Delay seems to have been caused by some questions which have arisen in relation to the soldiers in the Military Asylum being legally entitled to vote in the district. It appears that, during the closing hours of the Legislature of Ohio, an Enabling act was passed, which was intended to give the right to vote to these soldiers. It s claimed, however, by the Democrats that it was irregularly passed, and the leaders have been quietly investigating the matter. I from the N. Y. Herald of to-day.!

Monday, Aug. 29 — The monotony of the Wall street markets, which is unparalloled in the modern history of ovents in our local financial business, and which many supposed would yield to activity on to-day, the beginning of the first week of the fall season was, despite such reason, rudely unbroken. The dealings in the Long Room were carried on by a group whose numbers were seldem over a dezen, and often only half that figure. Even in the Gold Room the crowd, which was moderate-sized in the forenoon, dwindled down to some twenty or twenty-five, who were as quiet as so many men could be. Whatever movement the gold premium exhibited was due to further reports of heavy fighting in Europe, and, as the Prussians were at first regarded as undoubtedly victorious, gold declined to 1854. Here it was reported that Bazaine had won a victory over the Prussians at a point north of Metz. and that he was in communication with Paris, which city was forwarding him heavy reinforcements, gold advanced to 1654, but as later it was reported that MacMahon had met with another reverse, gold feel Inc. Such was the extent of the movement in the market.

The demand for governments, which is seldem effected by the character of business at the Stock Exchange, was very litter the most significant evidence of the utter inactivity into which business has drifted. The effect of the better price in London seemed overcome by the impression among a few dealers at the board that the terrific fighting reported to be in progress in France has not been a victory for the Prussians. Hence the German brokers have been disposed to buy rather than to sell gold. As a consequence prices of governments at the close were off a trifle from the average figures of the boards.

There was little or no demand for money among the steck houses, the new business of the day being so light as to necessitate very little inquiry. Hence the majority of loans were suffered to lie over at the rates which were ge From the N. Y. Herald of to-day.
