LOCAL CHOWDER.-Among the arrivals in this city, this morning, was a millionaire Celestial from San Francisco. He left Shaughal in the year 1857. His entire capital consisted, at that moment, of a pair of linen breeches, a Cantonese toga and a pistareen. He started business in San Francisco in the consistence of a washerman. capacity of a washerman. From that he rose to the dignity of a dealer in old iron. What we now learn is that he occupies a prominent position not only as an iron merchant but as a progressive in general. With his pigtail the gentleman loug since parted. He now does his promenading attired in the costume of a Parisian count.

—The peach crop is now coming rapidly in.

For choice fruit the price to-day is from $3 to $3 50 per basket. People who buy in fractional quantities pay considerably more. Watermelons are arriving in abundance. They retail at from 30 to 50 cents each. The ordinary muskmelon is sold at 35 cents per basket; for selected cantelopes the price is from $1 to —The indications of a heavy fall trade are pleasantly apparent. The sidewalks in Front street, and other walks of the more ponderous commerce, are literally blockaded with bales and packing-cases. To people who confine themselves to the promenades an occasional peep at Front and Water streets might prove of interest. It would show to them that while Chestnut street is comparatively deserted, our commission houses are literally hives of ac-

—The public bathing-houses are public bless-ings. That cleanliness is next to godliness is in nothing more strongly exemplified than in the improved morale, since the establishment of these baths, in the vicinity of what has long been set down as "the Five Points" of Phila delphia. In these pools people now plunge daily who, in all their previous lives, had never realized the luxury of leisurely immer sion. To the founders of these baths the grati tude of their beneficiaries must be exceeding pleasure. The male, if disposed to perform ablution, may do so elsewhere; the female cannot. To the latter these baths are a blessing, of which the magnitude can be told only by the unfortunates by whom it has never previously been enjoyed.

—Among the shrewdest business men in existence are those who have made fortunes by the sale of patent medicines. In view of the increased circulation of newspapers in consequence of the present "unpleasantness" is Europe, the advantages of advertising are in-creased in precisely direct ratio. That forcreased in precisely direct ratio. That for-tunes are realized by the sale of remedies for specific maladies is not so much because of their value as because of the enterprise of their proprietors in keeping them before the public.—If the proprietor of the Flummix Bit-ters rides in his carriage while Mr. Poplin ters rides in his carriage while Mr. Poplin walks on a dusty highroad, the reason is that Doctor Flummix knows the value of advertising, and that Mr. Poplin doesn't.

-The temperature of to-day, like that of yesterday, is in all respects agreeable. Soda fountains are now taking a comparative rest. Paper collars are taking on encouragement. A week ago the same circlet that in half an hour was reduced to pulp now lasts an entire day. People who have survived the late heated m are justified in looking back upon it with

The excitement concerning the war in Europe is strongly intensifying. So much was this the case that many Prussians, in this city, think themselves unable to work. To various manufacturing establishments this state of things involved perturbation and annoyance. Instead of waiting for tidings as given through the medium of the EVENING BULLETIN, these patriotic Prussians spend their time in the vicinity of Bank street. They do this for the ostensible purpose of getting at the latest despatches received by Mr. Charles Vezin, of the Consulate of Prussia. The German wine Consulate of Prussia. The German wine houses to-day are doing an unusual business. What is true of the German wine houses is true also of the cafes frequented by our friends the French. That Louis Napoleon is successfully inveigling his enemy into the terra incognita of interior France is the almost unanimous opinion of the friends of France. The pretty general the friends of France. The pretty general opinion, even of Frenchmen, is that no tears would be necessary even if the Orleans dynasty should be restored. With largely varied observation our reporter is bound to record one fact. He does this for the benefit of future historians, and for the integrity of history in general. The fact in question is that, in this brotherly loving city, the war at present waging is regarded as a war brought about by the ambition of a single individual. That the name of this individual is Louis Napoleon is the culminating point.

