MEDICAL

Is a quick, safe and effectual remedy for BLEED-ING, BLIND OR ITCHING PILES, CONSTIPATION OF THE BOWELS, Ac. Its principal virtues are derived from its internal use, regulating the Liver and Kidneys, and imparting health and vigor to the whole alimentary canal. It is specific in its action, completely controlling the circulation of the blood in the hemmorphoidal vessels.

It has the double advantage of being harmless and pleasant to the taste, while its operations are reliable and satisfactory.

The afflicted can rely with the utmost confidence in this medicine, because the great success that it has met with since its introduction is a sure indication of lisreal value.

too early for dinner. It was a "Garden sell the Chinese growers themselves. The Party," let that suffice for much was expected of this royal experiment. The day few years since by Sir Cecil Beadon, perhaps ame (yesterday), and to the consternation of the highest authority on this subject that Inthe royal hostess and the invited guests, with it came the farmer's longed for showers, beginning at early morning and never clearing away until about six o'clock.

At seven the guests were expected to go home!

The royal hostess and the invited guests, with dia has had, and that is to very greatly increase the cultivation of opium in Bengal, and to sell a larger amount at a lower price in China. Hitherto we have been able to command the market, but in a very short time the Chinaman The Queen had no alternative but to welcome | would accustom himself to the inferior drug her guests in the state apartmenst, all of which, except the Presence Chamber, were highly flavored and costly Indian opium would thrown open. Her son Charles dutifully important to the cultivator, while the differtook up his residence with his mother. Much | ence it would make to the government would be insignificant. "As a loving mother, Spain's sons are all equally dear to me," was truly an unfortunate little burst of affection for a retiring sovereign under the circumstances. How could here ex-Majesty hope to escape the comment "no doubt a good many of them are dear, and with strong reason?" The fair Isabella is said to have been as gay as her dresses while going through her abdication. She wore a peach colored silk, trimmed with the most superbly rich white lace and diamonds, and appeared to be in excellent spirits. While the ex-Queen was attempting, with inconsequent hands, to fit a crown upon his head, the young Prince of Asturias was wholly engrossed by a new velocipede, which had just been presented to him. Small chance has he of having his bycycle converted into a throne!
