TO THE CHARITABLE.—Contributions left at this office in aid of the families of John L. Smith, Francis Fritz and Matthias W. Furey (who died from injuries received at the burning of the sugar refinery, Crown and Race streets), will be duly acknowledged and promptly forwarded to the Treasurer of the Fund for their relief.

THE NAVY YARD ROBBER.—The man arrested for attempting to rob the Paymaster's safe at the Navy Yard, yesterday morning, had a hearing at the Central Station this afternoon. He gave his name as Edward Landman Paymaster James Fulton testified that he locked up the safe and left everything in order on Wednesday afternoon. Yesterday morn-ing he found the outer lock broken and two holes in the safe. The safe was not open. It holes in the safe. The safe was not open. contained only $375 of Government money at the time.

James McDevitt, a marine, testified to seeing three men getting over the wall. Two got away, and he captured the defendant.

Sergeant John Newell, U.S. M. C., testified that he was present when defendant was searched. He identified the articles found as described in yesterday's Bulletin.

Sergeant John Newell, U.S. M. C., testified that the immy and other tools were found Sergeant John Newell, U.S. M. C., testified that the jimmy and other tools were found near to the Paymaster's safe.

Private John May, U.S. M. C., testified that he had a conversation with the prisoner in the guard-house. He had been offered money and some keys, the latter to be thrown away and the former to be kept.

Corporal Willis D. Gould corroborated the evidence of Sergeant Newell.

The defendant was then committed for trial.

Policeman Shor At.—Policemen Shern of the Fifth District and Harrigan of the Sixth District came together at Eighth and Chestnut streets at 3 o'clock this morning. They heard a loud crash of broken glass. The sound appeared to come from an alley running from Seventh to Eighth streets, between Chestnut and Sansom streets. The officers went to this alley. Shern got upon the fence, at the rear of the yard of a house on Sansom street. As he did so a shot was fredat him. He immediately got down from the fence and then the party got down from the fence and then the party on the other side escaped. A further exami-nation showed that an unoccupied dwelling No. 80! Sansom street, had been entered, and the crash heard by the officers was caused by the smashing of the glass in the cellar window. Nothing was stolen. It is supposed that the thieves had designs on some of the surrounding properties. CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.—Charles M. Ruban was before Alderman Kerr this afternoon on the charge of embezzlement. He was an agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. That Society has been in the habit of appropriating a certain sum per head for dogs captured. During several weeks $96-35 cents were given to him to hand to the dog-catchers, and the latter never got the money. Ruban was held in $700 bail to answer. $700 bail to answer.

Store Robbery.—Some time during last night the wholesale grocery store of Thornton Baines, No. 324 North Delaware avenue, was entered by thieves. How the entrance was effected is not known. Two bags of coffee, ten chests of tea, and other articles of the property of the property. were carried off. The value of the property stolen is not known at present. It is supposed the robbers used a wagon to carry off the plunder.

A SEVERE BLOW.-Last evening between and 10 o'clock there was a severe storm of wind accompanied by a shower of rain. The blow seemed to be heaviest about Chestnut Hill. There it was a miniature hurricane. Trees were stripped of their foliage and some of the branches were torn off. As far as ascertained, however, no serious damage was done. The storm had the effect of cooling the atmosphere, and the weather to-day is very

DEATH IN A STATION-HOUSE.-A man was found on the sidewalk in Birch street, in the found on the sidewalk in Birch street, in the neighborhood of Fifteenth and Fitzwater streets, last evening, apparently very ill. Po-liceman McQuaid took him to the First Dis-trict Police station. The sufferer died before medical aid could be summoned. The deceased was about forty years of age. He appeared to be a vagrant, and had nothing about him to show his name.

SERIOUSLY INJURED. - At Seventh and Jayne streets yesterday afternoon about five o'clock, William Duckett began to tantalize a newshoy. The youth got exasperated, and seizing a piece of iron threw it at his tormentor. The missile struck Duckett on the head, causing a severe wound. The injured man was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital by Policeman Roach.

JUVENILE HOUSE BREAKERS.—The two boys, James Devine and James Hughes, who were found in the house No. 1410 Arch street, were before Ald. Kerr this afternoon. Mr. H. W. Colesberry, residing at No. 520 North Nineteenth street, whose house was robled on Wednesday last, identified some of the clothing which was on the youths. The the clothing which was on the youths. The juveniles were sent below.

PHILADELPHIA SCHOOL OF DESIGN FOR WOMEN.—At a meeting of the directors held yesterday the following named gentlemen were elected executive officers for the instituion:

President—W. P. Wilstach, Esq.
Vice President—Wm. J. Horstmann, Esq.
Treasurer—James L. Claghorn, Esq.
Secretary—P. P. Morris, Esq.

LARCENY OF CURTAINS.—Jacob Snyder, who was arrested with two carriage curtains in his possession, was before Alderman Kerr this afternoon. The curtains were identified by Mr. Geo. W. Plumly as having been stolen from his stable, on Conrad's Lane, in the Twenty-first Ward. Snyder was committed.