—The United States Marshals complain of dullness in their professional business. The fees of these gentlemen are dependent upon the amount of the business that they do. The cream of the professional employment seems to be skimmed by the gentlemen in the secret service of the United States. At intervals these gentlemen capture some "lean and hungry Cassius." The Cassius in question is trying to keep the wolf from his door by the illicit manufacture of Connecticut cigars. Illicit distillation is broken up. For this reason, at the rooms of the U.S. Government. over the Post-Office building, the employed are now studying Dickens with interruption not even amounting to annoyance.

DEATH OF AN OLD MERCHANT.-William Hay, Esq., the senior partner of the well-known house of Hay & McDevitt, died this known house of Hay & McDevitt, died this morning, at his residence in South Eleventh street. Mr. Hay was out driving on Monday apparently in his ordinary health, but was seized on that day with a stroke of paralysis, which resulted fatally this morning.

Mr. Hay was a native of the Northern Liberties, descended from one of the old Quaker families of Philadelphia. During many years of his life he was engaged in mercantile business in Delaware county, but returned to his ness in Delaware county, but returned to his native city in 1850, and has been actively engaged for the last twenty years in the domestic commission business, at the head of the house of Hay & McDevitt.

Few men enjoyed the esteem and confidence of their fellows in a higher degree than did "Major" Hay, as he was familiarly called To a genial manner and generous spirit he added the high characteristic of an unblemished integrity, both in his business and personal character, and to his more intinate circle of friends he had endeared himself by many noble and attractive qualities. Mr Hay was in the sixty-seventh year of his age

Alleged Swindler,—Mr. John Reimer, a German, residing at No. 230 North Front street, a few nights ago met an individual who gave his name as Charles Walter, and repre-sented binself as being a native of Prussia. poor, and in needy circumstances. Mr. Rei-mer took the man home, gave him lodging and breakfast, and then introduced him to Francisco Luis, a cigar manufacturer. The latter said that he was always willing to help people in distress, and gave Walter a pediar's liceuse and cigars valued at $19.56, for the sale of which he offered to allow him a good commission. The fellow then started off and has not been heard of since. not been heard of since.

More War Mars.—The thirst for informa-tion about the seat of European war is being supplied by a series of war maps, the latest of which have been issued by Mr. Charles Desilver, 1229 Chestnut street. Mr. Desilver issues three excellent maps of Europe, France and Germany on one sheet, which will greatly aid the student of the geography of the present cannairs. campaign.

NEW JERSEY MATTERS.

KILLED HIS FATHER .- About five o'clock vesterday afternoon the citizens of Berlin, or Longacoming, and vicinity were thrown into a feverish state of excitement by the report, which ran like wild-fire, that a young man, named John C. Ware, had committed a horrible murder by shooting his father, James A. Ware, instantly dead. Threats of applying Judge Lynch to him immediately passed from me that to mouth, but when the scene of the foul murder was reached the perpetrator of it had fled. Search was instituted, the environs scoured, but he could not be found. Telegraphic information describing the murderer was sent to Camden, and the authorities at once stationed a force at the different ferries to prevent his crossing, should he make the attempt. About one o'clock this morning he came down Federal street in an apparently unconcerned manner, and was arrested by Officer Ayres and committed. He is about twenty-two years of age. No cause has, thus far, been assigned for the terrible act. The murdered man was a quiet and peaceable neighbor and very industrious. He has several children.

BODY RECOVERED. - Yesterday afternoon the body of Benjamin Souders, the young had who was drowned in Cooper's creek on Sunday morning, was found in the Delaware a little below the mouth of the creek, at Cooper's Point, where it had been carried by the force of the tides. Coroner Bender held a view and delivered it into the care of the mother.

