o'clock P. M. the following day. Coroner McEwen held an inquest. The deceased leaves a wife and a number of children.

INFALLIBILITY.

Scenes in the Council at Rome...Efforts of the Minority Bishops.

The Rome correspondent of the Pall Mall

Tazette writes under date of July 18:

This morning the Council of the Vatican held its fourth public session in the presence and under the presidency of the Pope. There were very few speciators, and but two or three of the minor powers were represented in the diplomatic tribune, the rest of the diplomatic body having followed the contributions. matic body having followed the example of the representatives of France, Austria and the representatives of France, Austria and Prussia, who, in accordance with the interior mentioned in my last, absented themselves from the ceremony. The Vatican made a strong whip for the majority, and brought together 533 prelates, though the number was largely made up of Bishops in partibus. A hundred and ten Bishops now in Rome refused to attend the sitting the hold rollay of signifying their dissitting, the bold policy of signifying their dissent by a public vote having, as I anticipated, been given up. The dogmatic constitution. De Ecclesia Christi, with the chapter defining infallibility, was put to the vote, and only two Bishops were found courageous enough to exclaim aloud, "Non placet." These dissen-tients were Monsignor Ciccio, Bishop of Cojaezo, in Sicily, and an American Bishop, whose name I was not able to learn. The su-perstitious consider it ominous that a violent storm burst over the cathedral at the commencement of the proceedings and lasted till their close. The orders for a salvo from Fort St. Angelo and a jubilant peal from all the bells of Rome had been countermanded, the solemnity was not unheralded, and the Pope proclaimed himself infallible amid peals of thunder and terrific flashes of lightning.

The Pope closed the proceedings with a short allocution. Immediately after the proclamation of the dogma the Austrian Ambasador quitted Rome. The officers and soldiers of the Roman legion have, since the outbreak of the war, unanimously demanded permission to return to France. the solemnity was not unheralded, and the

on to return to France On Saturday, the Bishops of the minority held a conference in the apartments of Cardinal Rauscher, and after a long debate sent a deputation to the commission for dogma with a conciliatory proposition relative to infalli-bility. This was rejected by the Commission and the deputation then obtained an interview with the Popc. Here they were equally unsuccessful, and the Holy Father peremptorily refused to make the slightest modification in the scheme. He was no doubt well informed as to the wavering pirit of the Bishops, which scon showed itself clearly in a resolution to absent themselves from the public sitting, where in fact, they had but to vote non place! to achieve all they desired. They are meeting the proclamation of the dogma by a protest which they sign stante pede, but in Rome they and their protest are alike regarded with in-

The Brougth in Connecticut.

The Hartford Times of the 6th inst. says "The drougth continues, and all vegetation suffers. Its effect has been intensified by the steady, continuous heat. This has reached a point scarcely less than 90 deg., and often sevral degrees higher, nearly every day for more than a month. All vegetation suffers, but the grass, on light lands, is injured especially. Ex cept in meadow lands little or no pasturage is left. Some little benefit has followed from the slight rain of last Thursday afternoon; but here in Connecticut, where rain was more sorely needed than in any other section, we had the least. Other States were visited by a copious rain-storm; ours is still left dry. Farmers are buying hay! Butter is less plenty Corn, except in swales, and on low lauds, 'all cured up;' it will produce, on hundred of farms hereabouts, little mor-than 'nubbins-;' and many farmers have already cut their cornstalks for fodder. Straw and 'bedding' will be more scarce that usual. Early potatoes turn out well. Lateplanted potatoes are generally thought to be a complete failure; and these constitute the bulk of the group. Tobacco also feels the drought Here, in the centre of the tobacco-growing region, the drought has been the most severe The Connecticut crop of 1870 will be a poor one in the market—probably even less valuable than that of 1865. The plants have blossomed prematurely, and the leaves show a coarse woody fibre, which will be very injurious to the market value. But little of the crop of '69 remains on hand; and back of '68 there is nothing. Connecticut tobacco-growers are prepared for the substantial failure of this crop. Connecticut tobacco-growers are upon which many depend for their money Apples hang on pretty well, in spite of the drought, and would have made an unusually abundant crop had there been any rain. As t is they are mostly small; and some begin to

For some time this house has been perfecting appliances on a large scale for the manufacture of a perfectly safe and reliable illuminating oil, the many and fatal accidents from kerosene having rendered it evident that there existed a great want for such an article. The success which has attended their efforts is attested by the thousands of families throughout the country who are now using Pratt's Astral oil. We have used it ourselves, and are writing this article by its soft and pleusant light. The greater part of the road is already completed, and the carrings from the intshed portion are already more than enflicient to pay operating expenses and interest on the bonds. The bulance of the work is progressing rapidly, in time for the movement of the coming grain crops, which, it is estimated, will double the present income of the road.

The established character of this line, running as it does through the heart of the most thickly settined and richest portion of the great state of lowa, together with its present advanced condition and large earnings, warrant us in unhesitatingly recommending these bonds to investors as, in every respect, an undoubted security. These bonds have 50 years to run, are convertible at the option of the holder into the stock of the Ormpany at par, and the payment of the principal is provided for by a sinking fund. The convertibility privilege at inched to these bonds cannot fall to cause them at no distont day to command a market price considerably above par, heades paying about 9 per cent., carrievey, interest in the menawhile. United states Five-twenties, at present prices, only return 5 per cent., and we regard at present prices, only return 5 per cent., and we regard the security equally safe,