Picnic.-The picnic of the First Pennsyl-Picnic.—The picnic of the First Pennsylvania Cavalry at Smith's Island, yesterday was a very pleasant affair. It was largely attended and the participants all enjoyed themselves. The affair was a success in every respect. The proceeds are to be given to the fund for the aid of the families of German soldiers killed in the present European war. THE RELIEF FUND.-For the relief of the families of the firemen who were killed at the Sugar House at Crown and Race streets, the following contribution has been received at

SLIGHT FIRE.-Last evening about eight o'clock Johnson's iron foundry, on Filbert street, above Fixth, was discovered to be on fire. The flames were extinguished by Police-fire. The flames were extinguished by Police-man King before they had made much progress. Damage trifling. FATAL RESULT.-William O'Rourke, the lad who was run over by a Union Passenger Railway car at Ninth and Marriott streets a few days ago, died yesterday at the Pennsyl-vania Hospital, from the effects of his inju-

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.-John Zimmerman was arrested this morning by Captain Chasteau and Harbor Policeman Gibson for cruelly beating two mules at the Wire Bridge. He was fined by Ald Alexander.

Assaulting a Policeman.—James Starr was arrested last night at Twelfth and Filbert streets, for assaulting Policeman Murray. He was taken before Alderman Jones, and was held in $600 bail to answer at Court.

RECKLESS DRIVING.—Philip Gallen was arrested, yesterday, at Front and Callowhill streets, on the charge of reckless driving. He was held in $600 ball by Alderman Cahill.

NEW JERSEY MATTERS.

TO MASSACHUSETTS.—Yesterday Mayor Cox gave a second hearing to a man named C. S. Crother, alias C. S. Smith, who had been some time since arrested in Camden, on a charge of having robbed the firm of Messrs. Chapin & Co., at Lawrence, Massachusetts, of quite a large amount of goods, about $2,000 worth of them having been recovered in Camden. The prisoner was committed to await a requisition to be removed to Massachusetts. Massachusetts.

FINISHING A CHURCH.—The work on the Tabernacle Methodist Church of North Ward is now being finished. This edifice, when completed, will-be-a commodious and very convenient structure. The congregation deserve great credit for their efforts and success in providing themselves with such a fine house of worship. of worship

THIRD STREET.-Third street from Market to Stevens streets is in almost an impassable condition by the dirt and paving-stones which have been torn up for the purpose of laying down gas pipes, and as it has been in this con-dition for some time, the Street Committee ought to see that it is repaired.

EXCITING TIMES.—Politicians are making times quite exciting and lively in Camden just now. The county clerkship seems to be the great centre of attraction.

ENCURSION TO LONG BRANCH.—Beck's Philadelphia Band, No. 1, will give an excursion to Long Brauch to-morrow. The first boat will leave Walnut street wharf at 7.30 A. M. From Camden a special train on the Camden, Burlington and New Jersey Southern Railroads will convey the party to Long Branch, where the day may be delightfully spent. Besides the fine bathing, &c., there will be a number of specialties at the Branch. that day—the first day of the trotting matches at Monmouth Park, and a dress parade of the Ninth New York Regiment, under the command of Colonel Fisk. Returning, the train will leave at 7 P.M. All of the excursions given by Beck's Band this season have been splendid affairs, and the participants have always en by Beck's Band this season have been splendid affairs, and the participants have always enjoyed themselves, and this excursion will doubtless be as fine as any of the previous ones. Those who wish to go on this delightful trip should secure their tickets early, as the supply will be limited. They can be precured until seven o'clock P. M. of the day previous to the excursion, at the office of Beck's Band, 828 Market street; Charles Brintzinghoffer, 935 Market street; Enos Renner, 501 Girard avenue; Jacob C. Heim, 1215 North Tenth street; Ticket Office, 828 Chestnut street; and Amboy R. R. Ticket Office, Walnut street wharf, any day previous to the exnut street wharf, any day previous to the excursion, and on the morning of the excursion.

ATLANTIC CITY.-For the information of those who wish to visit the seashore, we will inform them that the Camden and Atlantic inform them that the Camden and Atlantic Railroad are now running five trains daily to the City by the Sea, one at 8.00 and at 9.45 A. M., and at 4.15 P. M. In addition to these, the fast train (through in one hour and threequarters) is now running, leaving Vine street wharf at 2.00 and 3.15 P. M., and on Saturdays only an additional fast express train leaves at 2 o'clock P. M. The Sunday train will be rut as usual, leaving Vine street wharf at 8 A. M. Keturning, leaves Atlantic at 4 P. M.

CAPE MAY.—The season at this favorite watering place is now about at its height, and presents many attractions. The hotels are well filled, and promise, not with standing their extensive enlargements and additions, to find visitors for every available space. The fast express train, by the West Jersey Railroad, leaving Philadelphia at 4 o'clock P. M., this leaving Philadelphia at 4 o'clock P. M., this afternoon, makes no stops for passengers between Philadelphia and Cape May. The mail train leaves on Sunday at 7.15 A. M., returning at 5.10 P. M. Fair for round trip