LITTLE ORPHANS. - Four little children were taken to the Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Trenton, this morning, by Mr. Nicholls City Clerk, whose fathers were killed in the battles of the rebellion. The little waifs have been in the Camden Home for some time. SERIOUS FALL .- A man named Edward Gifford, in the employ of Mr. Erdman, yesterday afternoon, while engaged in putting a in roof on a house in Second street, above

Penn, fell to the ground and was injured internally very severely. Dr. White attended him CITY NOTICES.

Is IT MEDICINE?—A friend of ours, who balls from one of the upper districts of South Carolina. Called at the Pick Office, and among other novolties, he mentioned "Wolfos Aromatic Schiedam Schaapps, and stated as a fact, that in his section of the country nearly all of the physicians, in certain cases, when they deemed ardent spirits necessary to prolong or save life-invariably used these "Schnapps," justly regarding it as the only spirits that could be procured pure and unadulterated. He also stated that this medicine or "Schnapps" was becoming the only beverage sold on the great stage or railroad routes. He says those physicians who have used and analyzed it, state that for diseases such as gravel, gout, rhoumatism, &c., it is in comparable.

WHAT A BABY IS LIKE .- A baby is said to WHAT A BABY IS LIKE.—A baby is said to be like wheat, because it is first cradled, then thrashed, and finally becomes the flower of the family. Every family should have a baby, a rocking-horse, a sewing-machine, and a supply of the old, original Boaver Meadow Lehigh Coal, sold by MITCHELL & WROTH, at the northeast corner of NINTH street and GHRARD AVENUE. This celebrated variety of anthracite has ever been in the highest estimation with all who have once used it. It burns without forming clinker, hence a fire may be kept up for weeks without rekindling.

"ANOTHER MYSTERY SOLVED.—Chemists being unable to discover the ingredients in fragrant Sozodont, which removes all status from the teeth and imparts such a peculiar rosiness to the gums, the public are hereby informed that it is a preparation from the Bark of the Quillana Saponaria or Soad Tree of Chilli, imported for the first time into this country for this special purpose. Such is the purifying and innocus effect of this rare botanical agent, that it removes discolorations from the most fragile textile fabrics, without injuring a single thread.

P." WHISKIES

This is the only process in operation in the State of Permsylvania for Refining Whiskies in "Vaccuo."

Nos. 246 S. FRONT STREET 117 DOCK STREET,

PHILADELPHIA.

It has been clearly demonstrated that all Liquors distilled by the ordinary methods contain a very large per centage of impurities; the degree of heat that must necessarily be employed, decomposing, disengaging and vaporizing all the baneful elements and noxious gases deleterious fusel oil so detrimental to life and health. Consequently Liquors, as ordinarily distilled, are apt, ven when only used sparingly as a stimulant, to create NAUSEA, SICK HEADACHE, INFLAMMATION and KIDNEY DISEASES; but, when indulged in to excess, the result is BRAIN FEVER, DELIBIUM TREMENS, APOPLEXY, INSANITY, &c. The "P. P." Whiskies, on the contrary, "stimulate and cheer" without unduly exciting the brain or injuring the coats of the stomach. They are refined from the choicest products of the Cereals in "VACCUC," the be to the square inch; consequently a temperature of only about 90 degrees of heat is required in the operation. The process is entirely mechanical, no AOIDS, CHAR-COAL, ESSENCES, EXTRACTS, DRUGS OR CHEMI-CALS OF ANY DESCRIPTION BEING USED—hence the "P. P." Whiskies are not only delicate in flavor, but pure, wholesome and innocuous as a beverage, reaining in simple purity the flavor of the cereals from which they were distilled.

The "P. P." Whiskles have been tested by some of most eminent of the Medical Faculty, by Analytical Chemists, and by the best judges of Liquors in the United States, and pronounced perfectly pure and whole-some, and especially desirable for Family use and Medical purposes.

Members of the medical faculty, the trade, and the public generally are cordially invited to call and inspect the machinery and process, and examine the liquors, and the impurities extracted, at the Refinery and Ware rooms, Nos. 246 South FRONT and II7 DOCK Street.
